

Recd April 20. 1850.

THE MAY BREEZES
SONG
 WORDS FROM THE GERMAN BY CHA^s. G. LELAND, ESQ. MUSIC COMPOSED & ARRANGED FOR THE GUITAR BY MAX ZORER.

New York, FIRTH, POND & CO. Franklin Square.

MODERATO.

Guitar.

 Oh sweet are the first ear-ly bree-zes of.

 May, When vi-o-lets bloom and the snow melts a-way And birds which have slumbered in si-lence 'till spring, A-wake to the sun-light, a-

Entered according to Act of Congress AD 1849 by Firth Pond & Co in the Clerks Office of the dis^t. Court of the South^d. Dis^t. of New York.

Deposited in the Clerks Office ²⁴⁷ S. D. S. N. Y. Dec. 31. 1849.

wake to the sun-light, a-wake to the sun-light and mer-ri-ly p sing. Awake to the sun-light and mer-ri-ly sing. ff La la la la la la ritardando. tempo impo

la Tutti.

D.C. dal Segno.

2

And no heart can be sad when the roses once bloom,
'Tis the season of love when they shed their perfume,
They blossom each year with the beautiful May,
But love only once— ere it passeth away .

3

Every year hath its spring when the winter is past,
But man only once—'tis his first and his last!
The swallows return from a far distant shore,
But man, once departed _ returns never more .