AUTHOR'S ADVERTISEMENT

The Author of this collection of Sacred Music begs leave respectfully to present "The New Village Harmony" to the public, and to recommend it as well adapted to the wants and capacities of Sabbath School Pupils;—as well as for the use of choirs, which, from a deficiency in numbers, find it inconvenient to perform pieces so harmonized as to require a greater number of parts to be sustained;—and on the same account, for use in the conference room and family circle.

The greater number of the tunes are original; the remainder consists of tunes selected from his other publications, viz. the American Harp, an original work, and the Ancient Lyre, a compilation and new arrangement of old and new tunes;—the whole are harmonized either for two Trebles, for two Trebles and Base, or for three Trebles.

The book, besides being entirely free of selections from Operas, Songs, Glees, &c., is in the true style of Church Music, either as regards the expression of the melodies, the variety of metres, or sentiments of the hymns; and will, he hopes, prove very useful.

An Introduction to the Art of Singing is introduced into the work in a plain and simple style, by question, answer and illustration; and, with a proper degree of explanation on the part of the teacher, and attention on the part of the pupil, will be found sufficient to give a good knowledge of the rudiments of the science.

Entered, according to act of Congress, in the year 1833, by LINCOLN, EDMANDS & CO.
in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

PUBLISHERS' PREFACE

Among the means now used in this age of benevolent effort to cultivate the mind and improve the heart, teaching children the science of Music holds a primary rank. Every facility, therefore, which is given to this branch of study is welcome to the community; hence the publication of this Musical Manual. In presenting this work to the patronage of those who are interested in the intellectual advance of the youth of our country in the important service of Sacred Song, the Publishers feel confident that in its preparation the acknowledged talents of the Author will be found to have been successfully employed.

The establishment of Sabbath Schools has had a direct tendency to engage the young in the delightful service of Sacred Music, the influence of which on the mind, in every situation of life, is universally acknowledged. The young convert expresses his glow of gratitude to his Redeemer in songs of praise; and, with the sweet singer of Israel, the mature Christian swells the anthem of his thanksgiving for preserving grace. Indeed the improving taste of the age in this science, seems to be establishing the truth of the sentiment of an ancient philosopher, that "music contains the seed of moral life."

It may indeed be said that music enhances, almost to perfection, the pleasures of social intercourse. Its exercise not only invigorates health, but brings into action one of the most cheerful faculties of the mind. It has power to dispel despondency, and to brighten hope.

The cultivation of the voice in the strains of melody, and of the ear in the varied notes of harmony, tends to quicken our sensibilities, and to open the heart to the moral of the verse; hence the importance of connecting correct and salutary hymns with the tunes to be learned by juvenile performers. First impressions are always deep; and, as the words which accompany pieces of music are so thoroughly committed to memory as never to be forgotten, their wholesome tone is of the first importance to the young. In selecting the hymns, therefore, for this work, great care has been taken in reference to the sentiments which they inculcate.

Boston, July, 1833.

Introduction to the Art of Singing.

LESSON I. OF THE STAFF.

- 1 What is a STAFF, or what does a Staff contain?
Five Lines and four Spaces.

LINES.		SPACES.
5	_____ Fifth Line.	4	_____ Fourth Space.
4	_____ Fourth Line.	3	_____ Third Space.
3	_____ Third Line.	2	_____ Second Space.
2	_____ Second Line.	1	_____ First Space.
1	_____ First Line.

- 2 What is the use of these Lines and Spaces?
Musical characters are written upon them. The notes determine the pitch of sounds.

- 3 What do you call each Line and Space?
A Degree.
4 How many Degrees does the Staff contain?
Nine.
5 What do you call the added Degrees?
Leger Lines, or Added Lines.
6 What the Spaces?
Spaces above or below the Staff.

LESSON II. OF NOTES AND RESTS.

- 1 How many kinds of NOTES are there? Six.

