

No 297
Dep. Aug 11. 1846
By Geo. Willig
Proper

COME JOIN THE DANCE

The Song of the Peasant Girl

COMPOSED AND DEDICATED TO Miss M. A. S.

BY
I. AVELL.

Philadelphia GEORGE WILLIG 171 Chesnut St.

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1846 by Geo Willig in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

Tempo di Valse.

Now! happy all, from care free, So light of step we glide a - long, And min - gle, as we dance, with glee Our cres

vo - - ces in the cheer - ful song. Then. &c night is ours—we work no more. Then come join the dance, why not be gay, La la la la la la la la la la la So mer - ri - ly thus time speeds a - way Then come join the dance I pray. Sua-

3

Come one more dance, my friends, come!
And then to rest let each away
To meet again when labor's done
And our sports renew at close of day.
Then come one more dance, why not be gay
La la la la la la la la la la
So merrily thus time speeds away,
And now each to rest, I pray.

Come join the dance.