Mosso .

8va

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains mostly whole and half notes with rests. A dynamic marking of ff is present in the lower staff. Above the upper staff, the tempo marking Mosso and the instruction 8va with a wavy line are written.

8va loco .

The second system continues the musical piece. The upper staff features more complex rhythmic patterns with beamed notes. The lower staff continues with whole and half notes. The instruction 8va loco is written above the upper staff.

The third system includes fingerings: '1' and '2' are written above notes in the upper staff, and '4' is written below a note in the lower staff. A repeat sign is visible at the end of the system in the upper staff.

8va loco .

The fourth system shows more intricate melodic lines in both the upper and lower staves. The instruction 8va loco is written above the upper staff.

8va loco .

The fifth system concludes the piece. It features a double bar line at the end of the upper staff, with a star symbol (*) to its right. The lower staff also ends with a double bar line. The instruction 8va loco is written above the upper staff.
