Handwritten musical notation on three staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. Below the staff, the word "amen" is written three times, followed by a series of five equals signs. The second staff continues the melody with similar note values. Below it, the words "men", "amen", and "amen" are written, followed by another series of five equals signs. The third staff features a series of quarter notes, followed by a half note, and then a final measure with a fermata and a double bar line. Below this staff, the words "amen", "amen", and "amen." are written. The notation is somewhat informal and appears to be a working draft.

A set of seven empty musical staves. The word "Laud Deo" is written in a large, elegant, cursive script across the middle of the staves. The paper shows signs of age, including some foxing and staining.
