BY WILLIAM HAGUE, D.D.

“The design of these books is twofold: first, to furnish Teachers facilities for instructing their classes; second, to excite a spirit of inquiry among the classes themselves. It is an exhibition of the mode of conducting a Sabbath-school or Bible-class, which the author has practiced for years past, on different occasions, when he has been called to take charge of either. The Teacher who would give instruction in any department of knowledge, so as to awaken in his scholar a spirit of inquiry, cannot easily satisfy himself with abrupt and insulated questions; in order to arouse the mind to action and bring himself into sympathy with it, he must communicate something. The remark which imparts knowledge quickens thought, and then conversation proceeds with a rational and easy flow.”—Extract from Preface.

The Publishers feel confident that every one who will examine and use the volumes, will heartily endorse the following recommendation

From the Philadelphia Christian Chronicle:

“The plan of Dr. Hague, in these several books to meet the wants of Sabbath-school classes, have never seen surpassed, nor even equalled, by any other author.”

Similar testimony is rendered by great numbers of Teachers and Superintendents, who, finding the old methods of instruction very dry and parrot-like, eagerly accept these fresh and ingenious books, on account of their eminently suggestive character, which excites and stimulates the mind of both teacher and pupil, thus imparting additional interest to the most noble and elevating of all studies—the study of the Word of God.

“The design is to combine in one volume the advantages of a COMMENTARY and QUESTION-BOOK, in the style of the question, for purposes of instruction.”

These books are not Sectarian, are well printed upon good white paper, and put up in a neat and useful binding. Any or all of the Numbers will be forwarded for examination, by mail, prepaid, at the retail price (13 cents) in stamps.

For Agents introducing these books, the price will be ten dollars per hundred.

P R E F A C E.

THIS little book, like its predecessor, is designed for the use of children. It speaks, or rather, sings, for itself, and needs no introduction to those who understand and appreciate music. Should it fall under the notice of those who are jealous of original songs and tunes, or who look with suspicion on the new adaptation of old ones, the publisher would say to such, that all music is sacred, although it is sometimes, like the livery of heaven, used for profane purposes. Music is the language of heaven—it is the dialect of the angels; and if children or adults needed an excuse for pouring out their hearts and souls in strains of sacred harmony, we might refer them to the holy and beautiful example of the great and good men of all ages—the songs of the Patriarchs and Prophets, and the sweet strains of the holy choir about the Throne of God in Heaven. Moses is stern, bold, and original; his song a mere transcript of the scene in which he moved, but his language, though unadorned with metaphor, like the mountain on which he received the Commandments, is sublime and lofty. Deborah sang with spirit, as she rose from her seat on the hill-side, under the shadow of the palms. There is the ring of martial music in her song; but her hard words, that fall like hail upon the enemies of Israel, melt in tears of tenderness when she sees the mother of Sisera looking from the window. David is the great singer of the church: now his harp swells with grandeur and sublimity, until its chords shiver in the tempest of his passion; now he shudders over his own history, and his song sounds like the wail of a broken heart. His words are smiles, and sighs, and tears. His lyrics are unrivalled in literature. Passing hastily over the example of the inspired men of the Bible, omitting even the names of many distinguished for their epic and lyric grandeur and harmony, we hasten to the highest authority that comes direct from heaven to earth—the song of the holy angels announcing the advent of the Saviour. What a scene to contemplate!—a choir of angels coming from the crystal walls and golden gates of Heaven. While the shepherds were watching their flocks, or studying the stars, suddenly a great glory breaks in beauty on the sky, blotting out the luster of the stars, and flooding the hemisphere with light. With this glorious effulgence comes the sweep of wings and the song of angels. “And lo! the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, ‘fear not; for behold! I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born, this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you—ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.' And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying: 'Glory to God in the highest! and on earth peace, good will toward men.'" Children have the lesson of the angels—the song of the "multitude of the heavenly host,"—and every child should have a hymn in his heart; so that the song can break from the lips as naturally as the carol comes from the bird, when Nature spreads her note-book of flowers before it. Singing sweetens the temper, softens the voice, strengthens the lungs, is a rich source of entertainment to all who are virtuous and good. The songs of to-day may be the statutes of to-morrow. Music is the language of passion and emotion; it is beautiful thought crystalized into sound; and well becomes the hearts, and lips, and voices of children.

Among this music will be found many of the best and most stirring airs, united with sacred words, and invested with new associations. It is well known that many secular compositions possess unequalled excellence and power as music, and are especially adapted by their animation and embodiment of the true idea of music, to interest the young. In connection with the new sentiments they utter, their former associations will be forgotten, and their fire and spirit be secured for the inculcation of holier sentiments? Music, in itself, is never immoral or hurtful; on the contrary, it is essentially holy. The true home and source of music is Heaven; lost spirits may howl and curse, but never sing. And if connected with holy sentiments, its influence never fails to second and enforce truth, and every virtuous feeling.

This book is not only a song-book, but an educator; for while it interests the children, the solos, duets, trios, and quartets are so arranged that the choruses call for responses from parents, teachers, and all who may attend the meetings; thus kindling an enthusiasm generally for sacred music. And this is not only proper, but Scriptural. As in the multitude of the heavenly host, every angel joined the chorus—not one was silent; so in the songs of the Sabbath School or Concert, all should copy the example of these holy messengers, and sing; there should not be an exception;—old and young should join in the chorus. In the 136th Psalm we find the priest chanting, "Oh, give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good;" and the people, or the congregation, responding, "for his mercy endureth for ever." "Oh, give thanks unto the God of gods;" Chorus, "for his mercy endureth for ever." and so on to the close of this wonderful and beautiful psalm. The priest sang the solo, and the congregation replied with the chorus. It is like the ebbing and flowing of the tide;—now the wave sweeps from the shore to the sea; then the multitudinous billows break broad and deep upon the beach;—like deep calling unto deep. This arrangement of the music is a desideratum in the book, tending directly to educate the people, old and young, in the sacred science of harmonious sounds. All are invited to participate in these songs. While the Children sing, their friends and others are cordially and earnestly requested to join in the Chorus, so that all the people may unite in singing the songs of the Sabbath School children. And this corresponds with the ideas and practice of the greatest composers, and other masters of song. All the great productions of Handel, Haydn, Mozart, and others, bear a similar character of responsive alternation of parts, as solos, duets, trios, choruses, &c., and derive their principal element of power and attraction from this source. In a more simple manner, yet realizing the same principle, most of the pieces in this book have been arranged in this natural and efficient manner.

And this is not all. We thus sing the Gospel of glad tidings to the impenitent, melting the soul into sympathy by the tender pathos of pure sentiment. So wonderful is the power of song, it touches the chords that vibrate in the human breast, and thrills the heart with rapture, so that it often melts in contrition at the foot of the Cross; and vast multitudes are in this way converted to God: and we hope by the instrumentality of this book to sing a great multitude into the kingdom of Heaven.

This Volume, SABBATH SCHOOL BELL, No. 2, is entirely distinct from its predecessor, BELL, No. 1. The words and music are all different, and, in our judgment, better adapted to the purpose. The unprecedented popularity of BELL, No. 1,—four hundred thousand having been issued and sold in the first twenty-four months of its publication,—and the urgent solicitation of Superintendents and Pastors of churches, have been the inducement for the preparation of the present volume. Nearly thirty-five thousand copies of this volume have been ordered in advance of publication; and the first edition will contain not less than fifty thousand copies. The editor has been cheered, likewise, with the information of numerous conversions of souls by means of the hymns and music of the former volume; it is his prayer and hope that the issue of this volume, and the circulation of its many evangelical sentiments and persuasions will be not less honored by the Saviour of men, in the great work of preparing multitudes to sing the New Song in glory.

There was a time when even David could not find an old song to express his emotion, and he exclaimed, "Praise ye the Lord; sing unto the Lord a NEW SONG. I will sing, yea, I will sing praises to God."

BRIGHT, HAPPY NEW YEAR

1. On this New Year evening, when our hearts are
All around us cheerful, gay, and bright, [light,
With our happy voices let us fill the air,
And a Father's love declare.
Merrily we sing, then, children, one and all,
Praise your bounteous Giver, great and small,
For the many mercies daily he bestows,
From the dawn till evening's close.

CHORUS.

Bright, happy New Year! joyful we sing,
Hearts full of gladness now we bring;
Take the offerings, Jesus, full of love and cheer,
Smile upon the glad New Year.

2. Come, dear children, join our happy little band,
Pressing onward to the "better land,"
Where the angels welcome, with their harps of gold,
All the lambs of Jesus' fold.
In the land of sunshine sorrow is unknown,
All is calm and peaceful round the throne;
Come ye sad and weary to this place of rest.
Come and be forever blest.

CHORUS.

Bright, happy New Year! joyful we sing, &c.

NOT GREENLANDS ICY MOUNTAINS.

Tune, "MISSIONARY HYMN," 7s & 6s, peculiar.

1. Nor Greenland's icy mountains,
Nor India's coral strand;
No dark, or sunny fountains,
In any pagan land,

Calls louder to deliver
Their souls from error's chains,
Than here, by sea and river,
In all our streets and lanes.

2. What though our Christian altars
Are raised in costly style,
If Christian courage falters,
Nor strives to save the vile:
In vain has God in kindness,
His blessings on us strown,
If here, in heathen blindness,
Men live, unblest, unknown.

3. Was Priest or Levite lighted,
With wisdom from on high,
Who turned aside, and slighted
A fallen brother's cry?
Salvation! O Salvation!
To sinners here proclaim,
The poor of every nation
Must learn Messiah's name.

4. Then waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole,
Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

The above hymn was arranged for the use of Five Points Gospel Union Mission, 42 Baxter Street, New York, by W. S. W.

MAESTOSO Words by HODGES REED, Esq.

Music by M. F. H. SMITH.

1. Is it true that I must lie, In the grave-yard by and by, And with oth-ers, gone be-fore, Chorus Ritard.

Sleep till time shall be no more? Is it true—Oh! is it true? Is it true—Oh! is it true?

2 Is it true, as many say,
Life is but a passing day,
And that heaven is lost or won.
Ere this fleeting day has flown?
Is it true—Oh! is it true?

3 Is it true that on the cross,
Jesus bled and died for us,
And, while hanging on the tree,
Upward sent a prayer for me!
Is it true—Oh! is it true?

