

1866

AMERICAN SPORTSMAN'S SONG. TO THE AMERICAN SPORTSMEN.

MAY 17 1866
Music Department

WORDS BY
HENRY ALTENBRAND

MUSIC BY
C. MORTIMER WISKE.

SONG. 60 cts.

BROOKLYN, N.Y.

MARCH. 60 cts.

Published by GEO. MOLINEUX, 40 Fourth St.

A TELLER, LITHOGR. BROOKLYN, N.Y.

To the Sportsmen of America.

3

American Sportsman's Song.

Words by HENRY ALTENBRAND.

Music by C. MORTIMER WISKE.

INTRODUCTION.

Musical notation for the introduction, consisting of two staves (treble and bass clef) in common time. The first staff begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking and a triplet of eighth notes. The second staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking and a triplet of eighth notes. The piece concludes with a forte (f) dynamic marking and a series of chords in the bass clef.

Musical notation for the first verse, including a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "1. How jol . ly the life of a sports . man gay, With his
2. He wel comes a sports . man with true de . light, And his
3. The fox is a poach . er, so is the man, Who". The piano accompaniment includes a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic marking.

Musical notation for the second verse, including a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "rod and gun and faith . ful hound. The for . est he ram . bles hand in friend . ship he ex . tends. Hail fel . low, well met, so kills the game be . fore the time. The one we shoot when".

day by day, To seek the joys that in na - ture a - bound. He gay and bright, Round the ro - yal spread loud laugh - ter he sends. Tis ever we can The other con - sign to a war - mer clime. To pro - brings down the birds that are swift of wing, When the young have flown the on - ly a sportsman who pleasure finds, In the woods and streams near tect the game to de - tect the man, Is the aim of our club so no thers ripe. The deer and the hare to his cab - in he'll bring With the mind ing the toil. The sport is an i - dler he's not of our kind He strong and ground. We wish it all power and we'll do what we can To u - rit.

quail the par - tridge the wood - cock and snipe hunts not for game, but on - ly for spoils nite it for ev - er and ev - er to stand

CHORUS *

SORANO ALTO.

TENOR. BASS.

PIANO.

Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Oer the field and the snow With his good dog by his side. f Ly . ing in a boat, ff Rea dy to shoot, When the

his side

ff

* When sung by male voices 1st. Bass take alto part, and 2nd Tenor Soprano part. 181 4 menks in his stools do ride If the weather be cold Why better than gold Is the flask which he filled by the way And jolly is he Where ev - er he be, The sportsman so gal-lant and gay, so gay.

181-4