BRADBURY'S

GOLDEN SHOWER

OF

S. S. MELODIES:

A NEW COLLECTION OF

HYMNS AND TUNES

For the Sabbath School.

BY

WM. B. BRADBURY,

AUTHOR OF "THE GOLDEN CHAIN," "ORIOLE," "THE CAROL," AND VARIOUS OTHER MUSICAL WORKS.

NEW YORK:

PUBLISHED BY IVISON, PHINNEY & CO., Nos. 48 AND 50 WALLER STREET.

WM. B. BRADBURY, No. 421 Broome Street.

No. 3. GOLDEN SHOWER.

Entered according to act of Congress in A. D. 1863, by Wm. B. Bradbury, in the Clerk's office of the U. S. Dist. Court for the District of New Jersey.

THE GOLDEN CHAIN.—ITS PROMINENT FEATURES.

"THE GOLDEN CHAIN" differs from other books of its class in that both music and hymns are mostly new. It is not a republication of old and very familiar pieces, although the best of these are here found, but a compilation of the most popular melodies that have been for years accumulating in the author's repertoire. These melodies are in the popular vein, the refrains, (of which there are many) bold and vigorous, and easily caught, and the words for the most part, of that stirring, life-like character that the present times demand.

Alluding to Mr. Bradbury's facilities for making popular singing books, the editor of the N. Y. Independent, on his return from a short visit to the residence of the author, talks thus to his young readers:

"We wish we could give all Sabbath-school children a peep into a beautiful cottage in New Jersey, where, in a cosy study, heaped up with music books in every language, and hung round with sketches and mementoes of composers, Mr. Bradbury sits hour after hour, and sometimes far into the night, with his piano before him, his pen and paper in hand, composing and testing those charming melodies which are to ring from the happy voices of children in all the Sabbath-schools of the land. His is a rare gift and a rare pleasure, in being able thus to minister to the training of the young in "the service of song." Much as he has accomplished in this line, never has been more successful than in this new book of Sabbath-school melodies. We have heard several of them sung, and know how well they ring in the Sabbath-school."

Mr. JEREMIAH JOHNSON, Jr., Superintendent of the Lee Avenue Sunday-School, Brooklyn, N. Y. (a school of fifteen hundred pupils,) in a letter to the author of THE GOLDEN CHAIN, says:

"MY DEAR FRIEND MR. BRADBURY: You are at liberty to use anything that I have said, or may say, about "THE GOLDEN CHAIN," for I do not think I can commend it too highly. We have introduced it into our school with great success. It improves with use. Yours is the only book used in our school, except "Lee Avenue Collection." It is very popular. It is, in my opinion, just what a Sabbath-school music book should be. It contains more gems for children than any other book (not excepting those of larger size) that has come under my observation. We have invariably a great number of visitors present at our school Sabbath afternoons and evenings, and they all express themselves highly pleased with the music of "THE GOLDEN CHAIN." I always recommend it when my advice is asked (which is very often) as to which is the best book.

"It appears as if we had only commenced culling out the gems. I think that your book is destined to have a very happy effect in this particular: it will do away with the practice introduced into many Sabbath-schools of adapting sacred words to the low negro melodies so common in our streets. I am sure that a superintendent cannot be found, who, after hearing the beautiful pieces I have mentioned, will longer say there is any necessity for such a habit, which I for one have always condemned. The price of "THE GOLDEN CHAIN," brings it within reach of all, another great desideratum."

"Very truly yours in the good cause, JEREMIAH JOHNSON, Jr."

THE GOLDEN CHAIN may be obtained in any quantity of IYISON, PHINNEY & Co., New York, or WM. B. BRADBURY, 421 Broome street, New York, and of booksellers generally throughout the country. Retail price, paper covers, 15 cents each; wholesale price, $12 per hundred; retail price in board, $20 cents each,—in fine cloth, 30 cents.

P R E F A C E.