4 Is it true that all death's slain,
Will arise and live again,
And to final judgment go,
Some for bliss and some for woe
Is it true—Oh! is it true?

2 The spring-time quickly passed away
From off the hill side and the dell;
And then, we saw her pressed with cares,
Unmindful of her soul's affairs—
And, who can tell?

4 Fain would we hope when o'er the grave
Her spirit hovered, all was well,
That, at the last, the Saviour smiled,
And owned the sufferer as his child,
But, who can tell?

3 When on her dying bed she lay,
She dreamed she heard the funeral knell—
"A little longer!" then she cried,
"A year! a day!" and so she died—
Ah!—who can tell?

5 Then, seek the Saviour in thy youth,
Early thy sinful passions quell?
Now for the better world prepare,
For death may come ere you're aware—
And, who can tell?

There, to welcome, Jesus waits, &c.

Boys.

1. O what will the Sabbath school do for us? What priv-i-lege shall we ob-tain?
 2. The Bi-ble hath taught us the way is plain, The fool-ish may' walk there-in!

Girls.

And what shall we have that is new to us, If long-er we seek to re-joice!
 Though many will study each day in vain, Because they live careless in sin;

CHORUS.

The priv-i-lege here to all is given To study and learn the way to heaven.
 Then study in ear-nest! 'tis God's command, And ask him to help you to un-der-stand.

3. The lessons ye give us, seem hard to learn.
 We often feel languid and dull;
 And then are impatient and wish to turn
 Away from the Sabbath school;
 The lessons grow easy to all who try,
 And moments fly swift when zeal runs high.

4. Oh' waken to industry then we say,
 We'll faithfully, cheerfully try;
 And courage and effort shall win the day,
 And fill up the moments with joy!
 Yet tenderly think of the name we love,
 Acknowledge your sin, and grateful prove.

Teachers.

Never forget the Sabbath school, The lessons taught you here, The gentle words of kindness, The true and [earnest care.

Remember, too, the teachers, Who oft for you will pray, That Jesus, by his gracious love, May keep you in the [way.

CHORUS

Never forget, Never forget, Never forget the Sabbath school, The lessons taught you here, The lessons &c.

Never forget the Sabbath school, &c

Children. Can we forget the Sabbath school,
 The place of light and love,
 Place where we learn of wisdom's ways,
 That leads to homes above?
 Wherever we may wander,
 Where through the week we roam,
 We'll not forget the teachers
 Of this, our Sabbath home.
 Never forget, never forget,
 Never forget the teachers
 Of this, our Sabbath ho

All. So, then, together let us sing,
 In song of grateful praise,
 To Him who reigneth in the skies
 Our grateful tribute raise.
 And pray that through another year
 His blessing may attend:
 And that we never may forget
 The sinner's truest friend,
 Never forget, never forget,
 Never forget that Jesus is
 The sinner's truest friend.

NOTE.—When a boy, but twelve years old, I worked hard to support my mother and two younger brothers, and usually carried my earnings home every evening. One night, it being very dark and muddy, and having three miles to travel, and a heavy bundle to carry, I did not reach home until late: my mother, feeble and weary, had retired, but she quickly aroused when she heard my voice, and soon met me at the door, with a warm kiss, and warmer tears, and a "God bless you, my dear boy." As she received my bundle, she exclaimed, "After this, my son, I'll set a light in the window for you," and, true to her word, the bright light in the window appeared, and Oh! how it cheered my heart ever after for years. Health failing me, I left home, (after my brothers could help mother), and went to sea. When three years from home, and on the Pacific Ocean, my mother died; but just before she expired, she said to those around her, "O give Edward my dying blessing, for he has been a good boy. Tell him I have gone to Heaven, and I will set a light in the window for him."

Tune, STAR OF THE EVENING, page 114, "S. S. Bell."

Tune. STAR OF THE EVENING.

WORDS BY MRS. M. A. KIDDER.

1. Shepherds, keeping watch by night,
Saw around a glorious light ;
Heard an angel then proclaim,
" Christ is born in Bethlehem,
Christ is born in Bethlehem."

CHORUS.

Christ is born, Christ is born,
Christ is born—is born in Bethlehem.

2. Soon by many a heavenly tongue
" Glory be to God " was sung,
" Peace on earth, good will to men,
Christ is born in Bethlehem."
Christ is born, Christ is born, &c.

3. Joyful tidings to mankind !
Richest grace they now can find ;
Children, too, this grace may claim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.
Christ is born in Bethlehem, &c.

4. Oh ! how great his grace and love,
Thus to leave his throne above ;
Thus to be our guilt and shame,
And be born in Bethelam.
Christ is born in Bethlehem, &c.

1. Bethlehem star, sweet gem of light,
Sent to guide our souls aright.
Wanderers from the Lord afar ;
Star of the Christian, Bethlehem star.
Star of the Christian, Bethlehem star.

CHORUS.

Bethlehem star, Bethlehem star.
Star of the Christian, Bethlehem, Bethlehem star

2. Shepherds, wondering, saw thee rise,
Glorious in the eastern skies ;
Herald of a Saviour's birth,
Jesus, Lord of heaven and earth.
Bethlehem star, &c.
3. Radiant star ! thy beams divine,
Bright with heavenly lustrous shine ;
Sinners from their God afar,
Look to the Christians guiding star
Bethlehem star, &c.
4. When all earthly scenes shall fade ;
And we near death's silent shade,
Jesus, loved star, Oh light our way,
To realms above of perfect day.
Bethlehem star, &c.

THE ANGELS' SONG.

1. There's a song the angels sing, And its notes with rapture ring, Round the throne whose radiance fills the heav'ns a-bove; Shepherds heard a distant strain, Watching on Judea's plain, "Glory be to God, to men be peace and love."

CHORUS.

Thro' the earth and thro' the sky Let the anthem ever fly, Peace, good will to men, and glory be to God on high.

2 'Tis a song for children, too;
To the Saviour 'tis their due:
Let its grateful notes ascend to Him again;
Join with angels in their song,
And the heavenly strain prolong,
"Glory be to God, good will and peace to men."
CHO.—Through the earth, &c.

3 Soon around that throne may we
With those happy angels be,
Striking harps to strains that nevermore shall cease;
Mingling love with loftiest praise,
Still the chorus there we'll raise,
"Glory be to God, to men good will and peace."
CHO.—Through the earth. &c.

Now the day is dawning bright,—

For the coming of that day,
When the wheat shall sifted be,
And the chaff be driven from thee:

 had restored the dead, They to whose arms he had restored the dead.

They gathered round the cross. Who gathered round?
 The lost reclaimed, sinners their sins forgiven,
 Who publicans whose eyes, that sought the ground,
 His hand had pointed to a smiling heaven.

They gathered round the cross. Who gathered round?
 Women whose joy had been to soothe his woes,
 His mother—anguish, triumph, in each wound—
 Her Son, her Saviour, suffered for his foes.

They gathered round the cross. Who gathered round?
 False priests that laughed, soldiers who mocked his pain,
 Proud Pharisees "whose garments swept the ground;"
 And thus upon the cross the Lord was slain.

 The day grew dark when death its work had done;

 For our salvation by the cross was won.

Tune, "SWEET HOME."

WORDS BY REV. C. W. DENISON.

1. Oh! turn not the Sailor away from your door,
Though poor, sick, and ragged he wander the shore,
He's a man, he's a brother, and oft you will find
Beneath a tarr'd jacket a generous mind.
No, no, turn not away,
Oh, turn not the Sailor away from your door.
2. Oh, turn not the Sailor away from your door,
Though you see him but once, and may see him no more;
For a poor suffering stranger was Jesus, our Lord,
And the cup of cold water shall have its reward.
No, no, turn not away, &c.

3. Oh, turn not the Sailor away from your door,
Though many a wild one has asked you before;
Perchance he has battled the ocean for you,
Where the wild billows raged, and the fierce tempest blew.
No, no, turn not away, &c.

4. Oh, turn not the Sailor away from your door,
Some strange, distant land you may yet wander o'er
To seek lone and hungry, as weary you roam,
The grateful repose of a true Sailor's home.
No, no, turn not away, &c.

5. Oh, turn not the Sailor away from your door,
He may love the same God you have worshipp'd of yore,
And when in the presence of angels you rest,
He may reign at your side in the land of the blest.
No, no, turn not away, &c.

Tune, "ANTIOCH."

1. THE Sailor's home is on the wave,
And there his grave will be;
Oh, Christian, stretch your hand, and save
This pilgrim of the sea.

2. O haste ye, for his life is brief;
Those "wild waves," booming free,
May sink to everlasting death
The pilgrim of the sea.
3. His heart is generous, kind, and brave—
Landsman, he toils for thee;
For thee he finds an early grave,
Lone pilgrim of the sea.
4. Jesus has pledged a bright reward
To those who'd faithful be,
And blest are they who turn to God
One pilgrim of the sea.

DO GOOD FOR THE SAILOR.

WORDS BY REV. C. W. DENISON.

1. Do good! do good! there's ever a way—
A way where there's ever a will;
Don't wait 'till to-morrow, but do it to-day,
And to-day, when to-morrow comes, still.
Do good to the Sailor, doomed often to roll
On billows of sorrow and need;
Embrace him with love, and his generous soul
Shall full well repay you the deed.

CHORUS.

- Then do good! do good! there's ever a way—
A way where there's ever a will, a will;
Don't wait 'till to-morrow, but do it to day,
And to-day, when to-morrow comes, still.
2. On shore, or at sea, when the Sailor you meet—
Oh! pass him not by in disdain;
Be tender and kind, as his spirit you greet—
God bless the brave son of the Main!
Then pity the Sailor—remember his fate
Is often so sad and forlorn;
Direct him to enter at mercy's straight gate,
Where Christ all his sorrows has borne.
Then do good! &c.

 I court not this world's gilded store, [of day,
 There are voices now calling from the bright realms
 Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!
Chorus. 'Tis a song, &c.
3. Though here I'm sad and drooping, and weep my life away,
 With a lone heart still clinging to the shore,
 Yet I hear happy voices, which ever seem to say,
 Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!
Chorus. 'Tis a song, &c.

 Oh, sorrow shall come again no more! [long,

HOSANNA TO THE LAMB OF GOD.—CONCLUDED.

Allegretto.

