

N^o 294
Deposited July 20. 1894
Lee & Walker
Profs

IRIS
FROM THE BOOK OF LOVE
by
G. HERLOSSON COMPOSED BY Francis Abt
Arranged for the PIANO
BY MATHIAS KELLER.

Philadelphia LEE & WALKER 120 Walnut St.
New Orleans W. T. MAYO N^o 5 Camp St.
Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1894 by Lee & Walker in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Louisiana

VOICE.

Andantino. Whether I

PIANO.

love thee? ask— but the star-lets, to whom I've of...ten in a...go-ny sued. Whether I love thee? ask but this rose bud, which I now send thee with warm tears be-dew'd. Whether I love thee? Ask— but ~~is~~

poco string:

a tempo. dim
rose bud, which I now send thee with warm tears bedew'd.

a tempo. dim p

Whether I love thee? ask but the light clouds,
Which have so often my sorrows convey'd
Whether I love thee? ask but the streamlets,
In each, I've often thy image survey'd.
Whether I love thee &c. &c.

Didst thou but love me, heavenly maiden,
Oh then I'd own to thee, own it with pride
That I do love thee, that I do call thee
Always my angel and soon, to my bride.
That I do love thee &c. &c.