"WHAT! another new music book for Sunday Schools? We thought the GOLDEN CHAIN was so popular that no school would adopt it would soon lay it aside or allow another to take its place." So we, the editor of GOLDEN CHAIN and GOLDEN SHOWER, thought, and still think and believe. But friends, into whose mouths we have put the above exclamation (because some there are, doubtless, who will think it, if they do not say it, please remember that many Sunday Schools sing a great deal. Singing, with them, is an exercise that they find beneficial in many respects: 1. As an attraction; it draws into the school many who would otherwise spend the sacred hours of the Sabbath in the street. 2. It is a most delightful and successful means of communicating Gospel truths. We may often sing the Gospel into hearts that would otherwise be closed to its teachings. Sweet music opens these hearts, and bearing upon its angel wings "Heavenly Breaths"—precious words of "Invitation"—thoughts of "The Cross" and the "The beautiful Land," which is "The Christian's dear Home," it awakens emotions of tenderness, love and contrition. 3. It is an exercise of devotion, of praise and prayer. Many of the hymns are prayers, others songs of praise; others songs of thanks for the blessed Sabbath day, "The best day of all the week," and for the dear "Sabbath School," etc., etc. And when our children can be interested in such pieces as "Just as I am," "Yes, Jesus loves me," "What shall I do to be saved?" "The Lord is my Shepherd," and "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden," we cannot but believe that, if we are faithful, the Holy Spirit will open their hearts to receive and love that blessed Saviour, so that they shall mean what they say when they sing, "I ought to love my Saviour, He loves me well, I know." And may we not joyfully respond,

"Sing them, dear children, sing them still,
These sweet and holy songs;
Oh, let the psalms of Zion's Hill
Be heard from youthful tongues."

Many schools have thus adopted music as their right-hand companion and helper in the work of teaching, and, having introduced the GOLDEN CHAIN when it was first issued, and sung it through pretty thoroughly are now asking for additional new music and hymns. To such we offer THE GOLDEN SHOWER, of new, sparkling, and, if we mistake not, refreshing melodies.

Most of the hymns have been written expressly for this work, by different authors, and neither pains nor expense have been spared in enriching its pages with the purest and best of their productions.

The music, as will be observed, is also mostly new. It has been composed for and to the hymns, and in attractiveness and popularity will, we think, be found fully "up to the standard" already set in former successful works. And may these melodies cheer and strengthen the heart of many a faithful Sunday School teacher, while the dear youth find their justest joys in attuning their voices to the Songs of Zion.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE MOVEMENT.—It will be observed that directions, partly in figures, are given to the different pieces at their beginning, as "24—two to the measure," etc., the meaning of which is Take a string and attach a light weight to one end of it, holding the other between the thumb and finger, at a distance of twenty-four inches from the weight, set the string in motion, oscillating like the pendulum of a clock. Two of these vibrations mark the time of a measure of six pieces of music. The explanation being in brief thus: "String 24 inches long—two vibrations to the measure." "20—two to each quarter note," means that the string should be held twenty inches from the weight, and then one vibration to each quarter note will indicate the exact movement of that piece. By this simple process, and without the necessity of a Metronome, the teacher can "time" the different pieces at home, so that in taking them up in his class he will not be under the necessity of guessing at the proper movement. The little pocket circular tape measure we have found very convenient for this purpose, the case serving for the weight.

NOTICE OF COPYRIGHT.

With the exception of four or five of the old familiar tunes, such as St. Thomas, Silver St., China, &c., the Music and POETRY of THE GOLDEN SHOWER have all been composed, written and arranged expressly for it, and having been "Entered according to Act of Congress" by the author, is his copyright property. Persons desirous of reprinting one or more pieces, from either words or music or both, MUST FIRST OBTAIN PERMISSION OF THE AUTHOR; as any reprint for any purpose whatever without having first obtained such permission would be an infringement upon the copyright, for which the person so trespassing is liable and will be held accountable.

ho - ly Sab - bath day, 'Tis the best day of all the week.

The musical score consists of two systems of music. Each system has a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The first system contains the lyrics 'ho - ly Sabbath day, This ho - ly Sab - bath day, Let us keep, well keep this'. The second system contains the lyrics 'ho - ly Sab - bath day, 'Tis the best day of all the week.' The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with a steady rhythm.

2 Be it ever our care in that place of prayer,
Our spirits above to raise :
Let us try to drive out each vain worldly thought,

From God's holy courts of praise ;
Let no folly there intrude,
Naught to mar our tranquil mood,
Naught but what is true and good,
On this Sabbath day. Chorus.

2 And our joy is full when the dear Sabbath school,
Throws open its friendly door ;
For we're sure there to find our teachers so kind,
With riches of sacred lore.

