

MEMORIES OF CHILDHOOD

Words and Music by GEORGE BARKER

Andante Moderato

If you had a secret, that was told to you,
Mem - o - ries of child - hood, scenes of long a - go.

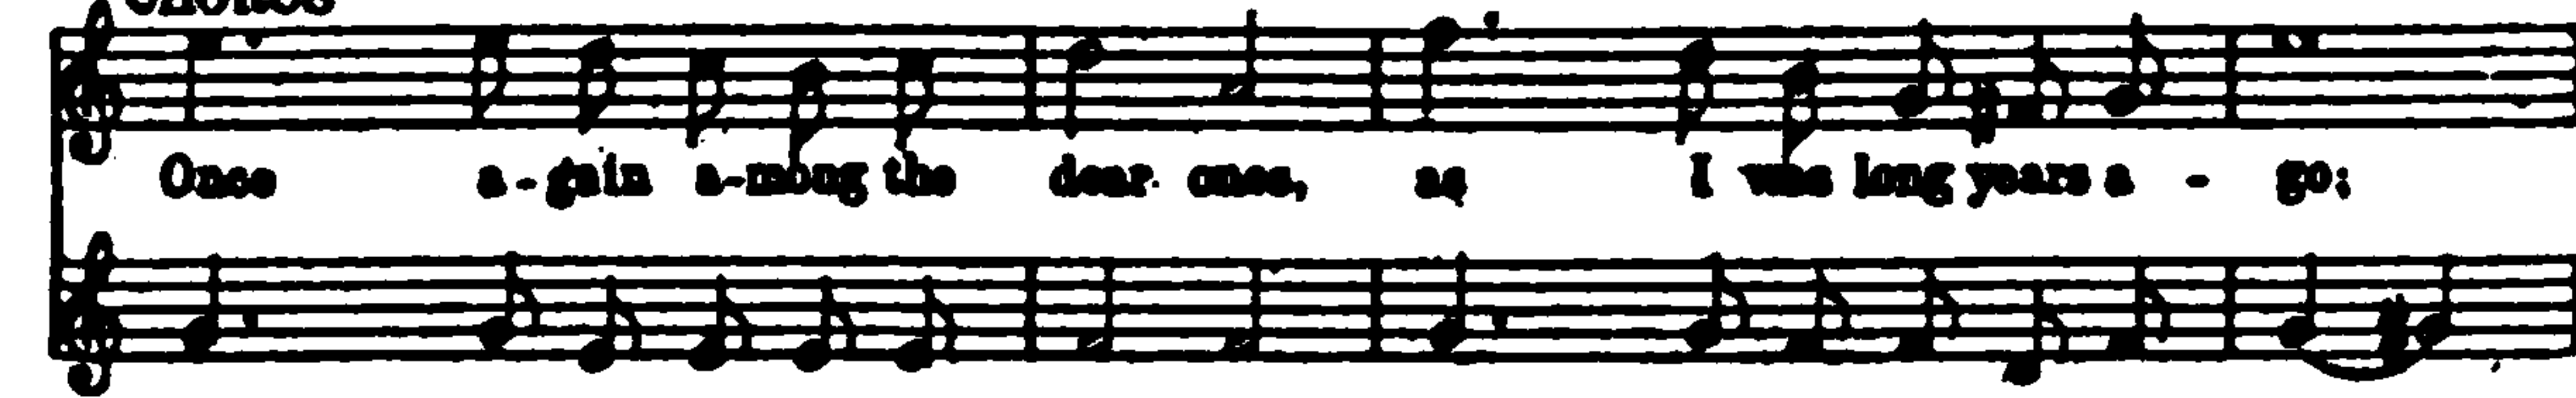

by a lit - tle play - mate, who was real - ly true. Would you long to see her Where are all the dear ones, that I used to know. Do my lit - tle play - mates

dear sweet face a - gain? Would you want to have her love you just the same.
ev - er think of me? Would they care to meet me could I on - ly be:

CHORUS

Once a - gain a - mong the dear ones, as I was long years a - go;

How I wish that I could see them, if I could but on - ly know,

That each one of them re - mem - bers, are their hearts still fond and true,

Would you tell me where to find them, if you on - ly on - ly know.
