Farewell to Erin.

Words and Music by CLARIBEL.

VOICE.

PIANO-FORTE.

I'm

sail - in' a-way o'er the green sea to - mor-row, I'm leav - in' the land o' the shamrock be - hind; From Fa - ther and Mo - ther I'm part - in' in sor - row, And och! I've a cra - vin' to al - ter my mind. But yet could I bear ye to sail off with - out me, And did - n't I pro - mise a true wife to be; Ah! I tell them I'll nev - er for -

- sake ye or doubt ye, Where - ev - er thou art, would seem E - rin to me....

But

Der-mot, remem-ber it's all I am leav-in', And sure you'll be lov-in' and ten-der as now; I know in my heart you would ne'er be de-ceiv-in' The bless-in' o' Hea-ven you call'd on the vow. But, dar-lin', my tears have been bit-ter and ma-ny, It's

FAREWELL TO ERIN.

nigh up - on break - in', my heart seems to be, Ah! but still I'll be think - in', I'm back in Kil - ken - ny, Where - ev - er thou art would seem E - rin to me....

Fare -

- well to the land o' my heart's best af - fec - tions, May an - gels be watchin' the cab - in I love, And bring to my dreams the be - lov'd re - so - lu - tion, Tho' far from the moun - tain and val - ley I rove. Some day we'll re - turn, if kind Hea - ven be will - in', Then or Yet.....wherehap - py my heart nigh to burst - in' will be, Yet where - e'er we may roam, and tho'

would seem E - rin to me.....

strange be the dwell - in', Where - ev - er thou art would seem E - rin to me....
