That Golden Hour

That golden hour — can we forget
When first our lips in kisses met?
 Two hearts adrift in Psyche's boat,
 Upon a dreaming sea to float,
While Eros sang a canzonet.

Your eyes with happy tears were wet
And so divinely drooped, and yet
 They answered mine with love devote
 That golden hour.

Upon your dusky hair I set
A crown of fern and violet,
 While from the throstle's raptured throat
 There came one long and liquid note —
Ah! whisper, sweet — do you regret
 That golden hour?
