HAVING for many years been employed in the various occupations of ORGANIST, COMPOSER, TEACHER OF MUSIC, and PUBLISHER OF MUSICAL WORKS TO A VERY CONSIDERABLE EXTENT, I have thereby had opportunities of inspecting most of the productions of those persons who have been candidates for public favour in the composition of Sacred Music intended for devotional purposes.

The result of that experience is, that I have found much has been done to produce the desired effect, but much more left undone. In order to make myself clearly understood upon this point, it will be necessary to make a few observations upon the present state of this species of Musical Composition, and the mode of performing it.

In the CHURCH OF ENGLAND it appears that the MODEL for composing a Psalm Tune, was formed about the time of the REFORMATION, and is still adhered to, with very few exceptions. But its style is so antiquated and monotonous, that cultivated genius and refined taste (produced by progressive improvement in the Science of Music) have become satiated with its dulness and insipidity. The MODEL itself, however pleasing it might have been in those days (when the knowledge of the theory of music was so confined) will be found to be little else than a succession of chords without any reference either to MELODY, or PATHOS; and any musical composition (however ingenious in point of theoretical construction) without these great requisites, will never win the uncultivated ear. In this system the Composers of our Church Psalmody have so constantly persevered, even up to the present day, that I presume they have either conceived it impossible to improve this MODEL, or, that they have never given the subject one moment's reflection: it is, however, certain, that such a mere dry combination of sounds can never embrace the imagery of poetry.

The consequence then is, that a congregation so situated is compelled to hear compositions which are sameness personified, applied indiscriminately to the language of the Psalmist, whether joyful or melancholy. Thus I have frequently heard in parish churches some scores of charity children, who, in singing a penitential psalm, or invoking the mercy of the Deity, have been so vehement, that their vocal efforts have rather resembled a shout or a scream, than the impressive tones of repentance or humility; and to heighten the effect, they have been accompanied on a fine and powerful organ by a miserable performer, who has been selected more as an object of charity than as a person of talent: the congregation being thus nearly deafened by such a sacrifice of sense to sound, becomes as indifferent to this essential and delightful part of divine worship, as they would be to the noise of passing carriages in the streets.

In order to prove that the generality of Psalm Tunes possess the defects to which I have alluded, I will instance, as a rare exception, that celebrated production of THE IMMORTAL HANDEL, known as the 104th Psalm, which has been sung into a degree of popularity that will never cease but with time: and the reason is obvious, it possesses a fine flowing melody, which at once rivets the attention and delights the ear of the most ignorant.

In our CATHEDRAL CHURCHES the Music is composed and performed in a manner well calculated to express the various passages in Scripture to which it is applied; but even there, the impressive and tasteful melody is preferred to the pedantic, cramped, and monotonous composition which is only produced by the joint efforts of labour and art. The unrivalled Compositions of the late MR. JAMES KENT will sufficiently prove this assertion; in short, no one can doubt it who has ever heard those incomparable and soul-speaking productions, Hear my Prayer; My Song shall be of Mercy and Judgment; and Sing, O Heavens.

In the ROMISH CHURCH their Music is so replete with melody, the parts for different voices are so tastefully and judiciously disposed, and the mode of performing it so impressive, that it delights the ear to a degree bordering on enthusiasm. I have heard them sing some of the finest Airs that could possibly be imagined by human intellect.

In DISSENTING CONGREGATIONS, I have heard with wondering pleasure their efforts to laud the Deity; I have also heard with astonishment such bold and impressive flights of fancy in their MELODIES, that would have done honour to first-rate musical talent; but I have at the same time found most of them so encumbered with false harmony, forbidden progressions, and injudicious and fruitless attempts at counter-point, that my pleasure and astonishment have given place to regret. In some of these compositions I have even found endeavours to produce harmony so completely abortive, that a combination of sounds has been substituted which could not be found in any theoretical scale of music whatever. Still the effort is laudable, although it does more honour to the heart than to the head.

The Psalmody used in the Church and Dissenting Con- gregations being thus defective, the intention of this Work is not only to remove those defects, but also to introduce to the notice of the Pious, many fine specimens of composition from the works of HANDEL, HAYDN, MOZART, PLEYEL, and other eminent Foreign and English Composers, all of which are well calculated for Public and Private Devotion, and most of them have never been sung by any Congregation in this country. I have also selected such Tunes as have been long established favourites with both CHURCHMAN and DISSENTER; in addition to which, I have ventured to introduce some humble productions of my own. The whole are HARMONIZED for FOUR VOICES, in the most simple and familiar manner possible, with an easy Accompaniment for the Piano-forte or Organ, the Bass part of which is made to answer the purpose of a Violoncello Accompaniment, as it may prove serviceable to Country Choirs where the latter instrument is much used.