As our voices all we raise
In sweet songs of love and praise,
May we tread in wisdom's ways,
On this Sabbath day. Chorus.

4 And when we go back to our week-day track,
Our lessons, and work, and play ;
Let us hold ever dear the counsels we hear,
On the holy Sabbath day.

And remember that God's eye
Ever watches from on high,
And each day he is as nigh,
As the Sabbath day. Chorus.

4.

Lift ye saints, lift up your eyes,
Now to glory see him rise;
Hosts of angels on the road,
Hail and sing th'incarnate God,

ON A CHRISTMAS MORNING. 2D HYMN.

- 1 Children can you truly tell,
Do you know the story well,
Every girl and every boy,
Why the angels sing for joy,
On the Christmas morning?
- 2 Yes we know the story well,
Listen, now, and hear us tell
Every girl and every boy,
Why the angels sing for joy
On the Christmas morning.
- 3 Shepherds sat upon the ground,
Fleecy flocks were scattered round,

When the brightness filled the sky,
And a song was heard on high,
On the Christmas morning.

- 4 "Joy and peace" the angels sang,
Far the pleasant echoes rang,
"Peace on earth, to men good will,"
Hark! the angels sing it still,
On the Christmas morning.

- 5 "Peace" our every heart shall fill,
"Peace on earth, to men good will!"
Hear us sing the angel's song,
And the pleasant notes prolong
On the Christmas morning.

Death's waves shall not affright me,
 Although they're deeper than the grave,
 If Jesus will stand by me,
 I'll calmly ride on Jordan's wave.
 His word hath calmed the ocean,
 His lamp hath cheered the gloomy vale;
 Oh, may this friend be with me,
 When thro' the gates of death I sail!

5.

Soon, soon th'archangel's trumpet
 Shall shake the globe from pole to pole,
 And all the wheels of nature
 Shall in a moment cease to roll:
 Then shall I see my Saviour,
 With shining ranks of angels come,
 To execute his vengeance,
 And take his ransomed people home.

THE MERCY-SEAT. L. M. with Chorus.

OBERLIN. L. M.

O Jesus, full of truth and grace, O all-atoning Lamb of God! I wait to see thy glorious face, I seek redemption in thy blood.

The musical score consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has two flats (Bb and Eb), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff.

- 2 Thou art the anchor of my hope :
The faithful promise I receive :
Surely thy death shall raise me up.
For thou hast died that I might live.
- 3 Satan, with all his arts, no more,
He from the gospel hope can move ;
I shall receive the gracious power,
And find the pearl of perfect love.

SECOND HYMN.

- 1 Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord,
All that has been amiss forgive ;
Help us to feed upon thy word,
And let thy truth within us live,
- 2 As all the hours of life, now gone,
Have been with mercy richly crowned,
So let that mercy still flow on,
Forever sure as time rolls round.

THE SHEPHERD OF SOULS. Words by Rev. WM. HUNTER.

1 The Shepherd of souls, In his life-book unrolls The names of all the lambs of his flock The juvenile bands are engraved on his hands As if they were engraved on the rock.

2 He looks in his love
From his watch-tower above.
The flocks he bought with blood to survey,
And points with his rod,
To the pastures of God—
And guards them there from going astray

3 The little ones share
In his tenderest care;
The lambs are his peculiar delight;
At noon they are laid
In the cool of the shade,
And nestle in his bosom at night.

4 Great Shepherd, be near,
To deliver from fear,
And shelter from the heat and the cold;
That, safe from alarms,
We may rest in thine arms,
And never more depart from thy fold.

Will you go! will you go, To join them in praise un - to God and the Lamb?

2. SCHOLARS.

And may all the children unite with that throng?
 Shall they to the choir celestial belong?
 Oh! say, may our voices with seraphim chime,
 And join the redeemed in that music sublime?
 May we go,
 And join the redeemed in that music sublime?

3. TEACHERS.

Yes, come with your young hearts to Jesus, and pray
 That early he'll help you to find the good way!
 Oh! he'll meet you, dear ones, with his own smile of
 And appoint you a place in the mansions above. I love
 You may come,
 He'll give you a place in the mansions above,

4. ALL.

O Heaven! with joy from this world of distress,
 Where sin is a burden, and trials oppress—
 From the wilderness drear, where uncertain we roam
 We look to that land where the soul has a home,
 We will go,
 Will go to that land where the soul has a home.

