MY LADY

My lady is so wondrous fair
She needs no flower in her hair,
No precious jewel, silk or lace
To light the splendor of her face.

My lady is encircled round
With zephyrs as are only found
Where breaks the faintest fairy-day,
Or tiny children are at play.

My lady is the breath of life
That fills the soul, yet stills the strife—
I crave her love, but stand apart;
She holds the world within her heart.

Eternal Love

Poem by Harold Plummer

Music by
R. Huntington Woodman

Andante

Voice: The years pass all too quickly in their flight, Too long we linger by the flow-er-ry way, As you and I, in dreamy raptures bask, Content to taste the pleasures of to-day
