First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a single bass staff at the top and a grand staff (treble and bass) below. The bass staff contains a melodic line with a pp dynamic marking. The grand staff features a dense accompaniment of chords in the treble clef and a moving bass line in the bass clef.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It follows the same three-staff layout as the first system, with a melodic line in the top bass staff and a chordal accompaniment in the grand staff. The pp dynamic is maintained.

Third system of musical notation. The melodic line in the top bass staff includes a fermata over a note. The accompaniment in the grand staff continues with complex chordal textures. A pp dynamic marking is present.

Fourth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It concludes with a fermata in the top bass staff. The accompaniment in the grand staff provides a rich harmonic background. A pp dynamic marking is present.

First system of musical notation, featuring a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part consists of chords in the right hand and a melodic line in the left hand.

Second system of musical notation. Includes the instruction tranquillo molto above the vocal line and dim. sempre above the piano part. The piano part continues with chords and a melodic line.

Third system of musical notation. Includes the instruction poco rit. above the vocal line, Sul C. above the piano part, and pp sul D. below the piano part. The piano part features a change in texture and dynamics.

Fourth system of musical notation. Includes the instruction poco rit. above the vocal line, a tempo above the piano part, pp below the piano part, and rall. below the piano part. The piano part features a change in texture and dynamics.