The musical score is written on two systems of staves. Each system consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The music is in a 3/4 time signature with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are printed below the staves, with some words appearing above the notes. The first system ends with a double bar line, and the second system concludes with a final cadence.

Ho - san - na to the Lamb of God. Glo - ry, glo - ry, let us sing, While heaven and earth with glo - ry ring, Ho - san - na! Ho - - - san - na! Ho - san - na to the Lamb of God.

1. Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
 Does his successive journeys run;
 His kingdom stretch from shore
 Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
 Glory, glory, &c.

2. People and realms of every tongue
 Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
 And youthful voices shall proclaim
 Their early blessings on his name.
 Glory, glory, &c.

3. Let every creature rise and bring
 Peculiar honors to our KING;
 Angels ascend with songs again,
 And earth repeat the loud Amen.
 Glory, glory, &c.

1. ALMIGHTY Ruler of the skies,
 Through all the earth thy name is spread;
 And thine eternal glories rise
 Above the heavens thy hands have made.
 Glory, glory, &c.

2. Amidst thy temple children throng
 To see their great Redeemer's face;
 The Son of David is their song,
 And loud hosannas fill the place.
 Glory, glory, &c.

1. AWAKE, my tongue, thy tribute bring
 To him who gave thee power to sing
 Praise him who has all power above,
 The source of wisdom and of love.
 Glory, glory, &c.

2. Through each bright world above, behold
 Ten thousand, thousand charms unfold;
 Earth, air, and mighty seas combine
 To speak his wisdom all divine.
 Glory, glory, &c.

3. But in redemption, O what grace!
 Its wonders, O what thought can trace!
 Here wisdom shines forever bright;
 Praise him, my soul, with sweet delight.

CHILDHOOD'S HAPPY HOURS.

Duet. Words by J. S. ADAMS.

Music by CHERY, Arr. by A. CULL

1. In childhood's young and happy hours, I wander free o'er hill and plain; I gather bright and fragrant
 2. I love these childhood's hours: they bring On every moment some new joy: Oh, who can half the rapture

This beautiful tune may be sung to any long metre hymn.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

1. THE Sunday school, how dear to me !
Within thy walls I love to be ;
Where, on the Sabbath day, we meet
In our accustomed class and seat.
2. 'Tis there that I am taught to read
God's holy word, and feel the need
Of quickening grace and pardoning love,
To fit me for yon heaven above.
3. 'Tis there that I am taught to pray,
And love God's holy Sabbath day ;
To sing his praise and learn his will,
And all my duties to fulfil.
4. Oh, let my songs and praises rise,
Like grateful incense to the skies,
For that rich grace, so free, so full,
That brought me to the Sabbath school.

HOW LITTLE THINGS INCREASE.

1. A GRAIN of corn an infant's hand
May plant upon an inch of land,
Whence twenty stalks might spring and yield
Enough to stock a little field.

2. The harvest of that field might then
Be multiplied to ten times ten,
Which sown twice more could furnish bread
Wherewith an army might be fed.
3. A penny is a little thing,
Which e'en a poor man's child may bring
Into the treasury of Heaven,
And make it worth as much as seven.
4. As seven ! yea worth its weight in gold,
And that increased an hundred fold,
For lo ! a penny tract, if well
Applied, may save a soul from hell.
5. That soul can scarce be saved alone.
It must, it will its bliss make known :
Come, it will cry, and you shall see,
What great things God hath done for me.
6. Hundreds that joyful sound shall hear,
Hear with the heart as well as ear ;
And these to thousand more proclaim
Salvation in the only name.

SISTER SPIRIT, STAY NOT HERE.

ANDANTINO.

Words and Music by C. HATCH SMITH, A. M.

1. See an an-gel, flying—fly-ing—Father, mother, broth-er dear! Hark, his voice is sighing—sighing—“Sister Spirit, stay not here.” Dearest fa-ther, I must leave thee,

With the an-gel fly away: Dearest father, cease to grieve thee, Oh! I would no longer stay.

NOTE.—The subject of the above, a young girl, fifteen years of age, was an active member of the Sunday-School. It was her extraordinary promise of genius and proficiency in music that suggested the poem. Notwithstanding her youth, she overcame the difficulties of the great masters with ease. She was to have united with the protestant church the Sunday subsequent to her decease.

2. Music—hear it! ringing—ringing—
 Earth is dark—I cannot see—
 Seraph voices singing—singing—
 “Sister Spirit, 'tis for thee.”
 I can hear them, mother, listen!
 They are smiling now on you;
 And, how bright their faces glisten!
 Oh! I know their love is true.
3. Vision? no! we're going—going—
 Now the angel speaks to me;
 “For thy trust while sowing—sowing—
Sister Spirit, thou art free.”
 Oh! a crown within the portal,
 Held by hands so pure and white:
 Brother dear, its gems immortal,
 Shine with rays of matchless light.
4. Weep no more, dear mother—mother—
 Angels soon will seek thine ear;
 And so soft, oh! father, brother,
Whisper, Spirit, stay not here.
 Now, farewell, I go—I leave thee,
 With the angel fly away:
 Dearest loved ones, cease to grieve thee,
 For I can no longer stay.

I LOVE THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

ORIGINAL HYMN. Words by Mrs. S. ALLARE.

1. I love the Sabbath School—Heaven of rest;
 I love its gentle rule—Sacred and blest.

Here, when the morning chime,
 Peals forth its merry rhyme,
 Young hearts are beating time,
 Kind hands are press'd.

CHORUS.

- I love the Sabbath School—
 Sabbath School, Sabbath School,
 I love the Sabbath School,
 Dear Sabbath School.
2. We are a happy band—Onward we move—
 Seeking that better land—Where all is love.
 Youth with its rosy hue,
 Sweet dimpled childhood, too,
 Drinking the holy dew,
 I love the Sabbath School, &c.
3. Oft in that favored spot Sweet place of prayer,
 Earth and its cares forgot—Jesus is there.
 He who, though Lord of all,
 Marks but a sparrow's fall;
 He listens to our call—
 Yes, God is there.
 I love the Sabbath School, &c.
4. Come to the Sabbath School, God calls to-day,
 Drink from this little pool—Make no delay.
 This is the humble place
 Christ loves to own and bless:
 Here seek your Sabbath rest—
 Haste, haste away.
 I love the Sabbath School, &c.

CHORUS.

2. What a boon to us is given,
 Thus to lift our voice on high,
 Well assured the ear of heaven
 Hears our wants, and will supply.
 Weak and sinful, oh how often,
 Must we look to God alone,
 For his grace our hearts to soften,
 And sustain us as his own!

3. Bless, O Lord, this happy meeting,
 While we stay, and when we go:
 Here our hearts in friendly greeting,
 Gladly join thy praise below;
 But all earthly unions sever,
 All their pleasures quickly fly:
 Oh for grace to praise thee ever,
 In that better world on high.

 Thou art not, like them untrue;
 And whilst Thou shalt smile upon me,
 God of wisdom, love, and might,
 Foes may hate, and friends may scorn me;
 Show Thy face, and all is bright.
3. Man may trouble and distress me,
 'T will but drive me to Thy breast;
 Life with trials hard may press me,
 Heaven will bring no sweeter rest.
 Oh! 't is not in grief to harm me,
 While Thy love is left to me;
 Oh! 'twere not in joy to charm me,
 Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

4. Soul, then know thy full salvation,
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear.
 Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
 Think what Father's smiles are thine;
 Think that Jesus died to win thee;
 Child of heaven, can'st thou repine?
5. Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith, and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days;
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

HOW PRECIOUS THE DYING OF SAINTS.

41

Words by Rev. SYDNEY DYER.

Music by J. R. OSGOOD.

1. How precious the dying of saints to the Lord, Who waits to receive them on high ; And
2. To pilgrims, long wearied and sorely oppressed, Death comes as a precious boon given ; And they, with sweet rapture, attend thy glad word, And pant for their home in the sky, And they, &c., And sweet are the accents which call to the rest, Prepared for the weary in Heaven! And sweet are, &c, Prepant for their home in the sky, And they, with sweet rapture, attend the glad word, And pant, &c.

pared for the weary in Heaven! And sweet are the accents which call to the rest, Prepared, &c.

3. The old and the young he enfolds in his arms,
Unheeding the pleadings of love ;
But lo! to the righteous he opens those charms,
Immortal and fadeless above!

4. Then, let us, rejoicing in Faith, ever sing,
"I would not live always below ;" [wing,
Since Death plumes for Heaven with angels' bright
I'm long, yea, panting, to go!

1. { Speak gen-ly it is better far, To rule by love than fear; }
 { Speak gen-ly let no harsh words mar, The good we might do here. }

D. C. Teach it in accents soft and mild From e - vil to re - frain. Fine.

Speak gently to the young, for they
 Will have enough to bear;
 Pass through this life as best they may,
 'Tis full of anxious care.
 Speak gently to the aged one,
 Grieve not the careworn heart:
 The sands of life are nearly run.
 Let such in peace depart.

3.

Speak gently, kindly, to the poor,
 Let no harsh tones be heard;
 They have enough they must endure
 Without an unkind word.
 Speak gently to the erring ones;
 They may have toiled in vain
 Perchance unkindness made them so:
 Oh, win them back again.

THE BLESSED SABBATH MORN.

WORDS BY MRS. MARY A. KIDDER.

The Sabbath bell so gayly breaks,
In music soft and clear,
Majestic o'er the woods and lakes
Its welcome sounds we hear.
Fair children smile to usher in
The day by God upborne;
While thousands with the dawn begin
To bless the Sabbath morn,
The Sabbath morn,
To bless the Sabbath morn,
The Sabbath morn,
To bless the Sabbath morn,
Fair children smile to usher in
The day by God upborne,
And thousands with the dawn begin
To bless the Sabbath morn,
To bless, &c.
To bless, &c.

In many a lane and street obscure,
In many a wretched cot,
Among the sad and starving poor,
The Sabbath is forgot;
'Tis there the sweet and heavenly notes,
On angel pinions borne,
Around their priceless souls should float,
Each blessed Sabbath morn;
The Sabbath morn,
Each blessed Sabbath morn.
The Sabbath morn,
Each blessed Sabbath morn,
'Tis there the sweet and heavenly notes,
On angel pinions borne,
Around their priceless souls should float,
Each blessed Sabbath morn.
Each, &c.
Each, &c.

