The first system of the musical score consists of five staves. The top two staves are vocal lines, both with lyrics. The third staff is a piano accompaniment line starting with a pp dynamic. The fourth and fifth staves are the grand staff (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment. The piano part features a complex texture with many sixteenth notes and slurs. A fermata is placed over a measure in the piano part, and a section of the piano part is enclosed in a dashed box with a '3' above it, indicating a triplet.

f dim.

The second system of the musical score consists of two staves (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment. It begins with a p dynamic. The music is characterized by rapid sixteenth-note passages in the right hand and a more rhythmic bass line. The system concludes with a f dynamic followed by a dim. (diminuendo) marking.

The third system of the musical score consists of two staves (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment. It continues the rapid sixteenth-note texture from the previous system. The system ends with a f dynamic.

f dolce pp

The fourth system of the musical score consists of two staves (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment. It begins with a f dynamic, followed by a dolce (sweetly) marking and a pp (pianissimo) dynamic. The piano part features a mix of sixteenth-note runs and longer, more melodic lines.

Der Stern.

The Star.

Allegro. ♩ = 104.

The piano accompaniment consists of three systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand. The second and third systems feature a forte (sf) dynamic. The music is in 2/4 time and features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some triplet figures.

Chor.

The choral section features four vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal parts have the following lyrics:

 Zer-streu - - et - euch,

 Dis - perse, dis - perse

 Zer-streu - - et - euch,

 Dis - perse. dis - perse

 The piano accompaniment for the choral section includes dynamics such as sf and p. It features a prominent triplet of eighth notes in the right hand. The bottom of the page contains several musical symbols: a double bar line with a repeat sign, a star symbol, and a double bar line with a repeat sign, interspersed with the piano accompaniment.

The musical score is arranged in five systems. The first system shows the piano introduction with a pp dynamic and a cresc. marking. The second and third systems continue the piano accompaniment with various dynamics like pp, p, and dim.. The fourth system introduces the vocal parts with the lyrics: "Die Er - de schweigt! Es leuch - ten die Ster - ne, sie". The fifth system continues the vocal parts with the lyrics: "The carth is still! The stars bright-ly gleam - ing, In". The piano accompaniment includes many asterisks and dynamic markings such as pp, p, and dim.