 "ASLEEP IN JESUS"

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep; A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes,
 2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet To be for such a slumber meet! With holy confidence to sing, Thine death hath lost its venom'd sting.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
 Whose waking is supremely blest;
 No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour,
 Which manifests the Saviour's power.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

PRAYER.

From the 'JUBILER,' by permission

1 Lord! when we bend before thy throne. And our confessions pour, O may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we deplore.

2 Our contrite spirits pitying see:
True penitence impart;
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.

3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
O let our wills resign;
And not a thought our bosom share,
Which is not wholly thine.

JUST AS I AM.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. Just as I am—with-out one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me,
2. Just as I am—and wait-ing not To rid my soul of one dark blot,

And that thou bidd'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come!
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come!

3.

Just as I am—though tossed about
With many a conflict many a doubt,
Fightings within, and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come!

4.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind—
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come!

5.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise, I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

6.

Just as I am, thy love, unknown,
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come!

THE BLUE BIRD'S TEMPERANCE SONG.

20 - Two to the measure.

Words by Mrs. M. A. KIDDER.

1. Oh! I'm a hap-py blue bird, sober, as you see; For pure cold water's the drink for me:— I take a drop here, and a - no - ther drop there And

The musical score consists of two systems. Each system has a vocal line on a single treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The first system contains the first line of lyrics, and the second system contains the second line. The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines in both hands.

make the woods ring with my temperance air. O dont de - fy it,

8va

This system of music features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single treble clef staff with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. The lyrics are "make the woods ring with my temperance air. O dont de - fy it,". The piano accompaniment consists of two staves: a right-hand treble clef staff and a left-hand bass clef staff. The right-hand staff has a wavy line above it labeled "8va", indicating an octave transposition. The music is in a simple, folk-like style with a clear melody and harmonic support.

Bet-ter, bet-ter try it, Wa-ter, puro water from the spring be - low,

8va

This system continues the musical score. The vocal line is on a single treble clef staff with the lyrics "Bet-ter, bet-ter try it, Wa-ter, puro water from the spring be - low,". The piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clef). The right-hand staff has a wavy line above it labeled "8va". The music maintains the same key signature and time signature as the first system, with a consistent melodic and harmonic structure.

REPEAT IN CHORUS

Musical score for 'The Blue Birds'. It features a vocal line at the top and a piano accompaniment below. The vocal line is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 2/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves, treble and bass clef. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Better, better try it, Better, better try it, Try it sir? try it sir? do.

- 2 There is little Bobby-Linkum sitting on a tree
He's singing a temperance song as you see,
'Tis "Bobolink, take a drink, take a drink to-day,
And Mister Bobolink, not a cent to pay!"
Chorus. Oh! don't defy it, better, &c.
- 3 As down among the lillies every day I go,
To take my bath in the lake below,
If I chance to meet a drunkard all so pale and thin,
I say sir, "how d'ye do?" and sir, "pray walk in!"
Chorus. Oh! don't defy it, better try it, &c.
- 4 Come rise up with the songsters, early in the morn,
See the thirsty grass and the waving corn—
How their emerald faces brighten in the dazzling sun
While catching the dew drops one by one.
Chorus. Oh! don't defy it, better try it, &c.
- 5 All up above the mountains all below the sea,
Will with my temperance song agree—
That for man in his toil, or the bird upon her nest,
Cold water, cold water, the purest and best!
Chorus. Oh! don't defy it, better try it, &c.

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

12—One to each quarter note.

There's a beautiful land Where sweet flowers ever bloom, A land all filled with odors of richest perfume. When life's journey is end-ed. All good children there will stand With the white-robed saints in glory in that beautiful land.

CHORUS
Then come pretty angels, on love's pinions come, With music, sweet music to welcome us home; With your bright crowns of glory, and your golden harps in hand. O! welcome the children to this beautiful land. A harp tuned by an angel, in every little hand; And they sing God's praise forever, in the Beautiful Land. C&O.

In the Beautiful Land, our dear Saviour we shall see,
We shall hear his words of welcome.—“ Little children come to me.”
Then around His throne in glory, with our crowns and harps we'll stand,
And we'll praise the Lamb forever in that Beautiful
Land. C&O.

