Choral.

A handwritten musical score for a chorale prelude. The score consists of two systems of music. The first system begins with a basso continuo part (labeled 'Bass. Cemb.'), followed by a soprano part (labeled 'Sop. Orgel'). The soprano part features a chorale melody with sustained notes and harmonic motion. The second system begins with an alto part (labeled 'Alto'), followed by a soprano part (labeled 'Sop. Orgel'). The soprano part continues the chorale melody. The score includes dynamic markings such as 'ff' (fortissimo), 'p' (pianissimo), and 'f' (forte). The tempo is marked as 'allegro'. The vocal parts are labeled 'Aria.' and 'Recit.'. The section 'Recit.' is marked 'Da Capo' and 'sacra.'

A handwritten musical score for three voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor) and piano. The music is written on five systems of five-line staves each. The vocal parts are in common time, while the piano part is in 6/8 time. The vocal parts consist of single notes and short note groups, primarily eighth and sixteenth notes. The piano part includes sustained notes, chords, and rhythmic patterns. The score concludes with a vocal section ending in a forte dynamic, followed by a repeat sign and the instruction "Da Capo || Recit. Jacet". Below this, the vocal parts begin again with "Choral Da Capo" and a piano accompaniment. The manuscript is written in brown ink on aged paper.