- 3 How many Minims is a Semibreve equal to?
Two.
4 How many Crotchets is a Minim equal to?
Two.
5 How many Semi-quavers is a Crotchet equal to?
Four.

- 2 What are they called?
Semibreve, Minim, Crotchet, Quaver, Semi-quaver, Demisemi-quaver.

- 6 Can you tell the relative proportion of the Notes in the common order?

Yes. One Semibreve is equal to 2 Minims, or 4 Crotchets, or 8 Quavers, or 16 Semi-quavers, or 32 Demisemi-quavers.

7 What means the value of a Note?

The length of time the sound of a note is to be sustained.

8 How many, and what are the names of the primary Musical Sounds?

There are seven: A, B, C, D, E, F, G.—Or,

Semibreve Rest. Minim Rest. Crotchet Rest. Quaver Rest. Semiquaver Rest. Demisemiquaver Rest.

9 How do you know the length of a Note?

By its form.

10 What do you understand by RESTS?

Rests are marks of silence.

11 How many such marks are there?

Six.

12 What do you call them?

Semibreve Rest, Minim Rest, Crotchet Rest, Quaver Rest, Semiquaver Rest, Demisemiquaver Rest.

LESSON III.

ON CLEFS.

1 What is the use of a CLEF?

The Clef fixes the place of the notes or letters upon the Staff.

2 How many Clefs are there?

There are three.

3 What are they called?

The Base, or F Clef—the Tenor, or C Clef—and the Treble, or G Clef.

BASE.

TENOR.

TREBLE

4 Which Clefs are in common use?

The Base and Treble Clefs.

5 On which line is the G Clef situated?

On the second line.

6 On which line is the Base Clef?

On the fourth line.

Situation of the letters in the Base Clef.

Situation of the letters in the Treble Clef.

LESSON IV.

ON THE MARKS OF TRANSPOSITION, OR THE
SHARP, (#) FLAT, (b) AND NATURAL. (♮)

SHARPS.	FLATS.	NATURALS.
#	b	♮
##	bb	♮

- 1 What do you call the FLATS or SHARPS, placed at the beginning of a piece of music? Essential, or Signatures.
- 2 What are they called when placed before single notes?

Accidental.

- 3 What is the use of a Sharp?
A Sharp directs that the note is to be sung half a note higher than its natural tone.
- 4 What is the use of a Flat?
The same notes are to be sung half a note lower than the natural tone.
- 5 What is the use of a Natural?
It restores a note made flat or sharp, to its natural tone.
- 6 What is the effect of Flats and Sharps, when placed at the beginning of a tune?
They last throughout the piece.
- 7 But how long do accidental Flats and Sharps last?
Through one bar only.

LESSON V.

OF MUSICAL CHARACTERS.

MEASURE. BAR. MEASURE. BAR. MEASURE. BAR. DOUBLE BAR, or HOLDS or PAUSES.

A SLUR. A TIE. A REPEAT. SINGLE REPEATS. DOUBLE REPEAT. * BAR LINE.

or

1 What is the use of a Bar line?

To show the end of a measure.

2 What is the use of a Double bar?

To show the end of a strain in music, or a line of poetry.

3 What is the meaning of a Tie?

That the notes are to be sung in a smooth and connected manner, and to one syllable.

4 Do you know the meaning of a Slur?

The Slur requires that the sound should be sustained.

5 Can you tell the meaning of a Repeat?

It shows that a strain or whole piece should be sung twice.

6 What is the use of Pauses?

Pauses over notes or rests show a point of repose to the performer.

LESSON VI.

A musical staff in treble clef illustrating various performance techniques. It begins with a 'Shake' (trill) on a note, followed by a 'To be sung' section with a slur over a series of notes. The staff then shows a crescendo (marked with a wedge and an asterisk), a decrescendo (marked with an inverted wedge and an asterisk), staccato notes (marked with asterisks and vertical lines), and legato notes (marked with asterisks and a slur).

