Continuo.

Continuo.

The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation for a Continuo instrument. It consists of ten staves of music. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, sixteenth notes), rests, and accidentals (sharps and naturals). Above the notes, there are numerous numbers (1-5) indicating fingerings. The music is written in a single system across the page. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and foxing.

Allegro molto.

The image shows two staves of handwritten musical notation for an Allegro molto section. The notation includes notes, rests, and accidentals. The music is written in a single system across the page. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and foxing.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The score is written in dark ink and consists of approximately 15 staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as clefs, notes, rests, and accidentals. There are several instances of figured bass notation, where numbers are written below the notes to indicate fingerings or intervals. The music is organized into sections, with some parts marked with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The lyrics are written in a cursive hand below the notes. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and wear at the edges.
