Yet from these honied realms of bliss, My con-stant heart will nev...er roam.

Like a poor Her...mit from his shrine, Will my wan...d'ring

Give me a kiss, a part-ing kiss, And then to all I love adieu;

Ne'er can I know a joy like this; A Home I love a heart that's true.

Farewell, farewell my night-ly pray'r, When sail-ing on the dark blue sea; Will be to guard from ev'ry care, My na-tive land, my Home and thee.