But the Beautiful Land is not for little ones alone,
There is room enough for every one, around the Father's throne.
Then join us friends and parents, take the children by the hand,
And we'll journey on together, to the Beautiful Land.
C&O.

Moderato. 22—One to each quarter note.

WM. B. BRADBURY

1 Through a strange country as pilgrims we stray, For we're go-ing, go-ing, go-ing home.
On-ward we go through the swift fading day, For we're go-ing, go-ing, go-ing home.

Wen-ry our march since the fair ro-zy dawn, Long is the dis-tance we've trav-eled since morn.

But we re-gret not the hours that are gone, For we're going, go-ing, go-ing home.

2 Why should we gather earth's withering flowers,
When we're going, going, going home:
Soon shall we tread the fair Heavenly bowers
For we're going, going, going home;
There, fragrant garlands immortal will bloom,
Untouched by blight, and unshadowed by gloom,
And never strewing the path to the tomb;
For we're going, going, going home.

3 Hark! 'tis the storm crashing loud enough the picee,
We are going, going, going home.
See the faint glimmering light that now shines
We are going, going, going home.

Little we heed the wild roar of the wind,
Onward we still look, and never behind:
This thought alone gives sweet peace to our mind
We're going, going, going home.

4 Soon we shall hear the glad welcoming voice,
We are going, going, going home:
Bidding our spirits forever rejoice.
We are going, going, going home:
Home to our mansion prepared in the sky,
Where we can never more suffer or die.
O! let our anthem of praise ring on high
We are going, going, going home.

2 Sing them when Sabbath Schools are met,
 At y your young voices Schools,
 Your Sabbath evening melodies
 To their Redeemer's praise.
 So shall each unforgotten word,
 When distant far you roam,
 Call back your heart which once it sturred,
 To childhood's blessed home.

3 Sing them, dear children, many a saint
 These holy strains have sung.
 These walls of ours have echoed them
 From many a pilgrim's tongue.
 Oh sing them in a land like this,
 Where pilgrim's steps have roved;
 Oh children sing these melodies—
 The songs our fathers loved.

EARTH'S SHADY YEARS*

SECOND HYMN.

1 Earth's shady years will soon be o'er—
 Heaven's blissful morn arise,
 And sorrow's night will then no more
 O'ercloud our weeping eyes.
 Then will the Lord of life and love
 Unveil his beaming face;
 And a'zer from our sight remove
 The bright celestial rays.

2 The precious jewels Jesus sent
 To be our solace here,
 Were only for a season lent,
 They're abiding brighter there.
 And we shall soon their lovely forms

In glorious robes behold;
 Shall sing with them in angel's songs,
 With harps of shining gold.

3 In that best place no loved ones part—
 No mourning there, no sighs;
 For God himself will gently wipe
 All sorrow from their eyes.
 There everlasting peace and joy,
 And transport shall be thine;
 Praise shall our utmost powers employ,
 In melody divine.

If designed for a concert, the above piece may be sung with good effect as a Song and Chorus playing the harmony parts only as an accompaniment. The Chorus should commence with the unison passage, "To the land where no night is," &c. If three pure and well-balanced voices can be located in an adjoining room, or at a sufficient distance (out of sight) from the choir and audience to represent "Music in the air," and take up the Trio, "Speed away," at the close of the unison passage, singing it quite through as a Trio, the effect will be much increased. In such an arrangement the Chorus bass may stop at the 5th measure, upper brace, indicated by a star. This latter part may then be repeated by the choir as written.

NOW WE LIFT OUR TUNEFUL VOICES.

11—Two to the measure.

For S. S. Celebration.*

From ORIOLA by permission.

1. Now we lift our tune-ful voi-ces, In a new me-lo-dious song;
2. Ye who join our ce-le-bra-tion, Sweetest me-lo-dies em-ploy;

While each youthful heart re-joi-ces, To be-hold the gath'ring throng,
Bow with us in a-dor-a-tion, Filled with ho-ly, heavenly joy.

FULL CHORUS.

As we lift our waving banners To the breezes soft and mild

NOW WE LIFT OUR TUNEFUL VOICES. Concluded. 81

May the tide of glad ho-san-nas Flow from bosoms un-do- filed.

