June

O sunny days of June divine,
Fresh beauty each hour discloses!
Of blossoming meadows, and zephyrs benign,
And in the gardens with fruit and vine,
Heartsease and Roses!

Heartsease and Roses; a perfume strong
The mellow vineyards are giving!
The nights so langrous, the days so long!
So beaming the brow, and so ringing the song,
Such joy but in living!

Yon leafy arbor all tremulous there,
Doth sigh as at night it reposes.
Rich blessings fill all the scented air
With rapture surpassing; and everywhere
Heartsease and Roses!
