Pgalme xxxiii, 1-5.

Praise is comely for the upright.

Give thanks unto the Lord with harp:

Sing praises unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.

Sing unto him a new song;
Play skillfully with a loud noise,
For the Word of the Lord is right;
And all his work is done in faithfulness.
He loveth righteousness and judgment:
The earth is full of the loving kindness of the Lord.

Philippians iv, 4-7.

 $\Pr_{\mathbf{G}}^{\mathsf{EJOICE}}$ in the Lord alway: again

Let your forbearance be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

In nothing be anxious; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

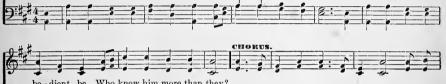

Songs of Rejoicing.

NOTE.—Four children may be selected, each to sing a stanza as a solo—the school joining the chorus. Or the school may be divided into four sections, each section singing a stanza in turn, the school singing the chorus. Appropriate texts for reading before each stanza are—Matt. iv: 18-22; Matt. ix: 9; Luke ix: 59-62; Matt. xxv: 34. With the readings, the song makes an appropriate opening exercise for the school.

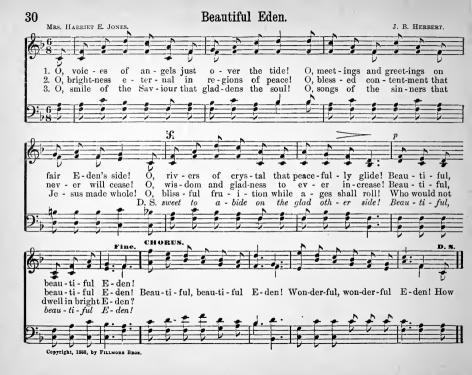

Thine is the glo - ry, al-might - y King, Je - sus the Sav - iour of sin - ners.

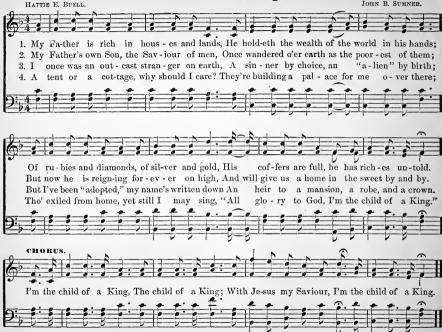

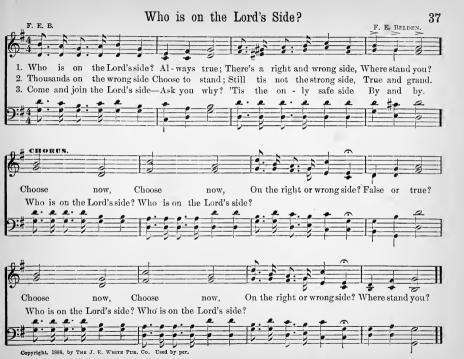

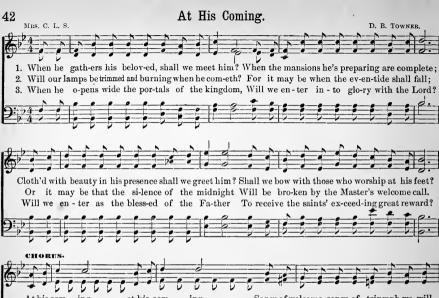

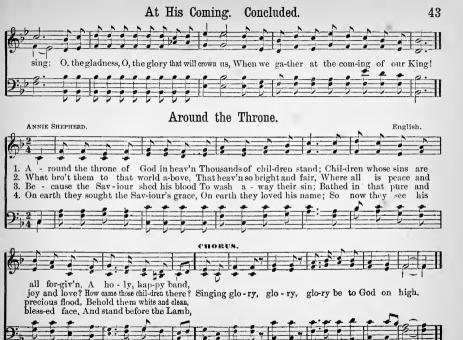

At his com - ing, at his com - ing, Songs of welcome, songs of triumph we will at his coming we will meet him, at his coming we will greet him,

4 When Jesus comes in glory, His saints shall all be there Their suff'rings then all ended, The victor's crown they'll wear.

From a melody by J. R. MURRAY.

