NOTE.

. “It should be left to the discretion of the conductors as to when the melody only should be sung and when to vary it by the addition of the descant as may seem appropriate to an effective rendering free of monotony. On the one hand a new pleasure is derived from singing a tune in the middle of the harmonic setting, and on the other soprano voices are given the delight of embroidering a tune in place of the usual plan of singing it for others to have the fun of embroidering.”

The first system of the musical score is for the vocal parts and piano accompaniment. It begins with a treble clef and a 6/8 time signature. The vocal line starts with a 'DOH C.' and a series of notes. Below the vocal line is the piano accompaniment, starting with a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics are: '1. My lodg-ing is on the cold... ground,And hard, ve-ry hard is my'. Below the first vocal line is a section labeled 'DESCANT.' with a different melodic line. The lyrics for the descant are: '1. My lodg-ing is on the cold ground,And hard, ve-ry hard, is my'. The tempo is marked 'Andantino' and the piano part has a piano (p) dynamic.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The score is divided into three systems. The first system includes a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment. The second system continues the vocal line with lyrics and piano accompaniment. The third system shows the piano accompaniment with a p rit. marking and a a tempo. marking. The score includes dynamic markings such as p and f, and performance instructions like 1st & 2nd. and Last.

2 When, at eve thou rovest)
 By the star thou lovest,
 Oh! then remember me.
 Think, when home returning,
 Bright we've seen it burning,
 Oh! thus remember me.
 Oft as summer closes,
 When thine eye reposes
 On its ling'ring roses
 Once so lov'd by thee,
 Think of her who wove them,
 Her who made thee love them
 Oh! then remember me.

3 When, around thee dying,
 Autumn leaves are lying,
 Oh! then remember me.
 And, at night, when gazing
 On the gay hearth blazing,
 Oh! still remember me.
 Then should music, stealing
 All the soul of feeling,
 To thy heart appealing,
 Draw one tear from thee;
 Then let mem'ry bring thee
 Strains I used to sing thee,—
 Oh! then remember me.

2 On the banks of Allan water,
 When brown autumn spread its store,
 There I saw the miller's daughter,
 But she smil'd no more;
 For the summer, grief had brought her,
 And the soldier false was he;
 On the banks of Allan water,
 None so sad as she.

 When the winter snow fell fast,
 Still was seen the miller's daughter,—
 Chilling blew the blast;
 But the miller's lovely daughter,
 Both from cold and care was free;
 On the banks of Allan water,
 There a corpse lay she.

OH! DEAR! WHAT CAN THE MATTER BE—continud.

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a prominent bass line with a steady eighth-note rhythm and a treble line with chords and melodic fragments. The vocal line consists of two parts: a soprano part and an alto part. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, with some words in italics. The score is divided into several systems, each containing a vocal staff and a piano staff. The piano staff includes dynamic markings such as sf (sforzando) and f (forte). The lyrics are as follows:

BEGONE, DULL CARE.

FOR TREBLE VOICES AND DESCANT. WITH PIANOFORTE ACCOMPANIMENT (ad lib.).

The Queen's Jig (1700).

Arranged by ALAN GRAY, Mus. Doc. (Cantab.)

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the Treble Voice, starting with a whole rest followed by a half note G4, then a series of whole rests, and finally a half note G4 with a forte (f) dynamic. Below the staff are the lyrics "Doh G.:" followed by a series of vertical bars representing syllables, and "Be -". The middle staff is for the Descant, starting with a whole rest followed by a half note G4, then a series of whole rests, and finally a half note G4 with a forte (f) dynamic. Below the staff are the lyrics "DESCANT." followed by a series of vertical bars representing syllables, and "s Be -". The bottom staff is for the Pianoforte accompaniment, marked "Lively." and "f". It features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

The second system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the Treble Voice, with lyrics: "gone, dull care,..... I pri-thee be-gone from me,..... Be-gone, dull". The middle staff is for the Descant, with lyrics: "gone, dull care,..... I pri-thee be-gone from me,..... Be-". The bottom staff is for the Pianoforte accompaniment, continuing the rhythmic pattern from the first system.
