The image shows three staves of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The notation consists of vertical stems with horizontal strokes indicating pitch and rhythm. The first two staves begin with a treble clef and a common time signature (indicated by a 'C'). The third staff begins with a bass clef and a common time signature. The music is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes. There are several rests and some slurs. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor foxing or staining.

A handwritten musical score for three voices (Soprano, Alto, Bass) on three staves. The music consists of six measures of rhythmic patterns followed by lyrics in German. The lyrics are:

Wohl der Herr uns hilft
Wohl der Herr uns hilft

Below the lyrics, there is a large bracket spanning all three staves, with handwritten notes above it:

Wohl der Herr uns hilft

This image shows three staves of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The notation is in black ink and uses a system of vertical stems and horizontal strokes to represent pitch and rhythm. The first two staves begin with a treble clef and a common time signature (indicated by a 'C'). The third staff begins with a bass clef and a common time signature. The music consists of multiple voices, with some parts having sustained notes or rests. The paper shows signs of age, including creases and discoloration.

Continuo

A handwritten musical score for the continuo part of a composition. The score consists of approximately 15 staves of music, each with a different key signature and time signature. The music is written in black ink on aged, yellowish paper. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a common time signature, and a tempo marking of 'tempo di minuetto'. The score includes various dynamics such as 'p' (piano), 'ff' (fortissimo), and 'ff' (fortissimo). There are also several fermatas and grace notes. The handwriting is fluid and shows signs of being a working manuscript.

A handwritten musical score for a six-part setting. The score consists of six staves, each with a different vocal range and style. The parts include soprano, alto, tenor, bass, and two organ or piano parts. The music is written in common time, with various key signatures (G major, C major, F major, etc.) indicated by sharps and flats. The lyrics are written in German, with some words underlined or written in cursive. The score is divided into sections by double vertical bar lines. The bottom staff contains a section of organ or piano music with a tempo marking of "Presto". The lyrics at the end of the piece are:

J. Harn || Choral Capo
Iffant dir.

Choral.

Violino 1.

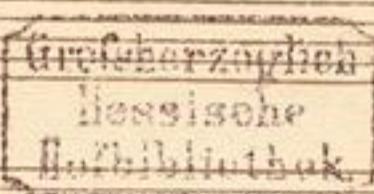

Musical score for Violin 1, handwritten on multiple staves. The score includes dynamic markings such as marcato, legg., acc. tacc., sfz, sfz auf, da capo, and legg. gewandt. The score consists of approximately 15 staves of music, with some staves spanning multiple lines. The handwriting is in black ink on aged paper.

Hans Schubert //
Da Capo. //

A page from a handwritten musical score, likely for an oratorio. The top section features a vocal line labeled "Choral." and a violin part labeled "Violino 2." The music consists of multiple staves, primarily for strings, with some woodwind parts. The tempo is marked as "Allegro". The score includes dynamic markings like "ff" (fortissimo) and "p" (pianissimo). A section of vocal music begins with the instruction "Recitataet ||" followed by a vocal line. The vocal parts are written in a cursive script. The bottom section contains a basso continuo part with a bassoon line, indicated by the label "Bassoon" and "Continuo". The bassoon part includes a section labeled "Largo" and "in allm gütler Weise." The score is dated "1783" at the bottom right.

Violone

10

A handwritten musical score for the bassoon (Violone). The score consists of twelve staves of music, each with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of common time (indicated by a 'C'). The music is written in two systems. The first system starts with a treble clef and continues with a bass clef. The second system begins with a bass clef. The notation includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and grace notes. There are several dynamic markings, including 'P' (piano), 'f' (forte), and 'ff' (double forte). The score is written on aged, yellowed paper. In the upper left of the first staff, there is handwritten text that appears to read 'Gitarre oder Klavier'. The number '10' is written in the top right corner of the page.