BE KIND TO THE LOVED ONES AT HOME.*

footsteps are feeble, once fear - less and bold, Thy father is passing a - way.

3. Be kind to thy brother—his heart will have dearth,
 If the smile of thy joy he withdrawn;
 The flowers of feeling will fade at their birth,
 If the dew of affection be gone.
 Be kind to thy brother—wherever you are,
 The love of a brother shall be
 An ornament purer and richer by far
 Than pearls from the depth of the sea.

4. Be kind to thy sister—not many may know
 The depth of true sisterly love;
 The wealth of the ocean lies fathoms below
 The surface that sparkles above.
 Be kind to thy father, once fearless and bold,
 Be kind to thy mother so near;
 Be kind to thy brother, nor shew thy heart cold,
 Be kind to thy sister so dear.

HEAVEN IS MY HOME.*

I'm but a stranger here,
 Heaven is my home.
 Earth is a desert drear,
 Heaven is my home.
 Dangers and sorrows stand,
 Round me on every hand,
 Heaven is my Father's land,
 Heaven is my home.

What though the tempests rage,
 Heaven is my home.
 Short is my pilgrimage,
 Heaven is my home.
 Time's cold and wintry blast,
 Soon will be overpast,
 I shall reach home at last,
 Heaven is my home.

What though the world allure,
 Heaven is my home.
 Still is the promise sure,
 Heaven is my home.
 Steadfast by faith I see,
 Him who on Calvary,
 Purchased this bliss for me.
 Heaven is my home.

Peace, Oh my troubled soul,
 Heaven is my home.
 I soon shall reach the goal,
 Heaven is my home.
 Swiftly the race I'll run,
 Yield up my crown to none,
 Forward, the prize is won,
 Heaven is my home.

There at my Saviour's side,
 Heaven is my home.
 I shall be glorified,
 Heaven is my home.
 There are the good and blest,
 Those I love most and best,
 There, too, I soon shall rest,
 Heaven is my home.

BE KIND TO THY PASTOR.

WORDS BY MRS. M. A. KIDDEE.

Be kind to thy pastor—for many long years
 He 's faithfully watched over thee;
 He warns thee in mercy, entreats thee with tears,
 From sin and from error to flee.
 Be kind to thy pastor—remember he bears
 A burden for me and for you;
 Oh! make his work easy, and lighten his cares,
 By being both humble and true.

Be kind to thy teacher—for well dost thou know
 How kindly he labors for thee;
 He minds not the tempest—he heeds not the snow,
 So tireless and earnest is he.
 Be kind to thy teacher—that when thou dost stand
 By death's silent river, alone,
 The faith he hath taught thee may point to the land
 Where sorrow and pain is unknown.

Be kind to thy schoolmates, in good or in ill,
 Whatever the tempter may say;
 Like you, they now stand at the foot of the hill,
 Young pilgrims in life's thorny way.
 Be kind to thy schoolmates—be gentle and mild,
 The gift of sweet charity seek;
 Remember that Jesus, who once was a child,
 Though tempted, was lowly and meek.

[Tune, "Be kind to the loved ones at home," p. 46.]

Before the morning's gone;
Call them round the altar bright,
On which burns devotion's light,

I'M WITH THEE STILL.*

"Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation?"

ANDANTE. Words by Mrs. A. M. EDMONDS.

Music by A. CULL.

1. Mother! sweet mother! though ma - ny a day Has pass'd like the swift winged clouds a - way, Since thou, with grief that was al - most wild, Didst give to the an - gel of death thy child; Nev - ermore let a tear thine eye-lid fill; For, mother! sweet mother! I'm with thee still! For, mother! sweet mother! I'm with thee still!

Thou canst not see me, thy child so dear,
 Thou canst not hear me, yet I am near,
 I watch thee, mother, as thou didst me,
 In the days of my youth, and my infancy,
 Love's holiest vigil I come to fill,
 Mother! dear mother! I'm with thee still.

3.

When the east is red with the coming morn,
 And the stars grow pale in the crimson dawn,
 And the busy cares of a new-born day
 Are chasing the shadows of sleep away,
 Thy cup from the river of life I fill,
 Mother! sweet mother! I'm with thee still.

When the sun goes down to his couch of gold,
 And the shadowy wings of night unfold,
 And the stars light up the beautiful road
 That shows the path to the saint's abode,
 I come with the angels who do his will—
 Mother! dear mother! I'm with thee still.

I see thee kneel in the place of prayer,
 And I fold my pinions in silence there,
 As the earnest of faith to thee is given,
 The hope that heralds the bliss of heaven,
 And the holiest peace which the soul can fill—
 Mother! sweet mother! I'm with thee still.

When the hour shall come, and thy strength shall fail,
 And thy feet are turned to the narrow way;
 And the waters of death, so dark and cold,
 Shall o'er thee roll as o'er me they rolled,
 I will touch thy hand, in the waves so chill,
 Mother! dear mother! I'm with thee still.

When the river is cross'd and the journey done,
 The conflict is over, the vict'ry won,
 And thy feet are firm on that glorious shore,
 Where sorrow and parting are known no more,
 Never more shall a tear thine eyelid fill.
 There, there, sweet mother! I'm with thee still.

bark is tempest driven;—Stranger, be calm, there is no fear For him who trusts in Heaven.
storm-y trysail's riven; Stranger, what matters storm or gale To him who trusts in Heaven.

3. Borne by the wind, the vessel flees
Up to that thundering-cloud;
Now tottering low, spray-winged seas
Conceal the top-mast shroud;
Pilot, the waves break o'er us fast,
Vainly our bark has striven;
Stranger, the Lord can rule the blast,
Go, put thy trust in Heaven.

4. Good hope! good hope! one little star
Gleams o'er the waste of waters;
'T is like the light, reflected far,
Of beauty's loveliest daughters.
Stranger, good hope! He giveth thee,
As He has always given—
Then learn this truth, whate'er may be,
To put thy trust in Heaven.

Words by Hon. ROBERT H. PRYCE.

HENRY TUCKER

2. When the portals of gold For him shall unfold, The work of his Saviour well-done,
3. With ranks ev-er full, Let our Sabbath school The hope of the church ever be,

With him may we ev-er, Till death shall us sev-er, En-joy these glad festival days.
More than autumnal leaves May he bear home his sheaves, The crown of rejoicing then won,
As streams from the fountains, Far up in the mountains, Descending, fill river and sea.

 singing, singing, Sound a joyous ju-bi-lee. 'Tis the day the wondrous sign, gleaming, gleaming, When the Christ-child came on earth. He's the priceless pearl we hail, kneeling, kneeling, Kneeling at the throne on high. With grateful voi-ces come we now, singing, singing, Sound a joyous ju-bi-lee.

 Broke the wise men's calm repose; Newly robed in rays divine, The Star of Bethlehem arose.
 Sent us from a Father's hand; A fount of life that shall not fail, A rock in a weary land.
 Come, both heart and hand to lift; Lord of Life, to thee we bow, And thank thee for thy gift.

SABBATH BELLS ARE RINGING, RINGING.

1. SABBATH bells are ringing, ringing,
Like soft voices, in the air,
Of the angels, winging, winging,
To the sacred house of prayer.
'T is the day of holy rest,
When the world, with all its care,
Shall not rule the anxious breast;
God reigns triumphant there.
Chorus—Sabbath bells, &c.
2. Children's voices, pealing, pealing,
Are the echoes of their souls;
When they worship, kneeling, kneeling,
In their pleasant Sabbath schools.
There the child, in humble trust,
Lisps the blessed Saviour's name;
There the teacher, bowed in dust,
The cross his only claim.—Chorus.
3. Light from heaven beaming, beaming,
Breaks in glory on the soul;
Hope in beauty, gleaming, gleaming,
Cheers the children's Sunday school.
Light and hope, and faith and love,
Peace and joy are their reward;
Heavenly blessings from above,
For children of the Lord.—Chorus.
G. W. BUNGAY.

SPRING BUDS SWEET ARE BLOOMING.

1. SPRING-BUDS sweet are blooming, blooming,
Fragrant spice-breath of the flowers,
Spilled on cool winds, booming, booming,
Drumming up the summer showers,
Now foretell a plenteous year;
Overflowing to the brim,
May it bring God's loved ones near
His throne to worship him.
Chorus—Spring-buds sweet, &c.
2. Storm-winds loud are calling, calling,
On the sobbing clouds to come;
Autumn leaves are falling, falling,
And the partridge taps her drum,

Soon the autumn of our days
Tinges life with soberness;
May it mellow in His rays,
The Sun of Righteousness.—Chorus.

3. Winter's cold is stinging, stinging,
All the life it touches there;
While the winds are flinging, flinging,
Snow-flakes on the drifted hair.
But there is a land above,
Where will reign perpetual spring,
Light of God's unchanging love,
Beneath his sheltering wing.—Chorus.
G. W. BUNGAY.

WILD BIRDS NOW ARE SINGING, SINGING.

A SONG FOR PIC-NICS.

1. WILD birds now are singing, singing,
In the woodlands, green and fair;
Wood-notes now are ringing, ringing,
From the tree-tops in the air.
Sweet bird of the dusky wing,
And the swelling breast of flame,
When we hear thy sweet notes ring,
Our praise is put to shame.
Chorus—Wild birds now, &c.
2. Flowers here are clinging, clinging,
To the rude rocks in the dell;
They are kissed by springing, springing,
Wavelets from the woodland well.
As the sweet flowers breathe their balm
On the crystal atmosphere,
So the perfume of our psalm
Shall sweeten offerings here.—Chorus.
3. Sunlight here is streaming, streaming,
From the fountains in the sun,
Blending here its beaming, beaming,
Light with shadows as they run.
Braiding thus the light and shade,
Underneath the glistening leaves;
So our chequered life is made,
Where sun and shadow weaves.—Chorus.
G. W. BUNGAY.

"WHO WOULD NOT LOVE THE SUNDAY SCHOOL?"

Words and Music by M. F. H. SMITH.

ANDANTE CANTABILE.

CHORUS.

1. Who would not love the Sunday school? The place where youthful hearts are taught
 2. Who would not love the Sunday school? 'T is there the Sa-viour loves to meet

To learn and love God's ho - ly word, To guide their ac-tions, minds, and thoughts.
 All lit - tle chil - dren and their friends, Who come his word to learn and teach.