3. 4.

Teachers kind, whose care unceasing,
 All must honor and approve;
 Thanks for labor still unceasing,
 Heaven reward your works of love.
Chorus. As we lift, etc.

Thanks to God for every blessing,
 Which his bounteous hand bestows;
 All on earth that's worth possessing,
 From that hand incessant flows.
Chorus. As we lift, etc.

CHINA. C. M.

SWAN. Arranged.

1 Why do we mourn departing friends, Or shake at death's alarms? 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends, To call them to his arms.
 2 Are we not tending upward too, As fast as time can move? Nor should we wish the hours more slow. To keep us from our love.

2 Why should we tremble to convey
 Their bodies to the tomb?
 There, the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
 And left a long perfume.

3 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
 And bid our kindred rise;
 Awake, ye nations under ground!
 Ye saints! ascend the skies.

Slow and pensive

The musical score is written for a four-part vocal ensemble (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system contains the first two lines of lyrics. The second system contains the next two lines. The third system contains the final two lines. The piano accompaniment is in the left hand, and the vocal parts are in the right hand. The tempo and mood are indicated as 'Slow and pensive'.

1 We speak of the realms of the blest, Of that coun-try so bright and so
2 We speak of the pathways of gold, Of its walls deck'd with jew-els so fair, And oft are its glo-ries con-fess'd; But what must it be to be rare, Of its won-ders and pleasures un-told; But what must it be to be there, To be there, To be there, But what must it be to be there.

3 We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation and care,—
From trials without and within;
But what must it be to be there?

4 We speak of its service of love,
Of the robes which the glorified wear,
Of the church of the first-born above;
But what must it be to be there?

5 O Lord, midst our gladness or woe,
Still for heaven our spirits prepare,
And shortly we also shall know,
And feel, what it is to be there.

6 Then anthems of praise we will sing
When safe in that heavenly rest,
To Jesus, our Saviour and King,
Who reigns in those realms of the blest.

1 } Lord I hear of show'rs of blessings, Thou art scattering full and free, {
 Show'rs the thirsty land re fresh'ing, Let some droppings fall on me. { E ven me.

E - ven me, Let some droppings fall on me.

2.
 Pass me not, O God, my Father,
 Sinful though my heart may be ;
 Thou might'st leave me, but the rather
 Let thy mercy light on me,—
 Even me.

3.
 Pass me not, O gracious Saviour
 Let me live and cling to thee;
 Fain I'm longing for thy favor;
 Whilst thou'rt calling, call for me—
 Even me.

4.
 Pass me not, O mighty Spirit,
 Thou canst make the blind to see.
 Witnesses of Jesus' merit,
 Speak the word of power to me—
 Even me.

5.
 Love of God, so pure and changeless;
 Blood of Christ, so rich and free;
 Grace of God, so rich and boundless,
 Magnify it all in me,—
 Even me.

6.
 Pass me not, thy lost one bringing;
 Bind my heart, O Lord, to thee;
 Whilst the streams of life are springing
 Blessing others, oh, bless me,—
 Even me.

RE-UNION.

B.—One to each quarter note.

"I SHALL GO TO HIM." David.

1 Meet a - gain! yes, we shall meet a - gain, Tho' now we part in 2 Soon the days of ab - sence shall be o'er, And thou shalt weep no pain! His peo - ple all To - geth - er Christ shall call. Hal - le -

- lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, praise the Lord.

3.

Now I go with gladness to our home,
With gladness thou shalt come;
There I will wait
To meet thee at Heaven's gate.
Hallelujah!

4.

Dearest! what delight again to share
Our sweet communion there!
To walk among
The holy ransomed throng.
Hallelujah!

5.

Not to mortal sight can it be given
To know the bliss of Heaven;
But thou shalt be
Soon there, and sing with me,
Hallelujah!

6.

Meet again! yes, we shall meet again,
Though now we part in pain!
Together all
His people Christ shall call.
Hallelujah!

LEARNING OF JESUS.

4—One to each quarter note.

Words by MISS H. MEYER.

1 Haste we now with eager feet, Teachers, scholars gladly greet, On this Sabbath morn we meet, That we may learn of Jesus

2 Help us, Lord, throughout this day,
While we sing and while we pray,
Let thy Spirit with us stay,
While here we learn of Jesus.