A Shake. To be sung. *(Crescendo.) increasing. *(Decrescendo.) decreasing. *(Staccato.) short, marked. *(Legato.) connected.

DOTTED NOTES AND RESTS.

Written.

A musical staff in treble clef showing the written notation for dotted notes and rests. It includes dotted minims, dotted crotchets, and dotted quavers, along with dotted rests.

To be sung
or performed.

A musical staff in treble clef showing the performance notation for dotted notes and rests. It includes slurs over dotted notes and ties between notes to indicate the correct duration.

1 What is the use of a Dot?

A Dot lengthens the value of a note.

2 What is the general rule for the Dots?

A Dot, placed after a note or rest, adds one half to its original value.

3 How much is a dotted Minim?

Three Crotchets.

4 How much a dotted Crotchet?

Three Quavers.

5 How much a dotted Quaver?

Three Semiquavers.

LESSON VII.

OF TIME.

- 1 Do you know the different kinds of Time in Music?
Yes. Two kinds.
- 2 What do you call them?
Common and Triple Time.
- 3 What is the difference between them?
Common Time contains an even number of equal parts, two or four equal notes; but in Triple Time we count three or six equal notes to each measure.
- 4 What kinds of time belong to Common Time?
Four Crotchets, two Crotchets, two Minims, four Quavers.
- 5 Can you tell some kinds of Triple Time?
Three Minims, three Crotchets, three Quavers, six Quavers, &c.
- 6 How can you know in what kind of Time a piece is to be played?
From the figures placed at the beginning.
- 7 What does the top figure signify?
The number of parts of the note, contained within the measure.
- 8 What does the bottom figure signify?
The value of the notes.
- 9 Which parts of the bars in general are the accented parts?
The first parts, or first beats.
- 10 How are the beats marked or distinguished?
By the falling and rising of the hand.
- 11 How do you beat the accented parts of the bars?
By the falling of the hand.
- 12 And the unaccented?
By the rising of the hand.
- 13 What is the sign in general of Common Time?
A C, or four beats in each bar.
- 14 What means a $\text{\textcircled{C}}$ with a bar drawn across it?
It means two beats in each measure.
- 15 What is Compound Time?
Compound Time is either a multiplied Common or Triple Time, in regard to the top figure.

LESSON VIII.

ON THE SCALE OR GAMUT, AND INTERVALS.

MAJOR SCALE.

MINOR SCALE.

NAMES OF THE INTERVALS.

Prima or Unison.
 Minor Second.
 Major Second.
 Minor Third.

Major Third.
 Perfect Fourth.
 Sharp Fourth.
 Flat Fifth.
 Perfect Fifth.

Minor Sixth.
 Major Sixth.
 Minor Seventh.
 Major Seventh.
 Octave.

EXAMPLE.

PRIMA;

FLAT FIFTH; (called also imperfect or false fifth;) consisting of two tones and two semitones.

MINOR SECOND; consisting of one semitone.

PERFECT FIFTH; consisting of three tones and one semitone.

MAJOR SECOND; consisting of one tone.

MINOR SIXTH; consisting of three tones and two semitones.

MINOR THIRD; consisting of one tone and one semitone.

MAJOR SIXTH; consisting of four tones and one semitone.

MAJOR THIRD; consisting of two tones.

MINOR SEVENTH; (flat seventh) consisting of four tones and two semitones.

PERFECT FOURTH; consisting of two tones and one semitone.

MAJOR SEVENTH; (sharp seventh) consisting of five tones and one semitone.

SHARP FOURTH; (called also Tritonus;) consisting of three tones.

OCTAVE: consisting of five tones and two semitones.

1 Where do you find the two Semitones in the Major scale?

Between the third and fourth, and seventh and eighth degrees.

2 Where is the place of the two Semitones in the Minor scale?

Between the second and third, and fifth and sixth degrees.

3 Upon which degree is the leading Interval?

Upon the seventh degree.

4 What is understood by the word Interval?

The distance between two notes, counting from the lowest note upwards.