Who would not love the Sunday school?
 'T is there we all should love to go,
 'T is there we learn our Saviour's will,
 'T is there we learn his face to know.

Who would not love the Sunday school?
 'T is there we learn of that dear Friend,
 Who came and died for such as we,
 And who will guide us to the end.

GOD'S FAVORS ACKNOWLEDGED.

Words and Music by P. H. RAFTER.

1. Lord, we thank thee for the blessings Thou hast strewn along our way ; Blessings, without stint or num-ber, We re-ceive from day to day, We receive from day to day.

In the morning, when the sunlight
Breaks along the eastern sky,
We behold the first bright dawning
Of the power of God on high.

3.

Through the day his mercy hovers
O'er us, in each shining hour,—
And when coming shades surround us,
Still we feel his sheltering power.

Unseen angels in the darkness
Of the night surround our beds,
And the blessings of the Father
Rest upon our youthful heads.

5.

For thy gifts, O Lord, we thank thee,
For thy blessings and thy love;
And with words of joy we'll praise thee
Here, and in thy courts above.

If there still should be of - fense - es, Woe to him by whom they come.

"Judge not that ye be not judg-ed," Was the coun-sel Je - sus gave;

2. Jesus said, be meek and lowly,
 For 't is high to be a Judge,
 If I would be pure and holy,
 I must love without a grudge;
 It requires a constant labor,
 All these precepts to obey;
 If I truly love my neighbor,
 I am in the narrow way.

3. Once I said unto my neighbor,
 In thine eye there is a Mote,
 If thou art a friend or brother,
 Hold and let me pull it out;
 But I could not see it fairly,
 For my sight was very dim,
 When I came to see more clearly,
 In mine eye, there was a Beam.

4. If I truly love my neighbor,
 And this Mote I would erase,
 Then my light must shine more clearly;
 For the eye 's a tender place,

Others I have oft reproved,
 For a little simple Mote!
 Now I wish the Beam removed,
 Oh, that tears would wash it out!

5. Charity and love are healing,
 These will give a clearer sight,
 When I searched for others' failings,
 I was not exactly right.
 Now I'll take no further trouble,
 Jesus' love is all my theme;
 Little Motes are but a bubble,
 When compared unto a Beam!

6. In sweet union let us travel,
 Pilgrims through this world of woe,
 All upon one Christian level,
 None but Jesus will we know.
 Farewell then to disputation,
 Firm, united let us be,
 In love's highest dispensation,
 Live with Christ eternally.

1. We are go-ing, go-ing, go-ing To a land where all is light: Where are flow-ing, flow-ing,

 To wake the sisterhood of flowers,
 And light shall kindle up the morn,
 Love shall expand these hearts of ours.
 And we will go to Sabbath School,
 And learn the sacred lesson well,
 For stars that shine, and streams that roll,
 Are syllables a child can spell.
3. How sweet the flowers, whose pleasant eyes
 Turn to the sun, as hearts should turn
 To God, whose throne is in the skies,
 Teach us a truth our souls should learn,
 And the loved voices of the birds,
 Fill with soft sounds the listening air,
 As we should turn our thoughts to words,
 In sacred song and simple prayer.

CHILDREN'S PARTING HYMN.*

TUNE—"Shining Shore," S. S. BELL, No. 1, p. 104.

1. THE year's last song, and then we part!
How swiftly time is winging!
But sweet are farewells of the heart,
When they are said in singing!
The roses climb the garden wall;
The buds are past their blowing;
The summer's breezy voices call,
And we must now be going!
2. The thrush is on her trembling nest
Which every wind is swaying;
And every robin shows his breast,
While we are here delaying!
The bees have set their pipes in tune
On every head of clover;
And we must haste to hear them soon,
Or summer will be over!
3. To-day the birds on every bough
Their Sabbath chimes are ringing;—
The Lord is in his temple now—
We praise him with our singing!
Without, within, the voices chord!
One praise we all are giving—
To thee, O Ever-loving Lord!
To thee, O Ever-living!
4. O God of every human heart!
And every heart's pure feeling,
We love and praise thee as thou art
In Nature's own revealing!
Wherever summer's grass is green,
Or winter's snows are hoary,
We see thee, though thou art unseen,
We know thee by thy glory!

5. We linger in our parting song;
We praise thee as we sever;
The summer days will not be long,
Ere we shall praise for ever!
All hail! then, for the Summer Land
Whose blossoms never wither;
Though here we part each other's hand,
We keep our journey thither!

THEODORE TILTON.

A SUMMER HOLIDAY HYMN.

PIO-NIO SONG.

TUNE—"Shining Shore," S. S. BELL, No. 1, p. 104.

1. Now we can bid our books farewell,
And go where winds are blowing
Their flutes of balm in grove and dell,
And gentle doves are cooing.
Away with toll, and dust, and care,
Where toc-sins loud are ringing;
We go to breathe the pleasant air,
Where uncaged birds are singing.
2. The grass lifts up its hands of green,
And waves its flags of clover,
To beckon us to join the scene,
Before the summer's over.
The bobolink perched on his weed,
Like a song-blossom swaying,
Rebukes our steps, and flies with speed,
Where sunshine saves the haying.
3. Wild flower, woodland, and water-fall,
The robin and the roses,
Have given us a tempting call—
But Mammon interposes.
O God of mercy, truth and love,
And ruler of the races,
Stamp with thy seal from heaven above,
All human hearts and faces.

G. W. BUNGAY.

* This hymn has been sung by the children of the Plymouth Sunday School, on the occasion of their annual closing exercises in the summer, for several years past.

RING, SACRED BELLS.

TUNE—" Those Evening Bells," p. 76.

1. THOSE sacred bells—those sacred bells,
Their silver tones in music swell,
Like sweetest voices from that land,
Where children join the angel band. :||
2. Their pleasant tones speak to the soul,
Come early to the Sunday school,
And when they ring the bosom swells,
With love that chimes with sacred bells. :||

Ring in the right with holy chime,
Ring in the heart where mercy dwells,
Ring on for ever, sacred bells. :||
4. Ring joyous tones in every ear,
Ring loud and let the nations hear;
Ring in all lands, where virtue dwells,
Bless God for tones from sacred bells. :||

A SONG OF HOPE AND FRIENDSHIP.

TUNE—" The morning light is breaking,"
S. S. BELL, No. 1, p. 96.

1. How sweet when daylight closes,
When sinks the fading sun,
And dew is on the roses,
To meet the dear loved one.
When soft the bells are pealing
Out on the evening air,
And sweetest notes are stealing
Away the sense of care.
2. How sweet when toil is over,
And blossoms close their eyes,
And bees forsake the clover,
And stars look from the skies,
To meet the sweet-faced mother,
And press her gentle hand,
To greet the manly brother,
Or the dear sister bland.

3. How sweet on Sabbath morning,
When toil is hushed and still,
And light from heaven is dawning
On Zion's sacred hill—
To kneel in pure devotion
With the dear ones we love,
When hearts beat with emotion,
Kindled in heaven above.

G. W. BUNGAY.

BANDS OF HOPE.

TUNE—" Christmas Bells," p. 56.

1. BANDS of Hope are sailing, sailing,
On, right on, before the blast;
Temperance bands are nailing, nailing
Their white banners to the mast.
Speed, speed on the snow-white sail,
Shout to every far-off land;
Hail the temperance ship! all hail!
God speed the temperance band.
Chorus.—Bands of Hope are sailing, &c.
2. Bands of Hope are forming, forming,
On our free and happy shore;
Bands of Hope are storming, storming,
And their flag is waving o'er
The strong citadel of rum,
Where alcohol held sway;
Now the Bands of Hope have come,
And they shall win the day.
Chorus.—Bands of Hope are forming, &c.
3. Bands of Hope are shouting, shouting,
Here and there, and everywhere,
Flags of Hope are floating, floating
In the sweet and golden air.
Sign the pledge, and join the band,
At the altar and the porch;
March in triumph through the land,
With banner, badge, and torch.
Chorus.—Bands of Hope are shouting, &c.

"KIND SHEPHERD, LEAD ME O'ER THE PLAIN."

Words by GEO. W. BUNGAY.
LITTLE MARTHA.*

Arr. by HENRY TUCKER.

1. Kind shepherd, lead me o'er the plain, The night is drawing nigh, The thunder rolls, and
2. My moth- er in her humble cot, Stands by the window sill, Dear shepherd, lead me;

Instrument.

KIND SHEPHERD.

clouds of rain Blot out the star- lit sky.
I fear not, The storm that crowns the hill.

You cannot cross the pathless plain, The Stay, darling, in my sheltering tent, Untempest shakes the cloud, See, mixed with fire, the falling rain, Seem stitches in a shroud.

* As sung by little Martha Davies, one of the Sunday School vocalists, who is the daughter of a deceased Clergyman.

"KIND SHEPHERD." (CONCLUDED.)

Chorus by School and Audience.

Kind shepherd, lead her o'er the plain, The night is dark and drear; And wipe the tears, that fall like rain—She has no fa-ther here.

MARTHA.

3. Oh! shepherd, take me by the hand,
I see my mother's form,
She beckons, where the old elms stand,
An angel in the storm.

SHEPHERD.

Thy mother will not meet again,
Her darling, pleading child,
If I should lead thee o'er the plain,
Where winds are howling wild.

Chorus.—Kind shepherd, &c.

MARTHA.

4. My mother prays for me her child,
And thunders stop to hear,
Her accents soft, and sweet, and mild,
And Jesus bows his ear.

SHEPHERD.

Then I will lead thee o'er the plain,
Through darkness deep and wide,
The lightning coming with the rain,
Shall be the lamp to guide.

Chorus.—Kind shepherd, &c.

Saints and martyrs, faint and weary,

 Pilgrims, prophets, aged, hoary,
 Heirs of heaven through the new birth;
 All exalt the Saviour's name,
 Singing glory, &c.

Children, who were meek and lowly,
 Followers of their Master here,

Seeking, like him, to be holy,
 Now arrayed in beauty there,
 Catch the pure seraphic flame,
 Singing glory, &c.

5.

Millions more on earth remaining,
 Precious lambs of Christ's wide fold,
 Who the pearl of price obtaining,
 Shall their Jesus' face behold,
 And his boundless love proclaim,
 Singing, glory, &c.