3 Lord our hearts are full of sin,
Let thy Spirit enter in,
Make them pure, all white and clean,
And full of love to Jesus.

4 As we learn thy righteous will,
Help us, Holy Father, still,
Each commandment to fulfill,
And give the praise to Jesus.

Sprightly. 7—One to each quarter note.

1 Look on us kindly, friends, Met here to-day, Here from all worldly joys Turn we away,
2 Six days of toil and work Our portion are; Often our hearts must know Something of care:

We ask not wealth or fame, This boon we pray: Teach us the Savior's love Each Sabbath day.
But from our sorrows all We turn a-way, To learn the Savior's love Each Sabbath day.

Teach us the Sa-
vior's love Each Sabbath day.
To learn the Sa-
vior's love Each Sabbath day.

3 Follies beset our path,
Dangers surround;
Often our feet must tread
Enchanted ground,
But from all vanity
Turn we away,
To learn the Savior's love
Each Sabbath day.

4 Look on us kindly, friends;
Watch us with care;
Aid us with counsels good,
Help us by prayer.

Guide back our wandering feet,
When'er we stray;
Teach us the Savior's love
Each Sabbath day.

THE INVITATION.

17—Two to the measure.

Words by K. G.

Arranged from a melody of the "CONTRAHANDS."

1. "Let lit - tle child'en come to me" The Lord the Saviour said,

Give us now thy bless - ing dear, Heaven is our home.
 Fa - ther, Sav - iour, glo - rious King, Praise, praise the Lord.

2.

Why should we wait for life to fade
 And earthly joys grow dim?
 When they the happiest are made.
 Who early go by him,
 Blessed are the words we hear,
 Saviour to thy arms we come,
 Keep our souls from doubt and fear,
 Heaven is our home. Hallelujah, &c.

3.

O! let us not a moment wait,
 But haste to meet our friend;
 The way is narrow—straight the gate
 But blissful is the end.
 Precious are the words we hear,
 Saviour, to thy arms we come,
 Loving thee with hearts sincere,
 Heaven is our home. Hallelujah, &c.

18—Two to the measure.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. { I'm but a stranger here: Heaven is my home: }
 { Earth is a desert drear: Heaven is my home: } Dangers and sorrows stand

Round me on ev - ery hand, Heaven is my Fa - ther - land, Heaven is my home.

What though the tempests rage,
 Heaven is my home;
 Short is my pilgrimage:
 Heaven is my home;
 And time's wild, wintry blast
 Soon will be over past,
 I shall reach home at last—
 Heaven is my home.

3.

Therefore I murmur not:
 Heaven is my home;
 Whate'er my earthly lot,
 Heaven is my home;
 And I shall surely stand
 There at my Lord's right hand:
 Heaven is my Father-land—
 Heaven is my home.

ST. THOMAS. S. M.

1 My soul, repeat his praise, Whose mercies are so great; Whose anger is so slow to rise, So ready to abate.

2 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

3 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

4 The pity of the Lord,
To those who fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel,
He knows our feeble frame.

5 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

BRADEN, S. M.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1 The day is past and gone; The evening shades appear: O may we all remember well The night of death draws near.

THE NIGHT OF DEATH.

2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest;
So death shall soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possessed.

3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears!
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

SUPERIORITY OF THE SCRIPTURES.

1 O Lord, thy perfect word

Directs our steps aright,
Nor can all other books afford
Such profit and delight.

2 Celestial beams it sheds
To cheer this vale below:
To distant lands its glory spreads,
And streams of mercy flow.

3 True wisdom it imparts,
Commands our hope and fear,
Oh, may we hide it in our hearts,
And feel its influence there!

Slow and soft—Cantabile

1 My son! know thou the Lord, Thy father's God obey, Seek his protecting care by night, His guardian hand by day.

- 2 Call while he may be found,
And seek him while he's near :
Serve him with all thy heart and mind,
And worship him in fear.
- 3 If thou wilt seek his face,
His ear will hear thy cry ;
Then shalt thou find his mercy sure,
His grace for ever nigh.

CLOSING HYMN.

- 1 Once more before we part,
Oh bless the Saviour's name ;

Let every tongue and every heart,
Adore and praise the same.

- 1 Lord in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart ;
We meet in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.

