

A new Additional Song for the Character of Solomon in the QUAKER

Moderato

Thou'st heard those old Proverbs ne'er lean on a rush, a Bird in the hand is worth two in the Bush, 'tis the Money paid down that decides who's the winner, who waits upon Fortune's ne'er sure of a Dinner: ^{Sy}

Out of sight out of mind, de-laying breeds danger, he ought to be cozen'd who trusts to a stranger:

he ought to be cozen'd who trusts to a stranger: Heav'n take my friend & the old one my Brother, Promifing's one thing performing a - - nother. Promifing's one thing, performing a - no - ther.

Promifing's one thing performing a - nother. Sy

Much may fall out 'twixt the cup and the lip,
 The Builders receipts the best fail in the ship,
 'Tis a good thing to lend but a better to borrow,
 Pay me to Day and I'll trust you to-morrow:
 Brag is a good Dog but hold -fast a better,
 You may guess at a word when you know the first letter;
 There's not the most fire where you see the most smother,
 Promifing's one thing performing another.