6.

Little children, Christ has bought you,
 Bought you with his precious blood;
 Give him, then, your hearts and lives, too,
 Joined in loving brotherhood,
 To extol his blessed name,
 Singing glory, &c.

WHAT SOME CHILDREN DO.

TUNE—"We love the happy School."

1. SOME vain children try—
Vain ones do, vain ones do—
To play the butterfly;

Chorus—God bless the happy, happy soul,
That loves the truth and right,
Loves our Sabbath school,
And worships God aright.

2. Some bad children swear;
Bad ones do, bad ones do—
Never kneel in prayer,
Not so the just and true.
Chorus—God bless, &c.

3. Some mean children steal;
Mean ones do, mean ones do—
Their hearts do seldom feel,
As do the just and true.
Chorus—God bless, &c.

4. Some bad children lie;
Bad ones do, bad ones do—
Now let you and I
Be like the just and true.
Chorus—God bless, &c.

Bold ones do, bold ones do—
We know it is not right,
We will be just and true.

Bad ones do, bad ones do—
Now for Jesus' sake
Let us be just and true.

Music composed expressly for the Lee Avenue Sunday School Singing Class and Boy's Meeting by one of their friends,* and arranged by HENRY TUCKER.

1. There is a hope-ful com-pan-y We're just a-bout to start,

And we in-vite you all, young friends, To join us hand and heart.

So come and add your name at once, Nor wait till by - and - bye,

CHORUS.

For 't is a thing worth join - ing, this— Our com - pa - ny, "The Try."

2.

Some Companies there are, you know,
That cost a deal per share,
But all that you need pay for one,
Is—earnestness and prayer;
And some end so disastrously,
They make folks very cross,

Chorus.

But here you will be sure to gain,
And can not suffer loss;

3.

And some there are that only crave
The learned or the grand,
And others that alone admit
The wealthiest in the land;

But in our glorious Company
We dare object to none;

Chorus.

The meanest, dullest, poorest, worst—
We've room for every one.

4.

Then in our brave "Try" Company,
Your every power invest,
For this, whatever others may,
You'll find will pay the best;
And we will meet another year,
If God our lives should spare,

Chorus.

And we'll promise a good dividend,
To all who take a share,

Hear, O Lord! our supplication,

 To the children,
 Blessed Saviour,
 Everywhere thy goodness show.

CHORUS.

Hear us, mighty Saviour! hear us,
 Send thy gospel all abroad!
 Let the heathen, far or near us,

 Lighten every dark abode.

Wages—wages God will give thee,
Better far than monarch's state,
Earthly grandeur can not treasure,
Glory, an eternal weight.
Thus God gives thee—
Truly gives thee—
An eternal weight.

4. Souls immortal is the harvest,
All around thee, press they on
As a heaving, restless ocean
Up to God's great judgement throne.
Will ye falter? dare ye dally

Up, with all thy powers rally,
Waits for thee a fadeless crown.
This thy wages—
Glorious wages—
An eternal, fadeless crown.

HAPPY SUNDAY SCHOOL;

OR, SABBATH DAYS OF CHILDHOOD'S YEARS.

Music by GLOVER. Arr. by A. CULL.

Allegro Moderato.

1. Sab-bath days of childhood's years, Thy joy and bliss I know; Sun-day school like heaven appears, Where guardian angels bow. My les - son here un - to me brings, Hope to my heart and soul; The hours, are birds on golden wings, In my dear Sunday school; The hours are birds on gold - en wings, The hours are birds on gold-en wings, The hours are birds on gold-en wings, In our hap - py Sun - day school.

HAPPY SUNDAY SCHOOL. (CONCLUDED.)

CHORUS. Girls. Happy school, happy school,

Boys. Hap - py school, hap - py school, hap - py, hap - py Sun - day school;

Happy school, happy school,

Hap - py school, hap - py school, hap - py, happy Sun-day school.

2.

Pleasant days! how swift their flight!
 How sweet the song we sing!
 Starry pinions of the night,
 Why spread thy brooding wing?
 The Sabbath day too short appears
 To this young heart of mine.

It lights me through the vale of tears,
 A lamp in hands divine;
 It lights me through the vale of tears,
 It lights me through the vale of tears,
 It lights me through the vale of tears,
 A lamp in hands divine.

Chorus.—Happy school, &c.

PLEASANT SABBATH BELL.

Words by Mrs. M. A. KIDDER.

Arranged by HENRY TUCKER.

DUET. Allegretto.

1. { Of all the sweet and ho - ly sounds on God's fair day of rest,
 { It soft - ly calms the mourn - er's heart, it speaks of sins for - given,

The mu - sic of the Sab - bath bell, I love it far the best;
 And brings the poor, de - spair - ing souls so ve - ry near to heaven. }

CHORUS.

So come a - long, yes, come a - long; oh, do n't you hear the bell, Ring - ing out its joy - ous notes, all o - ver hill and dell? Then come, and join our Sabbath school, and make no more de-lay, For when you learn its pleasant rules, you'll never keep a-way.

Every week day brings its cares and troubles to perplex,
 And children have their sorrows too, and little things that vex;
 But when we hear the Sabbath bells in notes so loud and clear,
 We think how wrong it is to fret, when God's so very near.

Chorus.—So come along, &c.

3.

There was a dark benighted time, though many years ago,
 When children had no Sabbath schools, where they the truth might know;
 And many children now there are, in regions far away,
 That never hear the Sabbath bells on God's most holy day.

Chorus.—So come along, &c.

How thankful, then, we'd ought to be, to have one day in seven,
 When we can meet our teachers kind, and learn the way to heaven;
 What holy thoughts of Jesus should every bosom swell,
 As we listen to the music of the blessed Sabbath bell.

Chorus.—So come along, &c.

 In a song of love and praise, That we're taught in wisdom's ways, In the Sabbath school.

1. Awake, my soul, in joyful lays, And sing the great Redeemer's praise; He justly claims a song from me,

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

His loving kindness, O how free! His loving kindness, Loving kindness, His loving kindness, O how free!

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and bass line from the first system. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

2. When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood,
His loving-kindness, O how good!

3. Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Jesus to depart;
But though I have him oft forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not.

4. Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
O may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death.

5. Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
And sing, with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.

HURRAH! TO THE WOODS WE GO.

DUET, or QUARTETTE.

A PIC-NIC SONG.

Arranged by HENRY TUCKER

1. Hur-rah! hur-rah! to the woods we go, Where sweet birds sing, and dai-sies grow,
2. The grass is wait-ing to be pressed, The ro-bin look-ing from her nest,
3. Here lighted by the sun's pure beam, We fol-low the un-winding stream,

The stream is danc-ing through the glen, Far from the "bus-y haunts of men."
 The squir-rel at his go-thic door, Craeks his brown nut, and shouts en-core.
 Which like a good ex-ample flows, Mak-ing sweet mu-sic as it goes.

FULL CHORUS.

Then sing, children, sing, Oh, sing, children, sing Sing with de-light, un-

- til twilight, As the birds with a song in the morn-ing. Shout, ye vales and hills,

Sing to all the dancing rills, Shout, ye vales and hills, Sing to all the dancing rills.

The trees seem bending with their birds,
To cheer us with their pleasant words,
Sweet words dissolving into song,
To cheer and charm this happy throng.

Chorus.—Then sing, &c.

5.

Hurrah, hurrah for happy hours,
In woodlands with the birds and flowers,
Where nature wears a smiling brow,
And joy, like her clear streamlets, flow.

Chorus.—Then sing, &c.

 Meet to learn the pre-cious Bi-ble— Gos-pel news of Christ in heav-en. }

Aid-ed by our faith-ful teach-ers, Con-stant prayer and praise we'll blend,

Hal - le - lu - jah! up to Heav - en Let the songs of chil - dren go.

2. Suffer such to come, said Jesus,
 When, on earth, he took a child
 In His holy arms to bless it—
 God—divine—by man reviled.
 On the cross, He died to save us,
 Opening wide the Heav'nly door;
 Asking all to enter through it,
 There to praise him evermore.

Hallelujah, &c.

3. Praise to Jesus! let us children
 Sing together, how his name
 Carries joy to all the nations—
 Life eternal—heavenly fame.
 Such the news we learn of Jesus,
 He, who is the children's Friend;
 Angel bands, our chorus joining,
 Farther up the strain will send.

Hallelujah, &c.

MY MOTHER DEAR!

TUNE—"The dewy Rose of Sharon."

1. My mother dear! my mother dear!
How oft, how oft I think of thee,
While weeks and months roll o'er me here
Where duty bids me be.
My mother dear—how sweet the name,
When thinking o'er the past!
A mother's love is e'er the same—
It beats on till the last.
Chorus. My mother dear! my mother, &c.

2. My mother dear, it grieves me now,
To think, to think, how oft your son
Hath grieved your aching heart and brow
When in sin's paths he run.
My mother dear, those days of youth,
Now long since past and gone,
Left many a seed of holy truth,
Which since, we hope, have grown.
Chorus. My mother dear, it grieves, &c.

3. My mother dear, my fervent prayer,
Is that, is that you may be blest,
With peace and joy while ling'ring here—
Foretastes of future rest.
And that we all may meet at last
In yonder heavenly sphere,
At Jesus' feet our crowns to cast—
All saved, my mother dear.
Chorus. My mother dear, my fervent, &c.

1. Hark! the her - ald an - gels sing,      Glo - ry to the new-born King;

2. Dear children, our labors of love are the token
 We offer the Saviour, who died for us here,
 Whose body was mangled, whose great heart was broken,
 With pity for teachers and children so dear.
     Jesus died—Jesus died,
 With pity for teachers and children so dear.

3. Fond parents, whose bosoms with love over-welling,
 For dear ones in Sabbath school classes that meet,
 Join anthems of rapture the angels are swelling,
 While nations the chorus of children repeat.
     Songs so sweet—songs so sweet,
 While nations the chorus of children repeat.

4. The song-birds are singing so flute-like their praises,
 Now winging o'er woodland, and island, and glen,
 To soft notes in meadows, all covered with daisies,
 Let us be all cheerful in Sabbath school then,
     Let all men—let all men,
 Let us be all cheerful in Sabbath school then.

Make not increasing gold your trust,
 Nor set your hearts on glittering dust:
 Why will you grasp the fleeting smoke,
 And not believe what God has spoke?