Of the POETRY which will be found in the SERAPH, it is merely necessary to state, that it will be selected from the Works of MILTON, YOUNG, ADDISON, WATTS, WESLEY, MERRICK, COWPER, HENRY KIRK WHITE, DR. COLLYER, and other eminent Authors.

Having thus fully explained the design of the undertaking, I shall now rely with confidence on the candour and liberality of an enlightened Public, who are at all times ready to encourage every effort which may tend to promote the cause of Religion and Morality.

TO
VOCAL, AND INSTRUMENTAL, PERFORMERS.

LADIES, and CHILDREN, who may assist in the Vocal performance of this Work, are requested to confine themselves to the Soprano Part, as they should not attempt the Alto and Tenor Parts, unless they could sing them an Octave lower.

The Soprano Part, may also be performed as it is written, by a Violino Primo; the Alto, and Tenor, an Octave lower by a Violino Secondo, and a Viola, while the Instrumental Bass, is that of the Piano-forte; and the whole effect would be considerably heightened by the assistance of a Flute performing the Soprano Part an Octave higher.

The musical score consists of five staves. The top three staves are for vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, and Tenor/Bass), and the bottom two are for piano accompaniment. The lyrics 'heavenly land from ours.' are written below each staff. The piano part features a prominent melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand.

Sweet Fields beyond the swelling flood
 Stand dress'd in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan roll'd between.

But timorous mortals stand and shrink
 To cross this narrow Sea,
 And linger shivering on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.

O! could we make our doubts remove,
 These gloomy doubts that rise
 And see the Canaan that we love
 With unclouded eyes!

Could we but climb where Moses stood,
 And view the landscape o'er,
 Not Jordan's Stream, nor Death's cold flood,
 Should fright us from the Shore.

 Thy mercy shall adore.
 Through all eternity, to thee,
 A grateful Song I'll raise;
 For Oh! eternity's too short
 To utter all thy praise.

The God that built us first;
Salvation to th'almighty name
That rear'd us from the dust.

Sweet is the Day of sacred rest,
 No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
 O may my heart in tune be found
 Like David's Harp of solemn sound!

My heart shall triumph in my LORD,
 And bless his Works and bless his word;
 Thy works of grace how bright they shine!
 How deep thy counsels! how divine!

38 GREAT QUEEN STREET CHAPEL Kelly. I selected the first eight Bars for their elegant simplicity from a Tune called TREVECCA by Milgrove, and have made such alterations as the metre of the Hymn requires; I have also taken the liberty of adding eight Bars of my own Composition, thereby making the whole a RONDO. Glory around his path is shed,
 Immortal honour crowns his head,
 His maker's image born to bear,
 An object of his special care!
 With might and majesty array'd,
 Scarce lower than the Angels made!

3

Dominion vast to him is given —
 The fowl that sweeps the vault of heaven,
 The fish that o'er the billows leap,
 Or skim the surface of the deep;
 The beasts that through the meadows rove;
 And songsters warbling in the grove.

4

Whilst these the creatures of Thy hand,
 Bow and submit to man's command,
 They through the earth's wide realms record,
 Thy power and skill, Almighty LORD!
 All that have breath thy love proclaim,
 And infants learn to lisp thy name!

Morn her melting tints displaying
 Ere the Sluggard is awake:
 Evening's Zephyrs gently straying
 O'er the surface of the lake:
 Melting hues, and whispering breezes,
 All have powerful charms for me
 But no earthly beauty pleases,
 When, my Lord, compar'd with thee.

3

Soft and sweet are showers descending,
 On the parch'd expecting ground,
 Fragrance to the meadows lending,
 As their drops distil around:
 These, with every earthly blessing,
 Loudly for thanksgiving call,
 But one smile of thine possessing
 Jesus, far exceeds them all.

4

Sweet is sleep to tired nature,
 Sweet to labour is repose:
 Sweet is life to every creature,
 Sweet the balm that hope bestows:
 But though spring and Evening's breezes,
 Sleep, and Hope, and Life to me,
 All are pleasant — nothing pleases
 Jesus, like a smile from thee.

