The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a 3/4 time signature. It begins with a series of eighth notes, followed by a half note, and then a sequence of eighth notes with some accidentals. The lower staff is in bass clef and features a complex accompaniment of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. There are several accidentals throughout the system.

The second system continues the piece with two staves. The upper staff shows a melodic line with many sixteenth notes and some accidentals. The lower staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth notes and rests. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The third system also consists of two staves. The upper staff features a melodic line with sixteenth notes and some accidentals. The lower staff has a bass line with eighth notes and rests. The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Handwritten musical notation on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The music consists of three measures. The first measure contains a series of notes with various accidentals (sharps, naturals, flats) and some notes marked with an asterisk. The second measure continues the melodic line with similar note values and accidentals. The third measure concludes with a final note marked with an asterisk and a fermata. A handwritten number "5." is written above the end of the staff.