5 How many whole and half tones do you find in the compass of a Perfect Fifth?

Three whole tones and two half tones.

6 How many in a Major Seventh?

Five whole tones and one half tone.

7 How many in an Octave?

Five whole tones and two half tones.

8 How many in a Perfect Fourth?

Two whole tones and one half tone.

9 How many in a Major Third?

Two whole tones.

10 How many in a Minor Third?

One whole tone and one half tone.

11 How many in a Major Seventh?

Five whole tones and one half tone.

12 How many in a Minor Seventh?

Four whole tones and two half tones.

DIFFERENT INTERVALS—FOR PRACTICE.

Sing A (aw.)

LESSON IX.

OF SOLMIZATION.

1 What is Solmization?

The application of certain syllables to the notes.

2 How many syllables are in use?

Seven.

3 What are they?

Do, Re, Mi, Fa, Sol, La, Si,—[pronounced Doe, Rae, Mee, Faw, Sole, Law, See.]

4 What is the name of the leading note?

Si.

5 How can we know the place of the syllable Si?

By the Signature.

6 What are Signatures?

Flats or Sharps placed at the beginning of a piece of music.

7 Which letter has the syllable Si, if the Signature be Natural?

The letter B.

8 What letter if the Signature is one Flat? (B♭)

On the letter E.

9 Two Flats? (B & E♭)

On the letter A.

10 Three Flats? (or B, E & A♭)

On the letter D.

11 Four Flats? (B, E, A & D♭)

On the letter G.

12 On what letter is the syllable Si, if the Signature be one Sharp? (F♯)

On F♯.

13 Two Sharps? (F & C♯)

On C♯.

14 Three Sharps? (F, C & G♯)

On G♯.

15 Four Sharps? (F, C, G & D♯)

On D♯.

N. B.—The teacher may explain the accidentals, in Solmization, and direct such changes as according to the nature of a passage may be required.

LESSON X.

1 Do the syllables change their places on the Staff?

They do.

2 Do the letters change their places?

They do not.

3 If Fa, Sol, La and Mi, should represent the seven sounds, which syllables do you repeat?

Fa, Sol and La.

4 Which is the leading note?

Mi.

5 How is the place of the leading note (the syllable Mi), known?

By the Signature.

6 What do you call Signatures?

Flats or Sharps placed at the beginning of a tune.

7 If the Signature is Natural, where is the syllable Mi?

On the letter B.

8 If the Signature is one Flat (B♭) where is Mi?

On the letter E.

9 If it is two Flats (B & E♭) where is Mi?

On the letter A.

10 If it is three Flats (B, E & A♭) where is Mi?

On the letter D.

11 If it is four Flats (B, E, A & D♭) where is Mi?

On the letter G.

12 On what letter is the syllable Mi to be found if the Signature be one Sharp? (F♯)

On the letter F♯.

13 Two Sharps? (F & C♯)

On C♯.

14 Three Sharps? (F, C & G♯)

On G♯.

15 Four Sharps? (F, C, G & D♯)

On D♯.

See N. B. at the end of the ninth lesson, regarding the accidentals in Solmization.—Such changes are made sometimes by a different termination of the syllables; as, Fe, for Fa—Se, for Sol, &c.—An easier method, however, may be adopted (for all Farela, Larefa and Doremi), by singing always the sound of à broad, for all the intervals, scales and lessons, taking care to be familiar with the names of the notes, C, D, E, F, &c.

The words may be used in singing, only when the learner shall have attained a certain degree of facility in reading music. It is necessary to explain the situations of the whole and half tones in the scales, and their places in the major and minor scales. By this method the learner will have infinitely less trouble than by the old Do, Re, Mi, Fa. His voice will sooner shew the effect of cultivation.

How pleasing is the scene, how sweet, Where christian souls in friendship join,

Whose cares and joys, u - - nited, meet In bonds of char - i - - ty di - vine!

