nempè musicæ cultoribus, quorum quidem notitia ad nos peruenerit, nullum extitisse, qui cantiones plures, pluribus linguis composuerit, id quod lucubrationes eius Latine, Germanicè, Italicè, & Gallicè editæ, testatum faciunt. Quàm verò gratiosus ille non solum apud Ser.^{mos} iniri, simulq; gloriæ parentis nostri consuli posse, si cantiones eius Latinas animis nostris versatum, effectum tamen nō reddidissimus, nisi id Ser.^{is}

The musical score consists of eight staves of music. The first staff begins with a large, ornate initial 'I' in a decorative frame. The music is written in a mensural style with various note values and rests. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with some words split across lines. There are several double bar lines with repeat signs (two dots) and some staves end with a double bar line and a fermata. The bottom of the page shows several empty staves.
