JAIRUS.

Come honour'd Mas - ter, I en - treat, And help me in my an - guish, My on - ly child, my daughtersweet, E'en now in death does languish. If Thou on her wilt lay thine hand, Or say the word, or say the word, stern death will stand. Thou knowest Lord the se-cret thought, That in the heart is sigh - ing, Thou know'st how she is dear to me, And how in grief we're ly - ing, Oh! come sweet Lord, and speaking save My child, my daugh-ter from the grave.
