

VICTOR HERBERT

My Lady 'Tis For Thee

Romanza
from
"BABETTE"

Lyric by HARRY B. SMITH

from BABETTE

My Lady 'Tis For Thee

Romanza
from
"BABETTE"Lyric by
HARRY B. SMITH

Animato

If I could look in - to your If then the bat - tle surg - es eyes _____ And see the love - light there, _____ There round _____ And foe - men are de - fied, _____ Thy were no Knight in ar - mor bright, But might of me _____ be - face I'd have to be a star, To guide me as _____ I ware. _____ But might of me, be - ware, my dear, Though ride. _____ If when the days fierce fight is done, Thy gal - lant were his guise, _____ For - ev - er in my he - ro wound - ed lies, _____ He shall not feel the heart I'd bear, The bless - ing of your eyes, For foe - man's steel, If sol - aced by your eyes, If

rit. ev - er I'd bear, love, The bless - ing of your I had to cheer me The thoughts of your dear poco a poco rit. molto rit.

Molto moderato

eyes.
eyes.

riten.

(Dreamingly)

Let hope of thee, my guer - don be — My pp dolcissimo

la - dy, la - dy mine. — I'll bear thy col - ors on my shield, My hon - or shall be thine. — I'll wear thine im - age in my heart And ne'er shall bend the 8.

knee; _____ Then if a he - ro's wreath be mine, My 8.

la - dy 'tis for thee. _____

f colla voce

rit. D.C.