- 1. I have found a friend in Je-sus, he's ey-'ry-thing to me. He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul:
- all my grief has ta-ken, and all my sorrows borne: In temptation he's my strong and mighty tow'r:
- 3. He will nev-er, nev-er leave me, nor yet forsake me here. While I live by faith and do his bless-ed will:

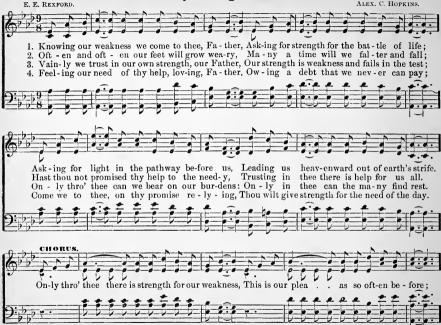

Lil-y of the Valley, in him a lone I see All I need to cleanse and make me ful-ly whole. The I have all for him forsaken, and all my idols torn From my heart, and now he keeps me by his pow'r, wall of fire about me, I've nothing now to fear, With his manna he my hungry soul shall fill. D.S. He's the Lil-u of the Val-ley, the bright and Morning Star, He's the fair-est of ten thou-sand to my soul,

In sor-row he's my comfort, in trouble he's my stay, He tells me ev-'ry care on him to roll. Tho' all the world forsake me, and Satan tempts me sore, Thro' Jesus I shall safely reach the goal. Then sweeping up to glo-ry, to see his bless-ed face, Where rivers of de-light shall ev-er roll.

I Put My Trust in Thee.

- 1. My Saviour and my Friend, I trust in thee a lone: I know thou cam'st from God. And art his on-ly Son.
- 2. No dangers e'er shall harm The children of thy care, However great their fear, Thy pow'r is always there.
- 3. A shield from ev-'ry foe, Thy hand will ever be, To guard the humblest soul, That puts its trust in thee.
- 4. Thy word shall never fail, Tho' earth may pass a-way; Thro' ey-'ry change thy love Will lead to perfect day.

S. R.-5.

1. Draw near to the Sav-iour, his mer-cy in-vites you, Not waiting and doubting to follow a-far. 2. Draw near to the Sav-iour, not i-dly de-lay-ing, The highways are broad that entice thee to stray:

- 3. Draw near to the Say-jour, whatey er be-tide thee. A like is he precious in gladness or woe:
- 4. Draw near to the Say-jour, his love bids you welcome. Away from the snares of temptation and sin:

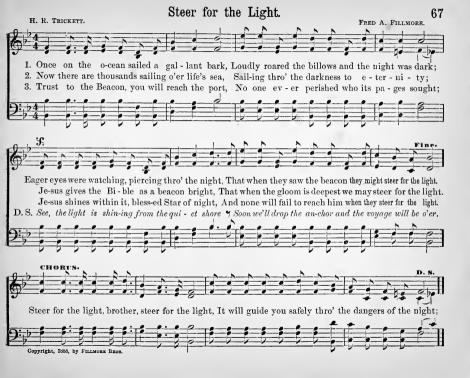

And deep are the pit-falls thy footsteps be-tray-ing, If once they beguile from his beau-ti-ful way. Draw near to the Saviour and share in his glo-ry, Eu-joy the rich foretaste of heav-en be-low. His mansions are waiting with stores of rich treasures, He stands at the door-way to bid you come in-D. S. With rev-er-ence fear him, with loving draw near him, More bright shall the light of his glo-ry ap-pear.

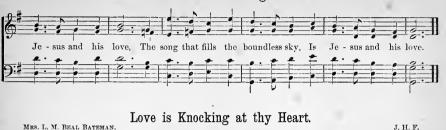

Draw near to the Saviour, more closely draw near. Draw near to the Saviour, more closely draw near.

66

- 1. Rich art thou in worldly lore, Gifts of earth and bear'n; Thou art emp-ty, naked, poor, Un-til love be given. 2. Love will kindly suf-fer long, Nev-er thinking ill; Make him welcome at thy door, Whensoe'er he will.
- 3. Love be-hav-eth not a-miss, Seeketh not his own; In no e-vil tak-eth joy, But in truth a-lone.
- 4. Love en-dur-eth o ver all, When all else shall cease: Hoping and be liev-ing all, frowning all with peace.

