INTRODUCT.

POLKA.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some with slurs and accents. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a bass line with chords and moving lines.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with slurs and accents. The lower staff continues the bass line with chords and moving lines.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with slurs and accents. The lower staff continues the bass line with chords and moving lines.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with slurs and accents. The lower staff continues the bass line with chords and moving lines.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with slurs and accents. The lower staff continues the bass line with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a double bar line and the text "DA CAPO POLKA." written below the bass staff.