2 Less fragrant was the ointment pour'd
On Aaron's consecrated head,
When balmy odors richly show'r'd
All o'er his sacred vesture spread.

3 Not flow'ry Hermon e'er display'd,
Impeal'd with dew, a fairer sight;
Nor Sion's beauteous hills array'd
In golden beams of morning light.

My God, how end - less is thy love! Thy gifts are eve-ry evening new:

And morn-ing mer-cies from a - bove, Do gen-tly fall, like ear-ly dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours;
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 My heart should yield to thy command;
To thee would I devote my days;
Perpetual blessings from thy hand,
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

For two or three Parts.

Our Fa-ther, here a - gain we raise, To thee our morning hymn of praise;

For all - the joys thy smiles af - ford, This sa - cred day, thy ho - ly word.

2 We thank thee, Father, that to thee
 Again we bend the lowly knee:
 That here in peace and prayer we stand,
 Upheld by an Almighty hand.

3 Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
 Keep us from sin and error free;
 Thy sabbaths may we so improve
 At last to win our Father's love

4 So shall we then, when life shall end,
 A nobler, holier sabbath spend;
 When thy good children all shall be,
 Join'd in one family with thee.

2 For him shall endless praise be made,
And angels throng to crown his head:
His name like sweet perfume shall rise,
With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

ALLEGRO ASSAI.

For two or three Parts.

Who gave the sun his noon-tide light? Who taught the moon to shine by night?

Whose hand the arch of heav'n un-roll'd, Thick set with stars like drops of gold.

- 2 Who gave the winds their course to know? The ocean's tides to ebb and flow?
And day and night to keep their bounds
And changing seasons know their rounds?
- 3 'Twas God who gave creation birth,
Who formed this wond'rous globe of earth,
And breathed throughout this mighty whole
The likeness of a living soul.

4 Bow then to God—O all that live!
To God eternal praises give!
Who fashioned by his mighty hand,
Sun, moon, and stars; the sea and land.

This is a pre-cious book in-deed! - Happy the child that loves to read!

'Tis God's own word, which he has giv'n, To shew our souls the way to heav'n!!

2 It tells us how the world was made;
And how good men the Lord obey'd:
Here his commands are written too,
To teach us what we ought to do.

3 But, what is more than all beside,
The 'Bible tells us, Jesus died!'
This is its best, its chief intent,
To lead poor sinners to repent.

4 Be thankful, children, that you may
Read this good Bible every day;
'Tis God's own word, which he has giv'n
To shew your souls 'the way to heav'n.'

Al - migh - ty God! while earth and heav'n Thy pow'r and skill pro - claim;

Wilt thou per - mit a child to sing The hon - or of - - thy name.

2 The early dawn of opening life
 Has proved thy guardian care;
 And may I, through all future years,
 Thy grace and goodness share.

3 Now may I give myself to thee,
 And in thy name confide;
 Most gracious God! O deign to be
 My Father, Friend, and Guide

MODERATO.

Let not a false or spite - ful word Be found up - on your tongue

2 Depart from mischief, practise love,
Pursue the works of peace;
So shall the Lord your ways approve,
And set your souls at ease!

3 His eyes awake to guard the just,
His ears attend their cry;
When broken spirits dwell in dust,
The God of grace is nigh.

4 When desolation like a flood
O'er the proud sinner rolls,
Saints find a refuge in their God,
For he redeems their souls

His cheerful beams abroad;
Then shall our morning hymns of praise,
Declare thy goodness, Lord

ALLEGRO ASSAI.

HYMN CHANT. (ROCHESTER.) From the Ancient Lyre.

For one or two Parts.

How shall the young secure their hearts, And guard their lives from sin?

Thy word the chois - est rules imparts, To keep the conscience clean.

2 When once it enters to the mind,
It spreads such light abroad,
The meanest souls instruction find,
And raise their thoughts to God.

3 'Tis like the sun a heav'nly light,
That guides us all the day;
And, through the dangers of the night
A lamp to lead our way.