 Let those refuse to sing
 Who never knew our GOD,
 But fav'rites of the heav'nly King
 May speak their joys abroad.
 The GOD that rules on high
 And thunders when he please
 That rides upon the stormy sky,
 And manages the seas.

3
 This awful GOD is ours,
 Our Father, and our love,
 He shall send down his heav'nly pow'rs
 To carry us above.
 There shall we see his face,
 And never, never sin;
 There from the rivers of his grace
 Drink endless pleasures in.

4
 The hill of Sion yields
 A thousand sacred sweets
 Before we reach the heav'nly fields,
 Or walk the golden streets.
 Then let our songs abound,
 And ev'ry tear be dry;
 We're marching through Immanuel's ground
 To fairer worlds on high.

His terrors keep the world in awe,
 His justice guards his holy law,
 His love reveals a smiling face,
 His truth and promise seal the grace.

3

Through all his works his wisdom shines,
 And baffles Satan's deep designs,
 His power is sovereign to fulfil
 The noblest counsels of his will.

And will this glorious LORD descend
 To be my father and my friend!
 Then let my songs with angels join
 Heav'n is secure if GOD be mine.

 This is life — to gloomy night,
 Sinking through the caves of death.

SICILIAN MARINER'S HYMN.

Andante Sostenuto.

Musical score for the hymn "Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more." The score is arranged for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are repeated for each voice part. The piano part features a steady accompaniment with a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more.

Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more.

Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more.

 To push us to the Tomb,
 And fierce diseases wait around
 To hurry mortals home.

 Hang everlasting things:
 Th' eternal states of all the dead
 Upon life's feeble strings!

6

Infinite joy, or endless woe,
 Attends on every breath!
 And yet how unconcern'd we go
 Upon the brink of death!

7

Waken O Lord, our drowsy sense
 To walk this dangerous road!
 And if our Souls are hurried hence,
 May they be found with God!

HARVEST.

D^f Collyer.

Whitaker.

The first system of music consists of four staves. The top two are treble clefs, and the bottom two are bass clefs. All staves contain whole rests, indicating that the vocalists and pianist are silent for this section.

The second system is labeled "Pastorale" and begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. It features a grand staff with treble and bass clefs, containing a melodic line in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand.

The third system consists of four staves (two treble, two bass) with whole rests, similar to the first system.

The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment. It features a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. A fermata is placed over a note in the right hand, and a piano (p) dynamic marking is present.

The fifth system contains the vocal melody and piano accompaniment with lyrics. The lyrics are: "Ye ver-dant hills, ye smil-ing fields, Thou earth, whose breast spon-". The piano part is in a grand staff with treble and bass clefs.

 To him we raised our anxious eyes;
 Oft from the cisterns of the skies
 He sent in mercy rich supplies,
 Early and latter rain.

 With grateful hearts ye reapers sing,
 The praise of heaven's eternal king,
 Through whose paternal care ye bring
 The produce of the year!

 From sin and from thrall, Which saves the lost race;
 Thy Son thou hast given, The world to redeem,
 And bring us to heaven, Whose trust is in him.

Wherefore of thy Love We sing and rejoice,
 With angels above We lift up our voice:
 Thy love each believer Shall gladly adore,
 For ever and ever, When time is no more.

Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care;
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.
Behold at thy commanding word,
We stretch the curtain and the cord;
Come thou and fill this wider space,
And bless us with a large increase.

Come to us through JESUS' blood.

Come to us through JESUS' blood.

Come to us through JESUS' blood.

Come to us through JESUS' blood.

2

JESUS gives us true repentance,
 By his Spirit sent from heaven:
 Whispers this transporting sentence,
 "Son thy sins are all forgiven."
 Faith he grants us to believe it,
 Grateful hearts his love to prize:
 Want we wisdom? he must give it;
 Hearing ears and seeing Eyes.

3

JESUS gives us pure affections,
 Wills to do what he requires;
 Makes us follow his directions,
 And what he commands — inspires.
 All our prayers, and all our praises,
 Rightly offer'd in his name,
 He that dictates them is JESUS;
 He that answers is the same.

4

When we live upon his merit,
 Then we worship GOD aright:
FATHER, SON, and HOLY SPIRIT,
 Then we savingly unite.
 Hear the conclusion of it:
GREAT or GOOD, whate'er we call,
GOD, or KING, or PRIEST, or PROPHET,
JESUS CHRIST is all in all.