- 3 Thus nurtured by thy word,
May each in wisdom grow,
And still go on to know the Lord,
And practice what we know.

"WE'LL ALL MEET AGAIN IN THE MORNING."

Such was the exclamation of a dying child, as the red rays of the sunset streamed on him through the casement. "Good bye, good bye! Mamma has come for me to-night; don't cry papa, we'll all meet again in the morning!" It was as if an angel had spoken to that father; and his heart grew lighter under his burden; for something assured him that his little one had gone to Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven." There is something cheerful to all who are in trouble in this, "We'll all meet again in the morning!" It rouses up the fainting soul, and frightens away fear. Clouds may gather upon our path; disappointments may come; but all this cannot destroy the hope within us, if we can say truly, "All will be right in the morning!" If you were to die to-night, would it be well with you in the morning?

Words by KATZ CAMERON.

The musical score consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are placed between the staves, with some words appearing below the bass staff.

 On the heart so sorely stricken,
 That the mourner might well be calm.
 The sharp sting of anguish taken,
 The burden of grief grew more light;

O, ye who sadly languish,
 Weighed down by grief and gloom,
 Beside the grave's dark portal,
 Look beyond the silent tomb!
 With God leave your precious treasures,
 Shall He not in all things do right?
 We'll all meet again in the morning
 Death's sleep is but for a night.

* Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me! Here safe on the shore I'm waiting for thee.

CHORUS

Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me, Here safe on the shore I'm waiting for thee.

- 2 I remember that voice as it led our lone way,
 'Midst rocks and thro' breakers, and high dashing
 spray;
 How sweet to my heart did it sound from the shore,
 As it echoed so clearly o'er the dark billow's roar—
 Cho.—Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me,
 Here safe on the shore I am waiting for thee.
- 3 I remember my joy when I held to my breast,
 The form of that dear one, and soothed it to rest;
 For the tones of my child's whispered soft on my ear;
 I called you father dear, and I knew you would hear.
 Cho.—Come this way, father dear, o'er the dark sea,
 While safe on the shore I am waiting for thee.

- 4 That voice is now hushed, which then guided my way
 The form I then pressed is now mingling with clay,
 But the tones of my child still sound in my ear,
 I'm calling you, father, Oh! can you not hear?
 Cho.—Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me,
 For on a bright shore I am waiting for thee!
- 5 I remember that voice in many a lone hour,
 It speaks to my heart with fresh beauty and power;
 And still echoes far out o'er life's troubled waves,
 And sounds from loved lips now lying silent in graves.
 Cho.—Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me!
 Here, safely in heaven I am waiting for thee.

* For a public performance this melody might very appropriately be sung by one with a sweet, pure voice out of sight of the audience.

We hope no one will regret the absence of inner harmony parts in the first movement of this little Anthem. Surely no earthly harmonies can add to the sweetness of this heavenly language. Let it come home to the heart and be appropriately expressed and the soul will be filled with richer and more heavenly harmonies than earth can produce.

PILGRIMS' SONGS:

A POCKET MUSICAL COMPANION FOR PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

DESIGNED AS A SUPPLEMENT TO ANY HYMN-BOOK NOW IN USE.

Who that loves the Gates of Zion has not felt of late the want of more life and spirit, earnestness and interest in the social prayer meeting? The marked improvement everywhere perceptible in our Sabbath Schools that is almost universally ascribed to the recent introduction of appropriate music, has prompted this new effort for the prayer meeting. The question has constantly recurred, Can not something be done to awaken new life in our social religious meetings? The appearance of PILGRIMS' SONGS is my response. There are about one hundred Melodies, with a great variety of Hymns, all adapted to the end in view.

The book contains selections from the most popular Melodies and Hymns adapted to the purpose, recently published, together with a variety of new pieces, all breathing the spirit of devotion, in earnest but simple and natural musical strains. Such, for instance, as,

SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER.

SWEET REST IN HEAVEN.

Given our fathers' freedom cry, To go to die, the battle won. Christ our Captain's name we boast,
 Victory or death's behest. There to fall the warriors stand, Quail the fiend's Satanic host,
 But with Jesus on our side, Glory brighter than the sun. Fall we then, with at his post, Death and victory too. O'er That our promised due. O'er Fall as Christians do. O'er.
