Revised Version 1.3

Published by Jakob Lehmann, Berlin
Non-Commercial Copying Welcome.

This edition was prepared from manuscript parts, preserved in the Uppsala Universitetsbibliotek, as a part of the famous Düben Collection with the signature Vmhs 3:1. This source is one of two sources where one can find this great expressive work. The other – as part of the legendary Altbachisches Archiv – can be found at the Singakademie zu Berlin.

My intention was to follow the original as far as possible, whereas the text and the notation itself was modernized in some cases. Accidentals, slurs etc. have only been added when obviously necessary and are marked (accidentals in brackets, slurs dotted etc.) .

My heartfelt thanks to Anders Edling from the Department of Manuscripts and Music at the Uppsala University Library for the kind permission to publish this edition.