3.

Once has his awful voice declared,
 Once and again my ears have heard:
 "All power is his eternal due;
 He must be feared and trusted, too."

 Grace is a partner of the throne:
 Thy grace and justice, mighty Lord,

WHAT ARE THOSE SOUL-REVIVING STRAINS?

 Which echo thus from Salem's plains;
 What anthems loud, and louder still,
 So sweetly sound from Zion's hill?
2. Lo! 'tis an infant chorus sings
 Hosanna to the King of kings:
 The Saviour comes!—and babes proclaim
 Salvation, sent in Jesus' name.
3. Proclaim hosannas loud and clear;
 See David's Son and Lord appear!
 All praise on earth to him be given,
 And glory shout through highest heaven.

"I MUST BE A LOVING CHILD."

1. I must be a loving child,
Gentle, patient, meek, and mild;
Must be honest, simple, true,
In my words and actions, too;

- I must cheerfully obey,
Giving up my will and way;
2. Must not always thinking be
What is pleasantest to me,
But must try kind things to do,
And make others happy, too.
And in all I do or say,
In my lessons, or my play,
3. Must remember God can view
All I think, and all I do;
Glad that he can know I try,
Glad that children such as I,
In our feeble ways and small,
Can serve him who loves us all.

"IN THE SUN, THE MOON, THE SKY."

In the sun, the moon, the sky;

In the little birds who sing—
God is seen in every thing.

4. Another brought from heaven a clear and gentle mind,
 And within the lovely casket the precious gem enshrined;
 Till all who knew her wondered that God should be so good
 As to bless with such a spirit a world so cold and rude.
5. Thus did she grow in beauty, in melody and truth,
 The budding of her childhood just opening into youth;
 And to our hearts yet dearer, every moment than before,
 She became, though we thought fondly heart could not love her more.
6. Then out spake another angel, nobler, brighter than the rest,
 As with strong arm, but tender, he caught her to his breast:
 "Ye have made her all too lovely for a child of mortal race,
 But no shade of human sorrow shall darken o'er her face:
7. "Ye have tuned to gladness only the accents of her tongue,
 And no wail of human anguish shall from her lips be wrung:
 Nor shall the soul that shineth so purely from within
 Her form of earth-born frailty, ever know a sense of sin.
8. "Lulled in my faithful bosom, I will bear her far away,
 Where there is no sin, nor anguish, nor sorrow, nor decay;
 And mine a boon more glorious than all your gifts shall be—
 Lo! I crown her happy spirit with immortality!"

132 LETTERS OF MADGIE TO HER TWIN SISTER, MINNIE, DECEASED.

ANDANTE.

Words from The Presbyterian. Music arr. by A. CULL.

1. Min-nie! Minnie! dear-est sis-ter! Whither have you gone from me? Tell me—have you
2. O! then, shall I no more see you? Will you not come back to me? Will you always gone to heaven, Lit-tle an-gel there to be? Mother, sis-ter, all as-sure me live with Je-sus, Lit-tle an-gel al-ways be? Do you love to live with Je-sus,

That you're up in heaven now, That you're gone to be with Jesus, Tell me, Min-nie, is it so?
In your new and heavenly home? Does he love all little children? Does he say they all may come?

3. Are you happy up in heaven?
Is your home a pleasant place?
Do they love you there as I do?
Do they kiss your angel face?
Tell me, Minnie, O, do tell me
What I wish so much to know—
How you love your home in heaven,
Where, they say, good children go.
4. Tell me, in my midnight slumbers,
When I dream that you have come;
You can then so sweetly tell me
All about your heavenly home.
When I'm sleeping, some bright angel
Stands beside me all the while;
Is it you, my dearest Minnie,
Bending o'er me with that smile?
5. Then you'll surely tell me, Minnie,
For I want to go there, too,
If Jesus calls me; 't will be heaven
To live and love with him and you!
You have gone to heaven before me;
I must wait the Saviour's will;
If years I tarry, will you, Minnie,
Be a little angel still?
6. If you're a little angel always,
I shall know you when I go;
Do they call you "Minnie" up there—
Will they call me "Madgie," too?
Can you not come back, sweet Minnie?
To keep you, do they love you so?
Must you always live with Jesus?
Then I want to live there, too!
7. We oped our eyes on life together,
But yours were first to close in death;
And yet—O! soon may Madgie greet you,
For life is fleeting as a breath!
How sweet 't will be when father, mother,
Brothers, sisters, mourn no more,
But meet in heaven with "Little Minnie,"
Who is "not lost, but gone before!"

GOD IS MY FRIEND.

TUNE—Hebron.

1. God is my friend; I need not fear,
For he is good, and always near,
And he will keep me by his power,
From day to day, from hour to hour.
2. I am a sinner—but I know—
For God's own Word has told me so—
That Jesus Christ came down from heaven,
To die that I might be forgiven.
3. There is one thing that I must dread,
And that is Sin; for God has said,
'That those whom he protects from ill,
Must love to do his holy will.

ROUSE YE AT THE SAVIOUR'S CALL.

TUNE—"Our glad voices," S. S. BELL, No. 2, p. 104.

1. ROUSE ye at the Saviour's call!
Children, rouse ye one and all;
Wake, or soon your souls will fall,
Fall in deep despair.
Woe to him who turns away,
Jesus kindly calls to-day;
Come, O children, while you may,
Raise your souls in prayer.
2. Heard ye not the Saviour cry,
"Turn, O turn, why will ye die!"
And in keenest agony,
Mourn too late your doom!
Haste, for time is rushing on!
Soon the fleeting hour is gone,
The lifted arrow flies anon,
To sink you in the tomb.
3. By the Saviour's bleeding love,
By the joys of heaven above,
Let these words your spirits move;
Quick to Jesus fly!
Come, and save your souls from death,
Haste! escape Jehovah's wrath,
Fly! for life's a fleeting breath,
Soon, O soon you'll die.

 Though Baca's vale be dry,
 And the land yield no supply,
 To a land of corn and wine,
 We'll go on, we'll go on, &c.

 We are come, we are come,
 And, when to Jordan's flood,
 We are come.

 And the waters he'll divide,
 And the ransomed host shall shout,
 We are come, we are come, &c.

 Who have loved, who have loved.
 There friends shall meet again,
 Who have loved.
 Our embraces shall be sweet,
 At the dear Redeemer's feet,
 When we meet to part no more,
 Who have loved, who have loved, &c.
7. Then, with all the happy throng,
 We'll rejoice, we'll rejoice,
 Then, with all the happy throng,
 We'll rejoice.
 Shouting, "Glory to our King,"
 Till the vaults of heaven shall ring,
 And through all eternity,
 We'll rejoice, we'll rejoice, &c.

SOUND THE LOUD ANTHEM

TUNE—"Shout the glad tidings," page 92.

1. * PRAISE to the grace which has triumphed so freely,
Where sin had abounded and darkness had reigned;
Praise to the word, which has spoken so fully
Of blessings in store, which are yet to be gained.
Sound the loud anthem o'er ocean and sea,
The hand of Jehovah is stretched out to thee.
2. For Zebulon's sons yet "shall call to the mountain,"
The people from far to the house of the Lord,
To partake of that altar, and wash in that fountain
Whose virtues their "going" shall herald abroad.
Sound the loud anthem, &c.
3. The light of the promise already is dawning,
For Zion is nursed by the ships of the sea;
Her temples the sailor now gladly is thronging,
Rejoiced from the bondage of sin to be free.
Sound the loud anthem, &c.
4. On the shore, where his footsteps too often were taken
In snares which the wicked had set for his feet,
The Bethel now spreads for his welcome her beacon,
And temples are rising his coming to greet.

THE SUNNY HOURS OF CHILDHOOD.

TUNE—"Dewy Rose of Sharon," S. S. BELL,
No. 2, p. 110.

1. THE sunny, sunny hours of childhood,
How soon, how soon they pass away,
Like flowers, like flowers in the wild wood,
That once bloomed fresh and gay;
But the perfume of the flowers,
And the freshness of the heart,
Live but a few brief hours,
And then for aye depart.
- Cho. The sunny, sunny hours of childhood,
How soon, how soon they pass away,

Like flowers, like flowers in the wild wood,
That once bloomed fresh and gay.

2. The friends, the friends we saw around us,
In boyhood's happy, happy days,
The fairy, fairy links that bound us,
No feeling now displays.
For time hath changed for ever
What youth can not retain,
And we may know, ah! never
Those sunny hours again.
Chorus. The sunny, sunny hours, &c.
3. And yet, and yet again how fondly
The scenes, the scenes of youth we trace;
We hear, we hear a father's counsel,
We see a tearful face.
For a father's pious teachings,
And a mother's holy tears,
Have proved a lamp to guide us,
These many, many years.

TAKE MY HEART, O FATHER! TAKE IT.

TUNE—S. S. BELL, No. 1, p. 66

1. TAKE my heart, O Father! take it,
Make and keep it all thine own;
Let thy Spirit melt and break it,
Turn to flesh this heart of stone.
Heavenly Father, deign to mold it,
In obedience to thy will;
And, as passing years, unfold it,
Keep it meek and childlike still.
2. Father, make it pure and lowly,
Peaceful, kind, and far from strife,
Turning from the paths unboly,
Of this vain and sinful life;
May the blood of Jesus heal it,
And its sins be all forgiven;
Holy Spirit, take and seal it,
Guide it in the path to heaven.

WE LOVE THE SABBATH DAY

TUNE—Happy Land.

1. We love the Sabbath day
Best of the week ;
Here now we meet to pray,
And Jesus seek.
O precious day of rest,
Day which God our Saviour blest,
Day which we love the best,
Best of the week.
2. We love this sacred place—
Dear Sabbath school ;
Here Jesus sheds his grace
On every soul.
O may our hearts ascend
To our dearest Heavenly Friend,
Who loves us to the end,
For evermore.
3. We love the precious truth
God sent from Heaven ;
O may it guide our youth,
While life is given.
Bright may it shine below,
Brighter as we farther go,
Till light eternal glow,
Brightest in Heaven.
4. There filled with joy and peace
We'll sweetly sing ;
Our songs shall never cease
Praising our King.
While endless ages move
We shall feast upon his love,
And seraphs far above
Join in our song.

FREDERICK COLLINS.

