A KING THERE LIVED IN THULE.

A KING there lived in Thule,
Was faithful till the grave,
To whom his mistress dying
A golden goblet gave.
Before all things he prized it,
He drained it at ev'ry bout,
The tears his eyes o'erflowing
Whene'er he drank thereout.

And when he came to dying
His towns he reckoned up,
All to his heir he left them,
But not the golden cup !
He sat at the royal banquet,
With his knights of high degree,
In the proud hall of his fathers,
In his castle by the sea.

There stood the old carouser :
As he drank life's parting glow
He hurled the hallowed goblet
Into the surf below.
He watch'd it filling and sinking,
Deep into the sea it sank ;
His eyelids closed, and never
Again a draught he drank.