4 Thy word is everlasting truth,
How pure is ev'ry page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

(LIVERPOOL.) From the Ancient Lyre.

For one or two Parts.

There is a path that leads - to God, All oth - ers go - - as - tray;

Nar - row, but pleas - ant is - - the road, And Christians love the way.

2 How shall a christian pilgrim dare
This dangerous path to tread?
For on the way is many a snare
For youthful trav'lers spread.

3 But lest my feeble steps should slide,
Or wander from thy way,
Lord, condescend to be my guide,
And I shall never stray.

4 Thus I may safely venture through,
Beneath my Shepherd's care;
And keep the gate of heav'n in view
Till I shall enter there.

CHORAL.

(CANTERBURY) From the Ancient Lyre.

For one or two Parts.

Now that my jour-ney's just be-gun, My road so lit-tle trod,

I'll come, be-fore I fur-ther run, And give my-self to God.

2 What sorrows may my steps attend,
I never can foretell;
But if the Lord will be my friend,
I know that all is well.

3 If all my earthly friends should die,
And leave me mourning here;
Since God can hear the orphan's cry,
O what have I to fear?

4 But, Lord, whatever grief or ill
For me may be in store;
Make me submissive to thy will,
And I would ask no more

 The great and mighty Lord. And peace abound below.

4 To us a Child of hope is born,
 To us a Son is given:
 The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
 The mighty Lord of heaven.

CHORAL.

For two Parts.

Thy mercies fill the earth, O Lord; How good thy works appear!

O - pen my eyes to read thy word, And see - thy won - ders there.

2 Since I'm a stranger here below,
 Let not thy path be hid;
 But mark the road my feet should go,
 And be my constant guide.

3 When I confess'd my wandering ways,
 Thou heard'st my soul complain;
 Grant me the teachings of thy grace,
 Or I shall stray again.

4 If God to me his statutes show,
 And heavenly truth impart,
 His work forever I'll pursue,
 His law shall rule my heart.

Cre--ate, O God, my powers a--new, Make my-whole heart sin-

----- cere and true; Oh cast me not in wrath a--- way,

Nor let thy soul en-liv--'ning ray, - Still cease to shine.

2 Restore thy favor bliss divine!
 Those heavenly joys that once were mine;
 Let thy good Spirit, kind and free,
 Uphold and guide my steps to Thee,
 Thou God of love.

3 Then will I teach thy sacred ways;
 With holy zeal proclaim thy praise;
 Till sinners leave the dang'rous road,
 Forsake their sins, and turn to God
 With hearts sincere.

4 Oh cleanse my guilt, and heal my pain;
 Remove the blood-polluted stain;
 Then shall my heart adoring trace,
 My Saviour God, the boundless grace,
 That flows from Thee,

Glo-ry in the highest, glo-ry! Glo - ry be to God on high!

2 Peace on earth, good will from heaven,
 Reaching far as man is found;
 Souls redeem'd, and sins forgiven,
 Loud our golden harps shall sound.
 Christ is born, God's own anointed,
 Heaven and earth his praises sing;
 O, receive whom God appointed
 For your Prophet, Priest, and King

3 Hasten mortals to adore him;
 Learn his name, and taste his joy;
 Till in heaven, ye sing before him,
 Glory be to God on high!
 Let us learn the wondrous story
 Of our great Redeemer's birth;
 Spread the brightness of his glory
 Till it cover all the earth.

ZEUNER'S MUSICAL WORKS.

ZEUNER'S MUSICAL MANUAL, for

Sabbath Schools and Conference Meetings.

Among the means now used in this age of benevolent effort to cultivate the mind and improve the heart, teaching children the Science of Music holds a primary rank. Every facility, therefore, which is given to this branch of study, is welcome to the community; hence the publication of this Musical Manual, which is well adapted to the wants and capacities of Sabbath School Pupils.

