CANTVS.

TO THE MOST RARE AND ACCOM-PLISHED LADY THE LADY

MARYE
COVNTES OF PEMBROKE.

Most eccelent Ladie, giue mee leaue to take this simple occasion of presenting my humble deuotion to honor you: and if boldnesse in it selfe be not to great a fault, pardon and forgieue the same; since the cause therof in me being diuerse from that in other men; doth in all right craue a most kinde and saorable interpretation. For whereas they doe dedicate with hope of after benefit: so far am I from this, that your Ladiship in accepting this of mee, doth binde mee to you: and I in giueing thereof doe infinitely thank you for the same. Not so much because heereby I shall make knowne the greatnesse of your deserts to mee; as that now I shall make knowne to the world mine owne iudgement in this my choise: nor so much shew you worthe to receiue; as my selfe wise thus to giue: nor yet binde you any way so much to mee by this gift; as I shall binde my selfe to my selfe by this acknowledgement. Receiue then (most worthe Ladie) these simple gifts, worthe to be receiued, euen of the greatest Princes that the world hath (not because they are mine, but because now they are yours) to which if at anie time your Ladiship shall but vouchsafe your beauenly voice; it cannot be but they will so returne perfumed with the sweetnesse of that breath, as the Ayre wilbe made euen delightfull thereby, and for that cause come to bee in request and sought for euer after. Vppon which assurance resting my selfe, I humbly take my leaue, in all reuerence kissing your honorable hands.

Onto your Ladiship deuoted
in all affection,

THOMAS MORLEY.

COUNTESS OF PEMBROKE.

MOST excellent Ladie, giue mee leaue to take this simple occasion of presenting my humble deuotion to honor you: and if boldnesse in it selfe bee not to great a fault, pardon and forgieue the same; since the cause thereof in mee beeing diuerse from that in other men; doth in all right craue a most kinde and fauorable interpretation. For vnderas they doe dedicate with hope of after benefit: so far am I from this, that your Ladiship in accepting this of mee, doth binde me to you: and I in giuing thereof doe infinitely thank you for the same. Not so much because hereby I shall make knowne the greatnesse of your deserts to mee; as that now I shal make knowne to the world mine owne iudgement in this my choise: nor so much shew you worthy to receiue, as my selfe wvise thus to giue: nor yet binde you any way so much to mee by this gift; as I shall binde my selfe to my selfe by this acknowledgement. Receiue then (most worthy Lady) these simple gifts, worthy to be receiued, euen of the greatest Princes that the world hath (not because they are mine, but because now they are yours) to vvhich if at any time your Ladiship shall but vouchsafe your heauenly voice; it cannot bee but they wvill so returne persumed with the spectynesse of that breath, as the Ayre wvill be made euery delighfull thereby, and for that cause come to bee in request and sought for euery after. Vpon vvhich assurance resting my selfe, I humbly take my leaue, in all reuerence kissing your honorable hands.

Vnto your Ladyship deuoted

in all affection,
