The first system of the musical score consists of seven staves. The top six staves are vocal parts, each in a treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The bottom staff is the piano accompaniment, split into two parts: the right hand in a treble clef and the left hand in a bass clef. The piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes in the right hand and chords in the left hand. The system concludes with a double bar line and the numbers "#6" and "6" written below the piano staff.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano parts. It consists of seven staves, with the same vocal staves and piano accompaniment as the first system. The piano part includes a double bar line with repeat dots, followed by a final melodic flourish in the right hand. The system concludes with a double bar line and the numbers "6", "7", "4", and "#", which likely refer to specific notes or chords in the piano accompaniment.
