Ian Keith Harris

(1935-)

Australian composer, arranger, oboist, music educator, critic and eclectic musician, Ian Harris, was born in Melbourne in 1935, living there for the first 26 years of his life. He started the piano at the age of five and three years later was playing cornet in his school band. He took up the violin shortly after this, playing for several years, but relinquished it when he became his school pianist at thirteen. The oboe came next, and in 1953, he began his Bachelor of Music degree at Melbourne University Conservatorium of Music taking piano as chief study and oboe as second. National Service in the Army intervened and, this time, Ian Harris played the trombone in the University Regiment. The same year, he changed to oboe as his chief study. The trombone did not impress Jiří Tancibudek, his professor! This time, the piano was his second study and composition (Arthur Nickson) crept in too.

Not surprisingly he was soon in demand as a free-lance orchestral musician, arranger and copyist, working in a very eclectic mix of musical spheres from arranging for Eartha Kitt (television and various theatrical shows), to playing in opera, ballet, chamber music and symphony orchestras. He was a founding member of the Glendenian Trio, (flute, oboe, bassoon), which gave regular broadcasts over several years. The trio was another area in which his skills at arrangement were frequently employed.

Ian Harris moved to Hobart, Tasmania, in 1961 (Tasmanian Orchestra), was seconded to the Sydney Symphony Orchestra (cor anglais) for several months, returned to Tasmania only to be seconded again, this time to the Victorian Symphony Orchestra (oboe).

Back again in Tasmania, his next move was to Wellington, New Zealand (1965-1974) to join NZBCSO (the New Zealand Broadcasting Corporation Symphony Orchestra) as Principal Cor anglais. During this time, in which he yo-yoed across Australasia, Harris tutored at the universities of Tasmania, Melbourne, and the Victoria University of Wellington. It was at the latter that he completed his degree in composition (with David Farquhar) in 1969. He was to return yet again to Tasmania at the end of 1974.

However, this time, he embraced a new career as a music educator with his move. His wealth of instrumental and orchestral experience was invaluable to his students. He also conducted the Tasmanian Junior Youth Orchestra for several years.

Harris was a dedicated member of policy committees, especially in Education and the Arts. A great listener to music and musicians, he served as music critic for The Mercury, Hobart's daily newspaper, for several years.

His oeuvre consists mainly of chamber music, much of which has been performed and broadcast: Microsymphony for Cor anglais Quartet (cor anglais, string trio), Oboe Quartet (oboe, string trio), Essay for Bassoon and Strings, Sonata for Viola and Piano, amongst many other pieces and numerous arrangements for broadcasts and concerts.

His sense of fun has shown in many of his compositions including, A Piece with Strawberry Jam, The Little Dog's Day (Rupert Brooke), 'Paw de trois' - Three Dances for Canines (for Woodwind Quintet, with movements dedicated to his dogs by name), The Whitebait Fishers –

“A sort of Donizetti-like spoof for harpsichord, string quartet and small choir, for which the producer of the hour-long national radio show penned the libretto for this, a special anniversary broadcast of the programme.”

Harris orchestrated songs for symphony concerts, including a version of The Last Rose of Summer for Rita Streich (1920-1987). He also wrote, directed and even performed in advertising jingles, playing celesta, oboe, cor anglais or whatever was required.

Ian Harris moved back to Sydney definitively in 2000 and has since devoted himself to composition and a considerable entourage of cats (10) and dogs (5). He is a keen gardener and chef and a passionate enthusiast of the oboe d'amore. A close friend of Jennifer Paull, he has written many works for her.

The White Rose

Crystallised mists to hoarfrost crept
budding sequins in their stillness

See the white rose

Snowflakes swirled drifts piled high growing velvet in their vastness

Touch the white rose

White horses tossed ripe manes to surf
chorusing salt in their closeness

Smell the white rose

Billowing clouds swept an evening sky
fleeting like swans in their swiftiness

Hear the white rose

Gentle petal cruel thorn only of both
is true love born

Taste the white rose

The White Rose

Countertenor (Alto), Oboe d'amore, Harp & String Quartet

A EN 007

The White Rose was completed in November 2005 and is a free setting of the poem with the same title by Jennifer I. Paull. This version is for countertenor (alto), oboe d'amore, harp and string quartet. I have endeavoured to respond in music to the evocation of the words. The work is also available in an alternative setting with the same solo voice and instruments accompanied by string orchestra. The orchestral version has the index number, A OR 003.

Detailed description: This page of a musical score for Oboe d'amore contains ten staves of music, numbered 46 to 111. The music is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamic markings include mp (mezzo-piano), mf (mezzo-forte), f (forte), and p (piano). There are several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a bracket) and some double bar lines with repeat signs. The score is presented in a clean, professional layout with clear notation and dynamic markings.

Gently (♩=72)

The musical score is written for cello in a single system with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked 'Gently' with a quarter note equal to 72 beats per minute. The score consists of nine staves of music, each beginning with a measure number (10, 15, 20, 26, 33, 42, 47, 50). The dynamics range from pp (pianissimo) to ff (fortissimo), with many passages marked mp (mezzo-piano) and f (forte). The music features several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a bracket) and various phrasing slurs. The piece concludes with a final measure on the ninth staff.
