Sam! Sam! have you ne...ver seen Sam!..... Sam! Sam!

Sam! Wide a wake, Boys, for Sam..... Sam went on deck one night d'ye see, And his glass he squinted right o-ver the sea He'd a yan-kee ship And a yan-kee crew, And Sam was a yan-kee true.... A stranger sail To his hail Flung out her red cross flag, Samuel

p

laugh'd at that craft For, says he, I know that rag..... We gave that fits on old Bun-ker hill, And we finish'd it off with a Hickory pill.

Sam! good boy Sam! Wide a wake, boys, for Sam!.....

2nd Verse.

Sam! Sam! Sam! What! have you ne-ver seen Sam!

Sam! Sam! Sam! Wide a...wake, boys, for Sam! A sail a-head! she floats the green No yan-kee flag, that's plain...ly seen Our stars a-lone must kiss the breeze And rule Col-um-bia's seas

Ship a-hoy! starn there, Old Boy! Haul down your cross at the fore! In old Rome that's at home But here it's the wrong Com-mo-dore. We've hearts and homes for all it's true But all must wear red white and blue

 Sam! good boy Sam! Wide a-wake, boys, for Sam.

3rd Verse.

Sam! Sam! Sam! Jol-ly old Com-mo-dore, Sam!
 Sam! Sam! Sam! Wide a-wake, boys, for Sam! Now run your co-lors to the mast A-loft, my lads, and spike them fast Let Young A-me-ri-ca be seen True to the old thir-teen.
 Steady boys Steady! Steady boys Steady! Sons of the soil a-wake Ready boys ready. Ready boys ready. Your na-tive land's at stake The U-nion that our fa-thers won Must ne'er be ru'd by a trai-tor-son Go in boys for Sam! Wide a-wake, boys, for Sam.
