

Dedicated to

Mrs. Anna Seguin

SWEET FLOWERS OF YESTERDAY KEEPING BALLAD

Written and Composed by her

Friend and Pupil

ELEGIA

Stackpole, Sc

NEW-YORK.

Published by FIRTH, POND & CO 547 Broadway.

Rochester.

Detroit.

St. Louis.

— J. H. HIDLEY. —

— J. P. SHAW. —

— AMBDEN & CARGILL. —

— H. PILCHER & SONS. —

Entered according to Act of Congress, A.D. 1851, by Firth, Pond & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

120
Deposited in Clerks office for Dist. New York May 1, 1852.
Deported in Clerks office for Dist. New York May 1, 1852.

SWEET FLOWERS OF MEMORY KEEPING

E. L. E. A.

VOICE.

PIANO.

Andante con Espressione.

Sweet flower's of mem'ry keep - ing Their freshness in my heart,
The hours we've pass'd to - geth - er In so - eial joy and mirth, As.
Are

rain-drops do these sacred tears. These tears un-bid-den start; p In gone, are fled, and nev-er more Will they re-turn on earth, But Rallent.

vain I join in pleasure's throng That gayer thoughts be mine, That memory still will con-jure up As sha-dows in a dream, And p

Hallow'd flow'r "For-get me not" Is held in memory's shrine; Sweet leave their im - press on the mind So ear-nest do they seem; The p Espressivo. tr tr

