2. Lied:

F. A. G. M. Ap. 1707.

A handwritten musical score for two staves. The top staff consists of six measures of music, primarily in common time (indicated by a 'C'). The bottom staff begins with a single measure in common time, followed by six measures in 2/4 time (indicated by a '2/4'). The music is written in F major, as indicated by the key signature. The notation includes various note heads, stems, and bar lines. There are some ink stains and a small piece of paper pinned to the page near the bottom right.

This image shows two pages of handwritten musical notation on five-line staves. The notation is highly detailed, featuring various note heads, stems, and beams. The first page contains ten staves, while the second page contains nine. The music appears to be for a large ensemble, possibly including voices and multiple instruments like strings, woodwinds, and brass. The handwriting is in black ink on aged, yellowish paper. There are some faint markings and what might be lyrics or rehearsal numbers in the lower half of the second page.
