V.
 “Wedding Is Great Juno’s Crown”

The flute plays freely as though this were a rhapsody for solo flute, using the cued piano part only as an approximate guide for pacing. The horn aligns with and accompanies the flute. The piano enters at letter A, aligned with the flute, but thereafter plays in a steady tempo irrespective of the flute. The tenor enters in time with the piano at B. All parts should align at letter D.

The musical score is divided into three systems. The first system features the Flute and Horn in F. The Flute part begins with a dynamic of pp and includes markings for Ad lib. and (flz.). The Horn part enters with a dynamic of p. The second system continues the Flute and Horn parts, with a double bar line and a repeat sign. A boxed letter 'A' is placed above the Flute staff. The Flute part includes dynamics of mf, f, p, and mp. The Horn part continues with a dynamic of p. The third system introduces the Piano part, titled “Tallis’s Canon” in Andante con moto (♩=72). The Piano part is in 4/4 time and features a dynamic of pp. The Flute part in this system includes dynamics of p, mp, mf, and p, with markings for 5, 3, and 6. The Piano part continues with a dynamic of p.