The celebrated Air DULCE DOMUM, is publicly sung by the Scholars & Choristers of Winchester College, aided by a band of Music, previously to the Summer Vacation. The Ode, or Song, is in Latin Verse, the origin of which is involved in mystery, as well as the occasion of its composition. Tradition ascribes it to a Youth in a state of melancholy, wasting his life in fruitless sorrow, at his separation from his beloved home and friends, by being placed as a Scholar in that renowned Seminary, where he was supposed to have fallen a prey to grief. To gratify curiosity, I have inserted a Translation of four of the Stanzas, which will be found to breathe Affection, and Gratitude, in the most eloquent language of the youthful heart.

Sing a sweet melodious measure,
Waft enchanting lays around;
HOME, a theme replete with pleasure,
HOME, a grateful theme resound!

CHORUS

Home, sweet home! an ample treasure!
Home! with ev'ry blessing crown'd!
Home! perpetual source of pleasure!
Home! a noble strain resound!

Leave my wearied muse, thy learning,
Leave thy task so hard to bear,
Leave thy labour, ease returning,
Leave my bosom, O! thy care.

Home, sweet home! &c.

Now the swallow seeks her dwelling,
And no longer loves to roam;
Her example thus impelling,
Let us seek our native home.

Home, sweet home! &c.

Oh! what raptures, Oh! what blisses,
When we gain the lovely gate!
Mother's arms, and mother's kisses
There our blest arrival wait.

Home, sweet home! &c.

O source of uncreated light,
The Father's promised Paraclete!
Thrice holy fount, thrice holy fire,
Our hearts with heav'nly love inspire;
Come, and thy sacred unction bring,
To sanctify us while we sing.

3
Refine and purge our earthly parts;
But oh inflame and fire our hearts!
Our frailties help, our vice controul,
Submit the senses to the soul,
And when rebellious they are grown,
Then lay thy hand, and hold them down.

4
Chase from our minds th'infernal foe,
And peace, the fruit of love, bestow;
And, lest our feet should step astray,
Protect and guide us in the way;
Make us eternal truths receive,
And practise all that we believe.

 And that important day,
 When all that mortal life has done,

This admirable Composition, is part of a MASS, by JOHN AMADEUS NAUMANN, a native of Saxony, who received his Musical Education in Italy, and on his return to Dresden, he was appointed Director of the Chapel Band of the Elector of Saxony; which proves him to have been one of the most elegant and skilful Musicians of his time. M^r LATROBE, in the Preface to his Selection of Sacred Music from the Works of the most eminent German and Italian Composers, speaks thus of the Musical performances at that place.

"This Band was regulated by the admirable HASSE, and preserved in all its excellence by subsequent Directors, especially by "NAUMANN," who was also engaged to reform the Royal Bands at Stockholm and Copenhagen. The matchless precision, expression and delicacy; the sweet and powerful confluence of the most devout, melting, and animating sounds, which distinguish the performance of the Dresden Chapel, is not to be described.

And lest the shadow of a spot
 Should on my soul be found,
 He took the robe the Saviour wrought,
 And cast it all around .

3

How far the heavenly robe exceeds
 What earthly princes wear!
 These ornaments how bright they shine!
 How white the garments are!

4

The spirit wrought my faith and love,
 And hope and every grace;
 But Jesus spent his life to work
 The robe of righteousness .

 Let all thy powers agree .

Ye fields of light, celestial plains,
 Where gay, transporting beauty reigns
 Ye scenes divinely fair,
 Your Maker's wondrous power proclaim,
 Tell how he form'd your shining frame,
 And breath'd the fluid Air.

3

Ye angels catch the thrilling sound,
 While all th'adoring thrones around,
 His boundless mercy sing;
 Let every listening saint above
 Make all the tuneful soul of love,
 And touch the sweetest string.

4

Join, ye loud spheres, the vocal choir,
 Thou dazzling orb of liquid fire,
 The mighty chorus aid;
 Soon as gay evening gilds the plain,
 Thou, moon, protract the melting strain,
 And praise him in the shade.

5

Thou heaven of heavens, his vast abode,
 Ye clouds proclaim your forming God,
 Who call'd yon worlds from night:
 "Ye shades dispel;"—th'Eternal said;
 At once th'involving darkness fled,
 And nature sprang to light!

