The first system of the musical score consists of six staves. The top five staves are vocal lines for a voice labeled 'Ghost', and the bottom two staves are piano accompaniment. The music is in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The lyrics are: 'Ghost: As it was in the be - gin - ning,' repeated across the staves with some variations in phrasing and line endings.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano parts. It consists of six staves. The top five staves are vocal lines for the 'Ghost' voice, and the bottom two staves are piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'and is now, and ev - er shall be, and ev - er shall' followed by 'now, and ev - er shall be, shall' on the next line, then 'and is now, and ev - er shall be, and ev - er' followed by '- ning, and is now, and ev - er shall be, and ev - er shall be,' on the next line, and finally 'and is now, and ev - er shall be,' on the last line. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support for the vocal lines.
