Dey were going to be married dat day,
 And de darkies were all to be there,
 In de little log church by de way,
 Wid de color'd gals looking so fair.
 Den locked arm in arm,
 For fear of some harm,
 Dis couple went skipping along
 And Rosa felt happy dat day
 As she sang dat sweet nightingale song.
 Chorus. Den locked arm &c

Shall I eber forget it indeed?
 How happy de darkies did look
 When de parson he den did proceed
 By perusing de highmonial book!
 Den he asked lovely Rosa,
 If wedded she'd be
 And take Ginger for better or wuss?
 Wid a tear and a sigh she said yes!
 Den Ginger give Rosa a buss.
 Chorus. Den he asked &c.
