TO THE

Right Reverend Father in God,

NATHANIEL,

Lord Biſhop of DURHAM.

MY LORD,

THE Ambition I have to do the greateſt Honour I can to the Memory of my Dear Huſband, by inſcribing ſome of his beſt Compoſitions to the beſt Patrons both of the Science he profeſs'd, and of his Performances in it, is the faireſt Apology I can make to your Lordſhip; as it was the main Inducement to my ſelf for placing Your Lordſhip's Name before this Piece of Muſick. The Pains he beſtow'd in preparing it for ſo Great and Judicious an Auditory, were highly rewarded by their kind Reception of it when it was firſt Perform'd, and more yet by their Intention to have it repeated at their Annual Meeting; but will receive the laſt and higheſt Honour by your Lordſhip's favourable Reception of it from the Preſs, to which I have committed it, that I might at once gratifie the Deſires of ſeveral Gentlemen to ſee the Score, and at the ſame time give my ſelf an Opportunity to acknowledge, in the moſt Publick and Gratefull Manner, the many Favours Your Lordſhip has beſtow'd on my Deceaſed Huſband, and conſequently on

YOUR LORDSHIP's

Moſt Oblig'd, and moſt Humble Servant,

F. PURCELL.
