PLUM PUDDING.

As sung in EDWARD HARRIGAN'S Comic Play: "INVESTIGATION."

Words by EDWARD HARRIGAN.

Music by DAVE BRAHAM.

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 2/4 time. The right hand features a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The vocal line begins with a rest, followed by a melodic phrase that corresponds to the first line of the lyrics.

1 If you wish to learn to cook, go out and buy a book, And 2 Oh, have the kitch - en clean, re - member you're the queen Of 3 Now tell your ser - vant-maid, when gas bills they are paid, To

The piano accompaniment continues with chords and rhythmic patterns that support the vocal line.

The vocal line continues with a melodic phrase corresponding to the second line of the lyrics.

read it ev' - ry day and night, Then stud - y ev' - ry dish, from all the cook - ing in the house, And when you see a roach the find an - oth - er place for beaus, Of course she'll ans - wer back, and

The vocal line continues with a melodic phrase corresponding to the third line of the lyrics.

mut - ton down to fish, And learn to make it tempt - ing to the sight; Be dom - i - cile ap - proach, Oh, kill him as you would a lit - tle mouse; Now put you on the rack, And tell you "I'm a la - dy," as she goes; Now

The piano accompaniment concludes with chords and rhythmic patterns that support the vocal line.

The lady gay up stairs she's putting on her airs,
A-shouting down the pipe like fun :
" Hi ! Susan, Nell, and Kate, you surely will be late,
It's time you had the pudding nearly done !"
You answer with a yell : " I'm running to the bell,
The postman and the butcher's at the door,
It's really very hard from the roof unto the yard,
I'm a running and I can't do more !"
Plum Pudding.

5

Oh ! when you hear the " whoop," the milkman's on the stoop Awaiting with his jingling can,
Oh, never stop to chat about the pussy cat,
Don't let him call you simple Mary Ann ;
Now when he drives away, oh, to yourself you say :
" When I get my Sunday out,
I'll meet him in the park a little after dark,
And hook him as I would a little trout."