- 1. God's love is unbounded and changeless for ev er. His mer cv and goodness my refuge shall be:
- 2. When sin with its fetters had burdened and bound me, When, blinded and weary, I longed to be free,
- 3. His love is more broad than the calm flowing river. And greater its depth than the nethermost sea:
- sin-ner! with burden of grief and of sadness, Why longer in darkness and wea-ri-ness roam?

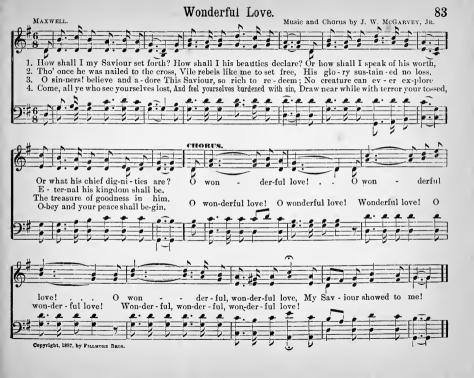

And nothing of present or fu-ture can sever The love which the Father hath shown unto me. His love broke the bonds that were clinging around me. And opened my eyes that his beauty I see. More high than the stars, it en-dur-eth for ever. It saves to the ut-ter-most, saves e-ven me. Seek Je-sus, he'll turn all thy sor-row to gladness. Thy sins, tho' as scarlet, as snow shall become.

The blood of the crucified From sin sets me free: It saves to the uttermost. It saves e-ven me.

cable. The chorus may be repeated.

2 No other Lord but thee we'll know, | 3 We'll sing along the heavenly road No other power but thine confess; We'll spread thine honors while below, Till, with the vast unnumbered throng,

That leads us to thy blest abode: And heaven shall hear us shout thy grace. We join in heaven's triumphant song.

Beyond the Sea.

- 1. Saviour dear, we come today. At thy earnest call, Bringing our best gifts to thee, Youth, and hope, and all. 2. If in - to thy broadest fields And thy vinevards fair, Thou shalt call us, we will go, Glad-Iv la - bor there.
- 3. So if thou wouldst have us stand, Cheerful we will stand; Or if thou wouldst have us run, Sweet is that command.

We would conse - crated be, To thy service dear; Let us grow in grace cach day, And from year to year. But if in some lowly place, Thou wouldst have us move; Send us—only guide us there, By thy wondrous love. Reapers strong or gleaners weak, As it pleaseth thee; If we serve thee we're content, Howsoe'er it be.

When those that love the Lord In one another's peace delight, And so fulfill the word; And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart;

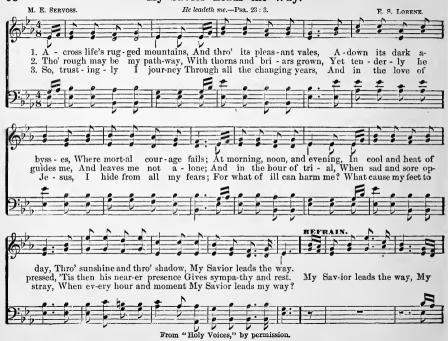

Our wishes all above, Each can his brother's failings hide, And show a brother's love.

*A good effect will be produced by the soprano taking the tenor, the alto taking the soprano, and the tenor taking the alto notes for the first four measures of the chorus, using the small notes for ending, instead of the slurred ones. The tenor, of course, sings a high pitch to the alto notes, Copyright, 1888, by Fundama Engl.

Words by the Author of "There is a Happy Land." FRED A. FILLMORE. 1. I know of a land, where the bright an-gel band Are clad in their garments of glo - ry so grand; a home where the saint-ed ones roam, Where parting, and sighing, and tears are unknown; 3. I know of a place where our dear Father's face Will beam on his chil-dren in beau-ty and grace: 4. I know we shall be, when our Sav-jour we see, From sin and from sor-row for-ey-er set free: They sing hal-le-lu-jah, they sing as they shine, They sing hal-le-lu-jah. in anthems di-vine. SECOND PART.*

- 5 Lord, accept our humble praise From thy throne low bending; Hear with gracious ear the lays From our lips ascending.
- 6 Tune our hearts with sweet accord
 As we raise our voices,
 Thus to praise the risen Lord,
 In whom earth rejoices.

- 8 May we sing these songs of joy Till earth ties shall sever! Then thy praise our tongues employ In the blest forever.

^{*}The first part, or all the hymn, may be used as a Christmas Carol; the second part will be found suitable to any occasion.
