3. Præluçio.

The first system of the '3. Præluçio' section consists of two staves of handwritten musical notation. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The music is written in a single system with various note values, rests, and accidentals.

Fuga.

The 'Fuga' section is composed of six systems of two staves each. The notation is dense and complex, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, as well as various rests and accidentals. The systems are numbered 5, 10, 15, and 20 at the beginning of their respective staves. The handwriting is clear and consistent throughout the section.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on eight staves. The notation is in black ink on aged, yellowish paper. Each staff contains a pair of musical lines, likely representing a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The notes are mostly eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests and accidentals (sharps and naturals). Measure numbers are written in the center of the staves: 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, and 50. The handwriting is clear and consistent throughout the page.

Gravener

Handwritten
1775/16.

The image displays a page of handwritten musical notation for a piece titled "1 Preludio." The score is written on eight systems, each consisting of two staves (treble and bass clefs). The notation is in a historical style, featuring various note values, rests, and clefs. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and foxing. The title "1 Preludio." is written in a large, decorative hand at the top left. To its right, the manuscript number "Mus 483" is written in a smaller hand. Further right, "No 72." is written in a larger, bold hand. The name "Gravener" is written in a cursive hand to the right of "No 72.". In the top right corner, there is a small, faint handwritten note that appears to say "Handwritten" and "1775/16.".