CHILDREN OF THE HEAVENLY KING.

TUNE—Pleyel's Hymn.

1. CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing ;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.
2. Ye are traveling home to God.
In the way the fathers trod ;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
3. Sing, ye little flock, and blest :
You near Jesus' throne shall rest ;
There your seats are now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.
4. Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

OH, SUFFER THEM TO COME

TUNE—Shirland

1. "Oh, suffer them to come,"
Once the kind Saviour said,
And gently to his loving arms,
The little ones were led.
2. "Forbid them not," said He,
My ways are pleasant ways ;
Children that fear and love my name,
Are happy all their days.
3. "Of such my kingdom is,"
The lowly and the meek ;
Those who with sweet humility,
All my commandments keep.
4. We come, we come to Thee,
Dear Saviour, and would pray,
That from thy pleasant paths our feet
May never, never stray.

3. Teacher, watch the little lips,
Lispings sweet and pleasant words,
Sometimes their soft utterance trips,
Discord in the notes of birds.
Never deem the labor lost,
Never heed the pains it cost,
Little lips "sometimes proclaim Blessings in a Saviour's name."
4. Teacher, watch the little heart,
Pulsing here with hope and love,
Truthful lessons here impart,
Leading to our home above.
Never deem the labor lost,
Never heed the pains it cost,
Little hearts hereafter may
Control the children of to-day.

THE NOONDAY PRAYER-MEETING.

TUNE—"The Golden Rule."

1. FROM busy toil and heavy care
We turn the weary mind,

- And in the place of noontide prayer
Our sanctuary find.
The midday hour, the noontide hour,
It is the hour of prayer;
Our souls receive renewing power,
For Jesus meets us there.
2. The voice that stilled the stormy waves
On distant Galilee,
Speaks once again, and at the sound,
Retires another sea.
The midday hour, &c.
3. The restless waves of care and strife
Obey the mighty voice;
Peace broods the mighty waters o'er,
And all our souls rejoice.
The midday hour, &c.
4. These heaven-bright hours too soon are past;
Grant, Lord, this greater boon:
A place where worship never ends,
Nor night succeeds to noon.
The midday hour, &c.

And looked this way and that, to fly,
It grieved me so that I must die;
I strove salvation for to buy:
But still I had no union.

4. But when I hated all my sin,
My dear Redeemer took me in,
And with his blood he washed me clean,
And oh! what seasons I have seen
Since first I felt this union.
5. I praised the Lord both night and day,
And went from house to house to pray,
And when I met one on the way,
I always had something to say
About this heavenly union.

THE PRECIOUS SABBATH SCHOOL.

159

Composed by Rev. J. M. Thomas, Pittsburg, Pa.

1. Love-ly is the dawn Of each ris-ing day; Loveli-est the morn Of the Sabbath day:
 2. All the week we spend Full of youth and bliss; Ev-ery changing scene Brings its happi-ness;

- Yet our joys would not be full Had we not the Sabbath school, Had we not the Sabbath school.
 Yet no joys are half as full As we meet at Sabbath school As we meet at Sabbath school.

3. Why do children stay
 From this source of joy?
 What we learn to-day
 Time cannot destroy;
 And we wish the seats were full
 At this precious Sabbath school.

4. Teachers, you are kind
 Thus to point the road,
 Leading me from sin
 To our Father, God;
 And our joys are ever full
 When we are at Sabbath school.

DEAR JESUS, LET THY PITTYING EYE.

"Suffer little children to come unto me,"

TUNE—Balerna.

1. DEAR Jesus, let thy pitying eye
Look kindly down on me:
A sinful, weak, and helpless child,
I come thy child to be.
2. O blessed Saviour, take my heart,
This sinful heart of mine,
And wash it clean in every part;
Make me a child of thine.
3. My sins, though great, thou canst forgive,
For thou hast died for me;
Amazing love! Help me, O God,
Thine own dear child to be.

4. For thou hast said, "Forbid them not:
Let children come to me:"
I hear thy voice, and now, dear Lord,
I come thy child to be. LEILA LEE

WE MEET AGAIN.

TUNE—"The morning light is breaking."

1. WE meet again in gladness,
And thankful voices raise;
'To God, our heavenly Father,
We'll tune our grateful praise:
'Tis his kind hand that kept us
Through all the changing year;
His love it is that brings us
Again to worship here.
2. We'll thank him for the Sabbath,
This day of holy rest;
And for the blessed Bible,
The book that we love best;
For Sabbath-schools and teachers,
To us so kindly given,
To guide us in the pathway
That leads to joy in heaven.
3. We'll thank him for our country,
The land our fathers trod;
For liberty of conscience,
And right to worship God.
O Lord! our heavenly Father,
Accept the praise we bring,
And tune our hearts and voices
Thy glorious name to sing.
4. Soon may thy gracious sceptre
Extend to every land,
And all as willing subjects
Submit to thy command.
Send forth the gospel tidings,
And hasten on the day
When every isle and nation
Shall own Messiah's sway.

 That Jesus has come in the name of the Lord;

And shouting with gladness, their chief honors bring,
 Hosannas and blessings to Jesus their King!

OUR HEARTS ARE YOUNG AND JOYOUS.*

Words by Mrs. E. I. KNOWLES.

Music by S. J. VAIL.

 2. The smil-ing sun of sun-mer, The blooming buds and flowers, The gentle rain de-

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'OUR HEARTS ARE YOUNG AND JOYOUS.' It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff, aligned with the notes.

made it ver - y fair, God, in his ten - der kind - ness, Hath made it very fair.
goodness nev - er ends, All these good gifts remind us God's goodness never ends.

3. O can we e'er forget him
Who is so good and kind?
No; rather would we love him
With all our heart and mind.
But we can never love him
Until our hearts are clean;
The precious blood of Jesus
Must wash them first from sin.
4. We know he died to save us,
We know he lives above;
We know that every moment
He watches us with love.
We know that he has called us
To early come to him;
We know that he is willing
The youngest to redeem.
5. We know the harps of heaven
Would sound a gladder strain;
"There's joy among the angels"
When one repents of sin.
O help us, then, dear Saviour,
To give our hearts to thee;
Let us, in youth's glad morning,
Thy loved disciples be!
6. And when upon our foreheads
The silver locks shall fall;
Or early comes the shadow,
Which comes alike to all,

Still safe upon thy bosom
Our spirits shall recline,
And 'mid the joys of heaven
We shall be ever thine!

SISTER, THOU WAST MILD AND LOVELY.

TUNE—"Mount Vernon."

1. SISTER, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening
When it floats among the trees,
2. Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in the grave so low;
Thou no more wilt join our number,
Thou no more our songs shalt know.
3. Dearest sister, thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
4. Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in heaven, with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Arr. by A. CULL.

He dai-ly pro-vides me with raiment and food, What-e'r he de-ries me is meant for my good.
 His fear he will teach me, my heart he'll re-nov, And tho' I'm so sin-ful, My sins he'll sub-due.
 In death's gloomy val-ley no e-vil I'll dread, "For I will be with thee," my Shepherd has said.
 Then praise him, with an-gels, to bright harps of gold, And ev-er and ev-er his glo-ry be-hold.

THE MORNING OF REST.

 How sweet is the Sabbath, the morning of rest!
 The day of the week which I surely love best;
 The morning my Saviour arose from the tomb,
 And took from the grave all its terror and gloom

 O let me be thoughtful and prayerful to-day,
 And not spend a minute in trifling or play;
 Remembering these seasons were graciously given
 To teach me to seek, and prepare me for heaven.

TESTIMONIALS of the HORACE WATERS PIANOS & MELODEONS

Having used one of the Horace Waters' Pianos in my family for three years, I am prepared to pronounce it unequaled in power, fulness and sweetness of tone, by any instrument which I have met with in the West.

REV. JAS. W. STEWART, Connorsville, Ind.

The Piano is just the one my wife and daughter desired. In tone it is richer, softer and sweeter than any I have heard for many years. There are many instruments in this place from different establishments, but it is conceded by the many who have heard it, and all who have played on it, that it is superior to any ever brought to this place. A number of ladies from other places have pronounced it one of the most delightful instruments to which they have ever listened. I must, in honesty, say that it is far better than I had hoped or expected to get.

THOS. W. FLY, Crawfordsville, Ind.

To the many flattering testimonials published, we feel bound to add another from ourselves. We have procured for one of our friends in this city, one of Waters' Pianos, and we can say that the instrument received is all that can be desired for elegance and quality.—Pensacola Observer.

If any of our friends want a NUMBER ONE Piano, at a reduced price, they can find it at the establishment of Horace Waters, 333 Broadway, New York. Jas. H. Moss, Esq., of this city, has had in use one of the Waters Pianos for over a year, and it has given great satisfaction, and it cost less than a similar instrument would in any establishment in the United States.—Liberty (Missouri) Tribune.

The Piano meets my expectations in every regard, that is, it is pronounced by musicians to be a good instrument.

WM. H. GREEN, Clinton, La.

This is to certify that I have had one of the Horace Waters Pianos about four years, which has proved to be an excellent instrument, and grows better with use.

J. C. WICKER, Yonkers, N. Y.

MR. HORACE WATERS—It is now more than two years since we received one of your Pianos. The instrument is admired by all, and has been highly commended by those who are good judges in such matters. For sweetness of tone we think it cannot be surpassed.

MR. & MRS. S. N. ROBINSON, Whitneys Point, N. Y.

HORACE WATERS, Esq.—The Piano you forwarded to my daughter is pronounced by those who claim to be judges a first-rate one. I like the tone very much myself, and my daughter is much gratified with the instrument, and pleased with it in every particular. This being the case, the "rest of mankind," and womankind too, should be content.

A. G. RODGES, Covington, Ky.

I am happy to say that the Piano I bought from you in November, 1856, has given me entire satisfaction, and is much admired both for its workmanship and melodiousness of tone. It seems to keep in tune well. WALTER BICKER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

MR. WATERS—Dear Sir: I received the Melodeon safe and in good order; am well pleased with the external appearance, and the tone also.

REV. HIRAM HAYNES, Preston Hollow, N. J.

The Melodeon you sent me is in good order. I am now fully prepared to say that the instrument is highly satisfactory.

J. L. SMITH, Pioga, N. Y.

The Melodeon has safely arrived. I feel obliged to you for your liberal discount.