144 ST BRIDE'S. (Funeral Hymn) S.M. Watts's Hy:

With great Solemnity.

D^r Howard.

The musical score is arranged in three systems, each with five staves. The first three staves of each system are for vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, and Tenor/Bass), and the last two are for piano accompaniment (Right and Left Hand). The lyrics are: "And must this bo-dy die? This mor-tal frame de-cay? And must these ac-tive limbs of mine Lie mould-ring in the clay?"

2

Corruption, earth and worms,
 Shall but refine this flesh
 Till my triumphant spirit comes
 To put it on afresh.

3

God my Redeemer lives
 And often from the skies
 Looks down and watches all my dust,
 Till he shall bid it rise.

4

Array'd in glorious grace
 Shall these vile bodies shine,
 And every shape and every face,
 Look heavenly and divine.

5

These lively hopes we owe
 To Jesus' dying love;
 We would adore his grace below,
 And sing his power above.

6

Dear Lord, accept the praise
 Of these our humble songs
 Till tunes of nobler sounds we raise
 With our immortal tongues.

Plaintively.

G. Kirby, Chapel Organist at Windsor to Queen Elizabeth.

My days are wasted like the smoke
 Dissolving in the air;
 My Strength is dry'd, my heart is broke,
 And sinking in despair.

3

My spirits flag like withering grass
 Burnt with excessive heat;
 In secret groans my minutes pass,
 And I forget to eat.

4

As on some lonely building's top
 The Sparrow tells her moan,
 Far from the tents of joy and hope
 I sit and grieve alone.

5

My looks like wither'd leaves appear,
 And life's declining light
 Grows faint as evening shadows are
 That vanish into night.

6

God of my life, look gently down,
 Behold the pains I feel;
 But I am dumb before thy throne,
 Nor dare dispute thy will.

7

But if my life be spar'd awhile,
 Before my last remove,
 Thy praise shall be my business still,
 And I'll declare thy love.

The musical score consists of five staves. The top four staves are vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and the bottom two staves are piano accompaniment. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: "And wake the tributary lay." The lyrics are repeated on each of the four vocal staves.

To him your loudest accents raise,
With grateful hearts his love proclaim,
And bless, O bless his awful name.

That truth shall time itself survive,
That mercy through the length of days
Unclouded pour its healing rays.

Should this Composition at any time be honored by being performed in a place of Public Worship, I beg leave to recommend the use of a TRUMPET in D, and which should be introduced only where mentioned, as it would add much to the character of the Music and thereby give greater effect to the awful sublimity of the Poetry. Andante e Sempre Piano.

D^r Wainwright.

The musical score is arranged in three systems. Each system contains four staves: two vocal staves (Soprano and Alto) and two piano staves (Right and Left Hand). The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves. The music is in 3/2 time and B-flat major. The tempo is 'Andante e Sempre Piano'.

System 1:
 It is the voice of Love di-vine,
 It is the voice of Love di-vine,
 It is the voice of Love di-vine,
 It is the voice of Love di-vine,

System 2:

 That soothes his mourn-ful fol-lower's grief,

And wipes the fal-ling tear.

And wipes the fal-ling tear.

And wipes the fal-ling tear.

And wipes the fal-ling tear.

The musical score consists of five staves. The first four staves are vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and the fifth is a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "And wipes the falling tear." The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature.

HELMSLEY.
Andante.

This Air has been erroneously ascribed to MADAN, but it is a well known Scottish Melody bearing a familiar title which is unnecessary to name.

Lo, he comes, with clouds descending, Once for favour'd sinners slain.

Thousand, thousand saints attending swell the triumph of his train:

Hal-le-lujah! Hal-le-lujah Je-sus now shall e-ver reign.

2

Ev'ry eye shall now behold him
 Rob'd in dreadful majesty:
 Those who set at nought and sold him,
 Pierc'd and nail'd him to the tree,
 Deeply wailing,
 Shall the great Messiah see!

3

Ev'ry island sea and mountain,
 Heaven and earth shall flee away;
 All who hate him must, confounded,
 Hear the trump proclaim the day:
 Come to judgment!
 Come to judgment, come away!

4

Now redemption, long expected,
 See in solemn pomp appear!
 All his saints, by man rejected
 Now shall meet him in the air!
 Hallelujah!
 See the day of GOD appear!

5

Answer thine own Bride and Spirit,
 Hasten, LORD! the gen'ral doom!
 The new heav'n and earth t'inherit.
 Take thy pining exiles home:
 All creation
 Travails, groans, and bids thee come!

