Copyright Infringement

Legal Opinion of GEORGE W. POUND
General Counsel, MUSIC INDUSTRIES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The United States Copyright Law (Act of 1909) became effective July 1, 1909, and with minor amendments has continued in force ever since. It grants to any person complying with its provisions the exclusive right "to print, reprint, publish, copy and vend the copyrighted work."

It is becoming a growing custom for orchestra leaders, choir masters, school teachers, music teachers and others in like vocations to acquire one copy of copyrighted music and then copy the same many times, selling and otherwise vending these copies. This is a violation of each and every one of the rights of copyright, which are expressly reserved to the exclusive right and use of the owner of the copyright of the musical composition, and is an infringement, and as such is punishable in the penalties provided by the Act.

Important Notice

This notice is printed to safeguard our rights. Permission will be freely granted without prejudice, until further notice, to produce our copyrights without tax from copies purchased of us or from a music dealer who has purchased of us.

Performance of any copyrighted work without the permission of the owner of the copyright is forbidden and subject to the penalties provided by the Copyright Laws for unlawful performance.

Copying of either the separate parts or the whole or any portion of a copyrighted work by any process whatsoever is forbidden and subject to the penalties provided by the Copyright Laws of the United States.

Renting of copies of a copyrighted work from individuals or firms to their profit is forbidden by the Copyright Laws of the United States.

Orchestrating the whole or any part of a copyrighted work is forbidden and subject to the penalties provided by the Copyright Laws of the United States.

For the Right to Perform any copyrighted work published by the Oliver Ditson Company, permission in writing must be obtained from the said Oliver Ditson Company, sole owner of the publishing and performing rights. No tax or royalty for performance will be charged, but before permission can be granted, a copy of the vocal score must be ordered for each principal in the cast and one for every second member of the chorus, with a minimum purchase of twenty-five copies.
