Third system of musical notation, piano accompaniment. The treble staff contains chords and the bass staff contains a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes.

Fourth system of musical notation, piano accompaniment. The treble staff contains chords and the bass staff contains a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. A pp (pianissimo) dynamic marking is present in the bass staff. A Brass. marking is present in the treble staff.

Fifth system of musical notation, piano accompaniment. The treble staff contains chords and the bass staff contains a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. A cresc. (crescendo) marking is present in the bass staff. A f (forte) dynamic marking is present in the treble staff.

Sixth system of musical notation, piano accompaniment. The treble staff contains chords and the bass staff contains a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. A ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking is present in the treble staff. A TUTTI. marking is present in the treble staff.

First system of musical notation, featuring a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music is in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The bass line is more active, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes, while the treble line has more sustained chords and some eighth notes.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the grand staff. The treble line features long, sustained chords with a cresc. (crescendo) marking. The bass line continues with rhythmic patterns of eighth and sixteenth notes.

Third system of musical notation. The treble line is labeled Viol. and features triplet eighth notes. The bass line has a f (forte) dynamic marking and a marcato (marked) tempo indication. The key signature changes to one flat (B-flat).

Fourth system of musical notation, continuing the grand staff. The treble line has a continuous stream of eighth notes. The bass line features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble line continues with eighth notes, some with accents. The bass line features chords and some eighth notes. The key signature changes to two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

Sixth system of musical notation. The treble line continues with eighth notes. The bass line features sustained chords. The system concludes with a Clar. (Clarinet) entry marked p (piano).

Viol. Ob.

First system of the musical score, featuring Violin (Viol.) and Oboe (Ob.) parts. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The Violin part has a melodic line with slurs and ties, while the Oboe part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and some melodic fragments.

Second system of the musical score. The Violin part continues its melodic line, and the Oboe part has a melodic line with a dim. (diminuendo) marking. The piano accompaniment consists of sustained chords in the right hand and moving lines in the left hand.

Third system of the musical score. It introduces the Clarinet (Clar.) part with a p (piano) dynamic. The Violin part continues. The piano accompaniment includes a sempre dim (sempre diminuendo) marking in the right hand and a pp (pianissimo) marking in the left hand. Below the system, there are markings: Pa., , Pa., , Pa., , Pa., ***.

Fourth system of the musical score. The piano accompaniment features a series of chords in the right hand and moving lines in the left hand. Below the system, there are markings: Pa., , Pa. pp, , Pa. pp, , Pa. pp, ***.

Fifth system of the musical score. It introduces the Viola part with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic. The piano accompaniment continues with sustained chords and moving lines. Below the system, there are markings: Pa., , Pa., , Pa., , pp.

Sixth system of the musical score. It introduces the Oboe and Clarinet (Ob. & Clar.) parts with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic. The Trombone (Trombe.) part is also introduced with a pp dynamic. The Flute and Oboe (Fl. & Ob.) parts are indicated at the end of the system. The piano accompaniment continues with sustained chords and moving lines.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is in the upper staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the lower staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The piano part features a prominent bass line with many beamed eighth notes, creating a rhythmic accompaniment. The word "cresc." (crescendo) is written above the piano part in two places. The score includes a repeat sign at the beginning and a double bar line at the end.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It features three staves: a vocal line at the top, a piano accompaniment in the middle, and a basso continuo line at the bottom. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The vocal line consists of a single melody line. The piano accompaniment includes chords and arpeggiated figures. The basso continuo line provides a harmonic foundation with chords and arpeggiated figures. The score is divided into four measures, each containing a vocal line, a piano accompaniment, and a basso continuo line. The lyrics "The Rose Tree" are written below the basso continuo line.

First system of musical notation. The top staff features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The piano accompaniment in the grand staff includes chords and a bass line with eighth notes. Performance markings include cresc. molto, ff, and TUTTI. with con fuoco above the final measure.

Second system of musical notation. The piano accompaniment continues with sustained chords and a steady bass line. The marking sempre con fuoco is present above the final measure.

Third system of musical notation. The piano accompaniment features a more active bass line with eighth notes. The marking con fuoco is present above the final measure.

Fourth system of musical notation. The piano accompaniment continues with sustained chords and a steady bass line.

PIANO.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of music. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 2/4. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The notation includes various chords, single notes, and eighth-note patterns. The second and third systems continue the piece with similar harmonic and melodic structures. The fourth system features a prominent sixteenth-note arpeggiated figure in the left hand, marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The fifth system concludes the piece with sustained chords and melodic fragments in both hands.

DUET.—(Elsie and Point.)

Allegro con brio.

PIANO.

A musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. It features a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The score includes a piano (p) marking and a 'Red.' (Reduction) marking. The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style with many eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The score is divided into measures by bar lines, and there are repeat signs at the end of the first and second lines of music.

The musical score is written on three staves. The top staff is for the vocal melody, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody begins with a whole note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B-flat4, and A4, then a half note G4. It continues with a quarter rest, followed by eighth notes G4, A4, B-flat4, A4, G4, F4, E4, D4, C4, and B2. The bottom two staves are for piano accompaniment, both using bass clefs and a key signature of two flats. The left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment, while the right hand plays a melody of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed together. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

ELSIE.
Sing me your song O! ————— It is sung with a sigh And a tear in the eye, For it tells of a right-ed wrong, O! It's a song of the mer-ry-maid, once so gay. Who turned on her heel and tripped a-way From the pea-cock popin-jay, brave-ly horn Who turned up his no-ble nose with scorn At the hum-ble heart that he did not prize; So she begged on her knees, with down-cast eyes, For the love of the mer-ry-man, mop-ing mum, Whose soul was sad and whose glance was glum, Who sipped no sup, and who craved no crumb, As he sighed for the love of a la - dye!

The musical score is written for a vocal soloist and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats), and the time signature is common time (C). The vocal part consists of two staves. The first staff has a treble clef and the second has a bass clef. The lyrics are: "May Heav'n have mer - cy". The piano accompaniment is written for a grand piano with a treble and bass staff. The right hand plays a simple harmonic accompaniment, while the left hand plays a more complex, rhythmic pattern. The score is divided into measures by bar lines. The lyrics are placed below the vocal staves. The piano part includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

The musical score is divided into four systems, each consisting of a vocal line (treble and bass staves) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The key signature is one sharp (F#).

System 1: The vocal line features a melody with lyrics "dy! Heigh dy! Heigh". The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

System 2: The vocal line continues with "dy! Heigh". The piano accompaniment features a more complex right-hand melody with sixteenth-note runs.

System 3: The vocal line has "dy! Heigh". The piano accompaniment continues with the sixteenth-note pattern in the right hand.

System 4: The vocal line has "dy!". The piano accompaniment features a final, more active right-hand melody with sixteenth-note runs, ending with a double bar line.
