The first system of the score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The music begins with a piano introduction marked pp. The vocal line, indicated by cantando, starts with a melodic phrase. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line with triplets in the right hand.

pp

The second system continues the musical piece. The piano accompaniment maintains its rhythmic pattern, while the vocal line develops further. The dynamics remain at pp.

cresc.

The third system shows a dynamic increase marked cresc.. The piano accompaniment becomes more active, and the vocal line continues its melodic development.

pp teneramente

molto rit. -

The fourth system introduces a change in tempo and dynamics. The piano accompaniment is marked pp teneramente (pianissimo, tenderly). The vocal line concludes with a phrase. The system ends with a molto rit. (ritardando) marking and a double bar line.

pp

The fifth system returns to the initial piano accompaniment style, marked pp. The vocal line is absent in this system, focusing on the piano accompaniment.

The sixth system concludes the piece with a smorz. (smorzando) marking. The piano accompaniment features a final melodic flourish in the right hand.

Koketteri.

Allegretto grazioso.

The first system of the piece is written in a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The tempo is marked 'Allegretto grazioso'. The music begins with a piano (pp) dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth notes and slurs, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords.

The second system continues the piece. It includes dynamic markings: dim. (diminuendo) in the first measure, sempre portamento (always with portamento) across the next two measures, and cresc. (crescendo) in the final measure. The melodic line in the right hand continues with grace notes and slurs, and the accompaniment in the left hand remains consistent.

The third system features a first ending bracket labeled '1.' over the final two measures. The dynamic marking pp (pianissimo) is present in the first measure of this system. The right hand has a melodic line with grace notes, and the left hand has a chordal accompaniment.

The fourth system begins with a second ending bracket labeled '2.' over the first two measures. The tempo is marked scherzando (playfully). The dynamic marking sfz (sforzando) appears in the final measure. The right hand continues with a melodic line, and the left hand has a chordal accompaniment.

The fifth system concludes the piece. It features a dynamic marking of p (piano) in the first measure and sfz (sforzando) in the fourth measure. The right hand has a melodic line with grace notes, and the left hand has a chordal accompaniment.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a melodic line of eighth notes, followed by a quarter rest. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system continues the piece. A dim. (diminuendo) marking is placed above the treble staff in the second measure, indicating a gradual decrease in volume.

The third system features a cresc. (crescendo) marking in the first measure of the treble staff, indicating a gradual increase in volume.

The fourth system includes a pp (pianissimo) marking in the first measure of the treble staff and a dim. marking in the final measure.

The fifth system contains a poco a poco marking in the treble staff, indicating a very gradual change in dynamics.

The sixth system begins with a smorz. (smorzando) marking in the treble staff, indicating a gradual fading out of the sound.

Från gamla tider.

Tempo giusto.

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of five systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system begins with the tempo marking 'Tempo giusto.' and includes dynamic markings 'm.d.' (mezzo-dolce) and 'f' (forte). The second and fourth systems feature a 'cresc.' (crescendo) marking. The music is characterized by rhythmic patterns of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and includes various articulations such as accents and slurs. The overall style is that of a classical piano piece.

First system of musical notation. Treble clef, key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The piece begins with a mf dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment. The system concludes with a dim. marking and a fermata over the final notes.

Second system of musical notation. The right hand continues with a melodic line, and the left hand maintains its accompaniment. A f dynamic marking appears in the third measure. The system ends with a fermata.

Third system of musical notation. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns, and the left hand provides accompaniment. The system starts with a mf dynamic, which is repeated in the second measure. It concludes with a dim. marking and a fermata.

Fourth system of musical notation. The right hand continues with a melodic line, and the left hand maintains its accompaniment. A f dynamic marking appears in the third measure. The system ends with a fermata.

Fifth system of musical notation. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns, and the left hand provides accompaniment. The system includes a cresc. marking in the third measure and a ff rit. marking in the fourth measure. The system concludes with a fermata.

Intermezzo.

Non troppo moderato.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The music begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' above the notes) and is often grouped by slurs. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system continues the musical piece. It maintains the same key signature and time signature. The right hand continues with its melodic line, including a triplet. The left hand accompaniment consists of chords and moving lines.

The third system of musical notation shows the continuation of the piece. A dim. (diminuendo) marking is present in the right hand, indicating a decrease in volume. The musical structure remains consistent with the previous systems.

The fourth system of musical notation begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The right hand continues with chords and melodic fragments, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment.

The fifth and final system of musical notation on this page concludes the piece. It features a pp dolce (pianissimo dolce) dynamic marking, indicating a very soft and sweet sound. The right hand has some slurs and accents, while the left hand provides a final accompaniment.

First system of musical notation, featuring treble and bass staves with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The music consists of eighth and sixteenth notes with slurs. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present in the right-hand staff.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar rhythmic patterns and slurs in both hands.

Third system of musical notation, featuring a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand and a triplet of eighth notes in the left hand, both marked with a '3'.

Fourth system of musical notation, including dynamic markings dim. (diminuendo) in the left hand and poco a poco (poco a poco) in the right hand.

Fifth system of musical notation, concluding the piece with a rit. e smorzando (ritardando e smorzando) instruction. The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
