The Daughter of Mendoza

O lend to me sweet nightingale,
Your music by the fountain,
O lend to me your cadences
O river of the mountain.
That I may sing my gay brunette,
A diamond spark in coral set,
Gem for a princes coronet,
The daughter of Mendoza.

How brilliant is the morning star,
The evening star how tender,
The light of both is in her eyes,
Their softness and their splendor.
But for the lash that shades their light,
They were too dazzling for the sight.
And when she shuts them all is night,
The daughter of Mendoza.

What though perchance we no more meet,
What though too soon we sever,
Thy form will float like emerald light,
Before my vision ever.
For who can see and then forget,
The glories of my gay brunette.
Thou art too bright a star to set,
The daughter of Mendoza.