6

Yea! Amen, let all adore thee,
 High on thine eternal throne.
 SAVIOUR! take the pow'r and glory;
 Claim the Kingdom for thine own!
 O come quickly!
 Hallelujah! come, LORD! come!

This tender and affecting Melody requires a soft, delicate, and moderately slow style of performance.

2

More mild than the morning the SAVIOUR was seen,
 His heart all compassion, his spirit serene.
 His brow crown'd with thorns and extinguish'd his eyes
 "My Father forgive them" — he whispers and dies.

3

Assist me, Redeemer, that pardon to gain,
 Which thou at the price of thy life didst obtain;
 Speak peace to my spirit — then call me away,
 To triumph with thee in the mansion of day.

2

There's not a sparrow or a worm
 But's found in his decrees;
 He raises monarchs to their thrones,
 Or sinks them as he please.

3

If light attends the course I run,
 'Tis he provides those rays;
 And 'tis his hand that hides my sun,
 If darkness cloud my days.

4

Yet I would not be much concern'd,
 Nor vainly long to see
 The volume of his deep decrees,
 What months are writ for me.

5

When he reveals the book of life,
 O may I read my name
 Amongst the chosen of his love,
 The followers of the LAMB.

2

He rides upon the stormy deep,
 His watchful eyes that never sleep,
 Wide o'er creation roll;
 And from his high empyreal throne,
 Views with one glance the torrid zone,
 And ice-surrounded pole!

3

His paths the trackless waters are,
 The winged whirlwind is his car,
 His wheels the hurricane;
 His fiery courses, bounding, fly,
 Borne rapid through th'eternal sky,
 Or o'er the foaming main.

4

Earth, as HE passes, shakes with fear
 Th'infernal spirits, when they hear
 To deeper caverns fly;
 Fierce blazing lightnings mark HIS way,
 Behind him pealing thunders play
 Their dread artillery!

5

His wisdom, infinite and vast,
 Shall, through eternal ages, last
 Unchangeably the same:
 While in the dreary shades of hell
 His justice so inflexible,
 Proclaims his awful name.

6

Before the earth, or worlds, were made,
 His vast eternal plans were laid
 In wisdom and in love;
 And what th' Almighty THEN design'd,
IS FINISH'D in th'eternal mind,
 His purpose cannot move!

7

Ah! then suppress each rising sigh;
 Nor dare to ask th' Almighty why,
 Or WHAT his hands perform.
 Submit to his all wise decrees,
 Whose power can calm the raging Seas
 Or raise them to a Storm!

Numbers there are who feel this truth
 With fears alarm'd, and yet
 In life's delusions lull'd asleep,
 This weighty truth forget.

3

If pardon'd this, what cause, what crime,
 Can indignation raise?
 The sun was lighted up to shine,
 And man was born to praise.

4

And when to praise thee man shall cease,
 Or sun to strike the view;
 A cloud dishonour's both, but man's
 The blacker of the two

5

For, oh! ingratitude how black!
 With most profound amaze
 At love, which man, belov'd, o'erlooks,
 Astonished angels gaze.

6

What is thy whole creation fair?
 Of love divine the child
 Love brought it forth, and, from its birth,
 Has o'er it fondly smil'd.

7

Now and thro' periods distant far,
 Long ere the world began,
 Heav'n is, and has in travail been,
 Its birth the good of man.

8

Let plausible resignation rise,
 And banish all complaint;
 All virtues thronging into one
 It finishes the saint;

9

Makes the man blest as man can be;
 Life's labours renders light;
 Darts beams thro' fates' incumbent gloom,
 And lights o'er sun by night.

All praise to thee who safe hast kept,
 And hast refresh'd me while I slept;
 Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
 I may of endless life partake.

Lord, I my vows to thee renew,
 Disperse my sins as morning dew;
 Guard my first springs of thought and will,
 And with thyself my spirit fill.

 That all my powers, with all their might,

The ills that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

Then welcome sleep, or death, to me,
I'm still secure, for still with thee.

2

A space is all that we can boast,
 An inch or two of time;
 Man is but vanity and dust
 In all his flower and prime.

3

See, the vain race of mortals move
 Like shadows o'er the plain,
 They rage and strive desire and love,
 But all the noise is vain

4

Some walk in honour's gaudy show,
 Some dig for golden ore,
 They toil for heirs they know not who,
 And straight are seen no more.