The cultivation of the voice in the strains of melody, and of the ear in the varied tones of harmony, tends to quicken our sensibilities, and to open the heart to the moral of the verse; hence the importance of connecting correct and salutary hymns with the tunes to be learned by juvenile performers. First impressions are always deep, and as the words which accompany pieces of music are so thoroughly committed to memory as never to be forgotten, their wholesome tone is of the first importance to the young. In selecting the hymns, therefore, for this work, great care has been taken in reference to the sentiments which they inculcate.

The following testimonials in approbation of this valuable little Manual, are selected from a great variety, in possession of the Publishers.

From Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Comprehensive Commentary, (Baptist Edition) now publishing.

"I have examined, to a considerable extent, Zeuner's Musical Manual for Sabbath Schools, and am happy to be able to express my high satisfaction of it, in several respects. First—It is what it professes to be, a work adapted to Sabbath Schools; at least to those, (and their number is rapidly increasing, in which the study of music is attended to. It is adapted to Sabbath Schools, also, in another respect, viz: That a large number of the hymns are expressly appropriate to the praise of God, in those interesting and valuable institutions: and all of them are level to the capacity of intelligent children. Secondly, The music is almost all of that simple kind, which the untutored, or only slightly instructed erring children, can appreciate and relish. Thirdly, The instructions are such as cannot fail to be useful in the hands of a person properly qualified for the duty of instruction, to give to children such valuable information in the elements of Musical Science."

From the New England Christian Herald.

"We are highly pleased with this work, and cordially recommend it as well calculated to answer the very commendable purpose for which it is designed. We wish it every success which the talents of its author, or its own intrinsic merit deserves. Sabbath Schools should everywhere be furnished with it, and the youth taught in them should, whether pursuing any religious studies, have furnished them the opportunity of bearing to sing the praises of their Creator, with the spirit and understanding of..."

ZEUNER'S ANCIENT LYRE. A Collection of old, new, and original Church Music, under the approval of the Musical Professional Society of Boston. By Charles Zeuner, Organist at Park Street Church, and to the Handel and Haydn Society, Boston. This work contains an extensive selection of the oldest and most justly popular Church Melodies, such as Majesty, Chester, Warrant, Victory, Buckingham, Paris, &c., newly arranged pieces, with many original compositions, and a large number of select pieces, suitable for all public occasions.

First Edition, Choir in Park Street Church, Boston.

This collection is composed of old, new, and original Church Music. Many of the old tunes have been newly harmonized with the most scientific nicety and skill, and there has been imparted them a portion of that richness of melody and accuracy of composition, for which German composers are so eminently distinguished. We have as far as possible rescued from the time of its publication, and have found it to be in every respect adapted to the use of Public Worship. We hesitate not, therefore, most confidently, to recommend the introduction of it, with the fullest assurance that it will be found effectual in the improvement of the present state of sacred music, and entirely answer the expectations of all.

From Mr. C. Kingsley, Professor and Teacher of Sacred, Vocal, and Instrumental Music, Boston.

I am prepared to say that I esteem the Ancient Lyre one of the best collections of Church Music that has yet appeared in this country. It contains a great number of the best tunes, which have been and still are considered as standard pieces, with new and improved arrangements, together with many original tunes by himself, combining great skill and beauty. I cannot but view with much pleasure the past exertions of Mr. Zeuner; and I believe the publication of the Ancient Lyre is calculated to produce the most happy effects on the musical taste of the community.

The Ancient Lyre is adopted and introduced by the Choirs of the Old South, Park, Battle, Green, Chambers, Purchase, Hollis, Federal, Claucey Place, and Hanover Street Churches, in Boston. Also, by the First and Second Baptist Churches in Hanover and Salisbury, the Methodist Churches of Broomfield and Piedmont Streets, the Episcopal Church in Sumner Street, and by several Choirs in places far and near; and wherever used has been highly commended and approved.

Published by CROCKER & BREWSTER, and ROBERT S. DAVIS, Boston, and sold by Booksellers generally.
