MY HOPES HAVE DEPARTED FOREVER.

Music by A LADY.

ANDANTINO.

2^d VERSE. They saw that my life was de-cay-ing,..... They My hopes have de-part-ed for-e-ver,..... My knew that my stay would be brief;..... And still, though my spi-rit was straying,.....
vi-sion of true love is o'er:..... My heart shall a-wa-ken, ah! never;.....

I told not a word of my grief..... No whis-per re - There's joy for my ho-som no more..... The ro-ses that vealed my de - cei - ver..... No ear heard me sigh or com - plain;..... crowned me are blighted,..... The garland I cherished is dead,.....
 My heart still a - dored its be - reav-er,..... And longed but to The faith once con-fi-ding-ly plighted..... Is broke, and my loved one has fled..... The faith once con-fi-ding-ly plighted.....

And longed but to meet him a -- gain.

Is broke, and my loved one has fled.

He came, but another had rifled
 His heart of the love once my own,
 I grieved, but my anguish was stifled,
 And shrang from his cold formal tone.
 The sun is now sinking in billows,
 That roll in the far distant west,
 But morning will shine through the willows,
 And find me forever at rest.