5

What should I wish or wait for then
 From creatures earth and dust?
 They make our expectations vain,
 And disappoint our trust.

6

Now I forbid my carnal hope,
 My fond desires recall;
 I give my mortal interest up,
 And make my God my all.

To praise awake your tuneful string,
 And to the solemn Organ sing;
 Harmonious let the concert rise,
 And bear the rapture to the skies.

Let all whom life and breath inspire,
 Attend and join the blissful choir;
 But chiefly you who know his word,
 Adore, and love, and praise the Lord.

Veil'd in flesh the godhead see,
 Hail the incarnate deity!
 Pleas'd as man with men t'appear,
 Jesus our Emmanuel here.

4

Hail, the heaven-born prince of peace!
 Hail, the Son of Righteousness!
 Light and life around he brings,
 Risen with healing in his wings.

5

Mild he lays his glory by,
 Born that men no more may die;
 Born to raise the sons of earth,
 Born to give them second birth.

Come, Desire of nations, come,
 Fix in us thy heavenly home;
 Rise, the woman's conquering seed,
 Bruise in us the Serpent's head.

 Stamp thine image in its place;
 Second Adam from above,
 Reinstatate us in thy love.

 While to their golden harps they sing,
 And sit on every heavenly hill,
 And spread the triumphs of their King!

Deliv'rance to my soul proclaim,
 And life and liberty;
 Shed forth the virtue of thy name,

Faith to be heal'd, thou know'st I have;
 For thou that faith hast given:
 Thou canst, thou wilt the sinner save,
 And make me meet for heaven.

Thou canst o'ercome this heart of mine,
 Thou wilt victorious prove:
 For everlasting strength is thine,

Thou powerful spirit shalt subdue
 Unconquerable sin;
 Cleanse this foul heart, and make it new,
 And write thy law within.

Bound down with twice ten thousand ties,
 Yet let me hear thy call;
 My soul in confidence shall rise,
 Shall rise and break through all.

Speak, and the deaf shall hear thy voice
 The blind his sight receive;
 The dumb in songs of praise rejoice;
 The heart of stone believe.

 The dead shall feel thy power;
 The loathsome leper shall be clean,
 And I shall sin no more.

Master (may we ever say)
 Taken from our head to day
 See thy faithful servants, see
 Ever gazing up to thee!
 Grant though parted from our sight,
 High above yon azure height,
 Grant our hearts may thither rise,
 Seeking thee beyond the skies.

3

See, he lifts his hands above;
 See, he shews the prints of love;
 Hark his gracious lips bestow
 Blessings on his Church below:
 Still for us he intercedes,
 Prevalent his death he pleads;
 Next himself prepares our place,
 Saviour of the human race.

5

Ever upward may we move
 Wafted on the wings of love;
 Looking when our Lord shall come,
 Longing gasping after home!
 There may we with thee remain,
 Partners of thine endless reign;
 There thy face unclouded see,
 Find our heaven of heavens in thee!

Glad within these blest abodes
 Dwell the raptur'd saints above
 Where no anxious care corrodes,
 Happy in Emmanuel's love!
 Once, indeed, like us below,
 Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
 Torturing pain and heavy woe,
 Gloomy doubts, distressing fears.

3

These, alas! full well they knew,
 Sad companions of their way
 Oft on them the tempest blew,
 Through the long the cheerless day!
 Oft their vileness they deplor'd,
 Wills perverse and hearts untrue,
 Griev'd they could not love their Lord,
 Love him as they wish'd to do!

4

Oft the big, unbidden tear,
 Stealing down the furrow'd cheek,
 Told in eloquence sincere,
 Tales of woe they could not speak.
 But, these days of weeping o'er,
 Past this scene of toil and pain,
 They shall feel distress no more,
 Never — never weep again!

5

'Mid the chorus of the skies
 Mid th' angelic lyres above,
 Hark — their songs melodious rise,
 Songs of praise to Jesus' love!
 Happy spirits! — ye are fled,
 Where no grief can entrance find,
 Lull'd to rest the aching head,
 Sooth'd the anguish of the mind!

6

All is tranquil and serene,
 Calm and undisturbed repose,
 There no cloud can intervene,
 There no angry tempest blows!
 Every tear is wip'd away,
 Sighs no more shall heave the breast;
 Night is lost in endless day —
 Sorrow — in eternal rest.
