

Eccho Song

John Banister

Ariel

Voice 1

Go thy way, why should'st thou

Ferdinand

Voice 2

Go thy way, why should'st thou stay,

Bass

6

stay, where the winds whist le, and where the streams

where the winds whist le, and where the streams creep?

6

Cb.

12

creep? Un - der yon der wil-low tree fain would I

Un - der yon der wil-low tree fain would I sleep.

12

Cb.

Eccho Song

2
18

sleep. That let me a - lone, for 'tis time to be

Then let me a - lone, for 'tis time to be gone.

Cb. 18

24

gone: What cares and plea-sures can be in this

What cares and plea-sures can be in this isle?

Cb. 24

30

isle? Wi - thin this de - sert place there lives no

Wi - thin this de - sert place there lives no hu - man race.

Cb. 30

37

hu - man race. Fate can - not frown here, nor Fate can - not frown here, nor kind for - tune smile.

Cb. 37

43

kind for - tune smile. Kind for - tune smiles, and she has yet in store for thee,

Cb. 43

50

— some strange fe - li - ci - tie; Fol - low me, fol - low me, and thou shalt see.

Cb. 50

